Price: $ 3.75 plus $1.25 postage & handling

This book is part of a set. The 1787 tax list of each Virginia county for which it is extant is being published separately and offered for sale. When all are completed, a book entitled THE 1787 CENSUS OF VIRGINIA, which will be a composite of all the county lists, will be published--with a composite index. It will have approximately 2,000 pages and will cost $125.00. A prepublication price of $100.00 is being offered until the book is available. [Prices subject to change.] For more information about the composite work--or about the separate county publications--write the address above.

PREFACE

The 1787 tax list is a unique one. It is the result of a law passed by the Virginia Assembly on the 11th of October 1786 which mandated that tax commissioners should "on the tenth day of March annually, begin and continue proceeding without delay through their respective district, and call on every person subject to taxation or having property in his or her possession for a written list thereof . . . make four alphabetical general lists therefrom, shewing in columns according to the form hereto also annexed, the date when each list was received, the persons chargeable with the tax or taxes, and the number or quantity of every species of property, inserting particularly the names of all [not just heads of household!] free males subject to tax, distinguishing those also subject only to parish and county levy. . ."

This law was different from the prior law concerning the personal property taxes in that the commissioner was to call on each person at that person's residence [before this the people took their list to the commissioner]. He was to make a note of the day that he took the lists. Also a form was given for commissioners to use which had a column for the names of the males over 21 years of age. They had previously been instructed to get the names of these persons, and also of the slaves over 16, but had rarely done so. Additionally they were to note the number of free white males between 16 and 21.

The tax on white males aged 21 years and up was repealed on the 12th of October 1787. Some of the tax commissioners continued using the 1787 tax form for a year or two—much to our benefit—but the 1787 list is the only one in which it was required. This makes it an extremely important list and is the reason we have chosen to use that year as a "census" of Virginia.

The composite "1787 Census of Virginia"—made up of the tax lists of all the counties—is an invaluable tool in locating early Virginia ancestors. The individual county lists (of which this is one) go further than the composite, however. The lists are given twice in the individual county books—once in the original order, then again rearranged by the date on which the commissioner had visited each taxpayer. This second list makes it possible to tell who the neighbors were since it appears evident that the commissioner visited those living in the same vicinity on the same day. It would also seem likely that he stayed at the residence of one of the persons he visited and continued in the neighborhood the next day. However, be very careful in assuming this.

The tax lists sometimes give information that was not required by the law. Such information has been placed under the "Notes" section. One of the particularly helpful notations often made by the tax commissioners was the identification of two people with the same name. This is a problem that genealogists frequently have. Since the commissioners also needed to differentiate between two John Smiths, they made notes such as "son of Peter", "Beaver Creek", or "blacksmith".

Knowing whether an ancestor was liable for the poll (tithable) tax is also often revealing. Reasons for being exempt included: being a woman; being old and infirm (in which case one should be able to find in the county Order Books a law making him exempt); and an occupation of clergyman or professor. Certain political jobs—from constable (at the county level) to governor (at the state level) were cause for exemption. White males between sixteen and twenty-one were subject to a county parish tithe, but not to the state poll tax. Indians also were exempt. Persons living out of the county may be listed because they owned property in the county, but they themselves were exempt except in the county in which they resided. Sometimes the tax commissioner noted the county or state in which out-of-county taxpayers lived.

"Levy free" and "not tithable" are synonymous. However, when the tax commissioner wrote "levy free", he probably meant the person had been legally exempted from paying the tax by the county court. Any time a person's name did not appear in the column to be counted as a poll, we have indicated this by inserting "[not tithable]" in the notes. Some of these were no doubt levy free because of court orders, while others were exempt from the poll for other reasons.

All names have been left in their original spellings, but cross references have been made in the index to unusual spellings to assist the researcher. For instance, Austin - see Ostin, and Montgomery - see Magummery. All such misspellings may not be cross-referenced, so check all possible phonetic spellings.

PETITION TO ADD A PORTION OF HARDY COUNTY TO HAMPSHIRE COUNTY

To the Honourable the Representatives of the House of Assembly for the State of Virginia sitting in the City of Richmond.

The Humble petition of the freeholders and Housekeepers of the County of Hampshire and part of the County of Hardy—Humbly Sheweth—That your petitioners is under Great Grievances Concurning the Division of the County on the account of the prospect of the proposed Line which Line if Continued will Render the inhabitants of Hampshire County on the North Branch of Potomack very unhapy concurning there Attendance to Muster for there is upwards of ten Miles in Lenth that is but three Miles in Breath and there is not as many inhabitants as can make much more than half a Company of Militia, and these inhabitants in Each County, that is to Say the County of Hampshire and the County of Hardy, on the account of the proposed Line will have Between twenty & five miles to gow to all private Musters—and further it adds to their disadvantage on account of the proposed Line the many inconveniencys of all publick Meettings and if Said Line would be Continued it would be a Great Confusion to our publick officers with Many other things that Causes your Humble petitioners to Look up to that Honourable House for Redress. And Wee, your Humble petitioners, Humbly prays that the Honourable House for Conveniencys of Each County will fix the Line Between Said Countys from the Mouth of Stony River to the High Nobb and Wee your Humble petitioners Submits to your Superior Wisdoms and Wee your petitioners prays the Honourable House that our prayer may be heard and, that our Grievances may be Removed Which Wee have a Confidence in your Honourable protection and Care. And Wee as in Duty Bound Shall Ever Pray.

Bob:

Thanks for your hardwork on the Burgett SS Record Index!

I see several familiar names as addresses, but many unfamiliar ones.

For those with whom I have corresponded before, please bear with me. To those unfamiliar BURGETT genealogists, the following might be of interest to you.

Gussie BURGETT was infirm in 1995 [she has since died] when I contacted her son, John Leslie BURGETT [103 Merlin Drive, Franklin, IN 46131, 317-736-9456] about Gussie's genealogical material. Apparently Betty J. HUNT [Rt. 5, Box 210E; Franklin, IN 46131; 317-736-4632 has taken Gussie's material and updated it. John mailed the material, but Betty apparently printed the data from her computer program. [She must be the BURGETT genealogist for the Johnson Co., IN area.] I added her material to my Valentine BURGETT file, and that is the GEDCOM that I sent.

For your information, a copy of my 'Ahnentafel Table' [European-style pedigree chart] appears below.

"Juno LP".)

1.1. This Service Agreement, and any further amendments to this Service Agreement made in writing by Juno LP or disseminated by Juno LP on the Service, shall constitute the entire agreement (the "Agreement") between Juno LP and you with respect to the Service and shall supersede all other communications and agreements with regard to the Service and the other matters covered by this Service Agreement. Other parties who are granted rights and protections under this Service Agreement are third party beneficiaries of this Service Agreement.

1.2. By completing the enrollment process to become a member of the Service or by using the Service or any software provided directly or indirectly by Juno LP ("Juno Software") other than to read this Service Agreement, you agree to be bound and to abide by the Agreement as if you had signed this Service Agreement. Juno LP may amend the Agreement at any time and in any manner; any amendment shall be effective immediately upon transmission of notice by e-mail, conventional mail, or any other means. Each use by you of the Service reaffirms your acceptance of, and your agreement to be bound and to abide by, the Agreement as amended. If you do not wish to be bound by the Agreement, you may continue to use neither the Service nor any software provided to you by Juno LP, and you shall immediately terminate your account with the Service as set forth below.

1.3. Juno LP may discontinue or alter any aspect of the Service at any time, without notice, without liability and in Juno LP's sole discretion.

2.1. You agree to provide Juno LP with accurate, current and complete information ("Member Registration Information") for your registration as a member of the Service and to maintain and to update this information as required to keep it accurate, current and complete. You agree in your enrollment as a member of the Service and in your use of the Service not to impersonate any other person or entity or to use a false name or a name that you are not authorized to use.

2.2. You are responsible and liable for any activity by any person who uses your account with the Service. Other users of your account shall be bound by the Agreement under Section 1.2 as if they were you. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your password and for any liability resulting from disclosure of your password. You agree that, upon becoming aware that your password or account is (or possibly is) being used without authorization, you will immediately notify Juno LP.

2.3. You are responsible for obtaining and maintaining the equipment and telephone services necessary to access and use the Service and for any telephone charges associated with connecting to the Service. Depending on your location, connecting to the nearest access number may involve long distance telephone charges.

3.1. You acknowledge that the Service and the Juno Software contains proprietary and confidential information that is protected by applicable intellectual property and other laws. Except as expressly permitted herein, you agree not to modify, rent, lease, loan, sell, distribute or create derivative works based on the Service or the Juno Software, in whole or in part.

3.2. Juno LP grants to you a limited license to use Juno Software under the terms and conditions set forth in this Service Agreement. All Juno Software provided to you is licensed, not sold, to you by Juno LP and may be used only to connect to the Service from the United States of America

Happy Memorial Day Weekend everyone.

Attached is a transcription of the Will. I was not able to find an inventory or accounts in the settlement of the estate. I do have a copy of the land patent for Biddlesomes(Biddlecom's) Content and will transmit it later in the week along with comments on what else I found/think.

Lois

Juno LP grants to you a personal, non-transferable and non-exclusive right to use, in object code form only, each copy of Juno Software on your personal computers and other processors for use of the Service by your account. You are permitted to copy and archive Juno Software, as well as to distribute to third parties such copies as you make of the Juno Software, provided that all such copies contain the same copyright notice and proprietary markings as are on the original Juno Software; and provided further that you do not sell, transmit or otherwise dispose of any copy for compensation or as part of a commercial offer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Juno LP may, at any time, and in its sole discretion, prohibit your distribution or your further distribution of the Juno Software to third parties and require you to discontinue any such activity. You agree not to translate, reverse engineer, reverse compile, disassemble or make derivative works from Juno Software. You agree not to modify Juno Software in any manner or form, or to use modified versions of the Juno Software including (without limitation) for the purpose of obtaining unauthorized access to the Juno Service. You agree not to access the Service by any means other than through the interface that is provided by Juno LP for use in accessing the Service. You may neither sublicense Juno Software, nor sublicense or assign the license granted under this Agreement, without prior written authorization from Juno LP.

3.3. You agree that, without the prior written consent of Juno LP, you shall not resell the Service or use the Service for the transmission of commercial solicitations or for the receipt of responses to commercial solicitations. You agree that you shall not, for a commercial purpose, upload, transmit, reproduce, distribute or participate in the transfer or sale, or in any way exploit, any content obtained through the Service. You agree that you will not use the Service for the transmission of (or receipt of responses to) chain letters or pyramid schemes of any kind. You agree that you may not use the Service to disseminate any e-mail message in a broad-based mailing (that is, a single message sent through the Service directly to more than 50 e-mail addresses simultaneously) without the prior written permission of Juno LP. You agree not to forge e-mail headers or take any other action that would disguise the origin of e-mail you transmit through the Service. You agree not to knowingly permit another person to transmit e-mail (on any service or through any e-mail provider, including the Service) that falsely identifies your account as the origin of such e-mail.

3.4. You agree that you will comply with all laws applicable to your use of the Service. You agree that you will not transmit or post through the Service any harmful, threatening, abusive, harassing, defamatory, vulgar, obscene, profane, hateful or other offensive material of any kind. You agree that you will not transmit or post through the Service any material that contains software viruses or any other computer code designed to interrupt, destroy or limit the functionality of any computer software or hardware or telecommunications equipment. You agree to comply with any operating rules provided or made available to you from time to time by Juno LP. Juno LP retains the right at any time to refuse or discontinue the use of any user name selected by you. You agree that you will not interfere with any other person's use and enjoyment of the Service or any other online service.

3.5. You agree that Juno LP may establish general practices and limits concerning use of the Service, including without limitation the maximum number of days that unread e-mail messages will be retained by the Service, the maximum number of e-mail messages that may be sent from or received by an account on the Service, the maximum size of any e-mail message that may be sent from or received by an account on the Service, the maximum disk space that will be allotted on Juno LP's servers on a member's behalf, and the maximum number of times (and the maximum duration for which) a member may access the Service in a given period of time. You acknowledge that such limits may differ for different portions of the Service, and in particular may be set at different levels for members who elect to use billable portions of the Service and members who use only free portions of the Service. You also acknowledge that Juno LP reserves the right to change these general practices and limits at any time, in its sole discretion, with or without notice. In addition, you acknowledge that if an account on the Service is terminated, any unread e-mail sent prior to such termination may be deleted from the Service. You agree not to use your account to maintain a persistent and continuous connection to the Internet, nor to engage in any practice (including without limitation automated and/or persistent checking of the host server) or to use any software or device (including without limitation an auto-dialing device) in an effort to maintain a persistent and continuous connection to the Internet. You agree that Juno LP may terminate your connection after an extended period (as determined in Juno LP's sole discretion) of inactivity and/or if necessary (as determined in Juno LP's sole discretion) to restore or maintain general availability of access to the Service by, and/or appropriate allocation of access-related resources among, members of the Service. You acknowledge that, unless Juno LP, in its sole discretion, elects to authorize such concurrent usage, "simultaneous sessions" (defined as the use of a single account on the Service by two or more modems at the same time) are not permitted. You acknowledge that the Service is provided only for personal use by you and members of your household, and not for corporate or commercial use or for use by organizations or other groups of users.

3.6. You acknowledge that information, communications, photographs, video, graphics, software, music, sounds and other materials and services (collectively, "Content") may be accessible to you through your use of the Service, including without limitation Content made available by third parties over the Internet. You acknowledge that, as a matter of policy, Juno LP does not pre-screen Content, but that Juno LP has the right (but not the obligation) to remove Content (including, without limitation, Content created, posted, uploaded or transmitted by you) from its computer servers that Juno LP, in its sole discretion, determines to be in violation of the terms of this Agreement. You further acknowledge, however, that Juno does not have the capability to monitor, review or restrict (or to edit or remove) Content made available by third parties on the Internet. You agree that you must evaluate, and bear all risks associated with, the use of any Content, including any reliance on the accuracy, completeness, or usefulness of such Content.

3.7. You acknowledge that the Service may provide access to Content that is protected by copyright, trademarks, and other intellectual property rights ("Rights"). You agree that your use of the Content is governed by all applicable laws and regulations, and by any further restrictions placed on the Content by the owners or licensors of such Content.

3.8. You agree to post, upload or transmit on or through the Service only Content that is not subject to any Rights or Content where you have obtained from the owner of such Rights the express authorization to distribute such Content on or through the Service. Any violation may result in civil or criminal liability. You further acknowledge that the Service may provide certain public areas (e.g. message boards, newsgroups, forums, and public mailing lists permitted on the Service). By posting, uploading or transmitting Content to any such area, you are requesting Juno LP to make such Content available to third parties, and you are acknowledging that provision of such Content to a public area will result in copies of such Content being transmitted to third parties. 4.1. Juno LP, in its sole discretion, may monitor any areas on the Service (whether currently existing or created in the future) and may use or disclose any information from such areas or related records consistent with any law, regulation or governmental request; to operate the Service; to protect members or other users; or to ensure compliance by members or other users with their agreements with Juno LP. Juno LP shall not intentionally monitor or disclose any private e-mail message, but Juno LP retains the right to do so to the extent permitted or required by law. You agree that Juno LP may archive and make use of information relating to how you use the Service (including without limitation information relating to the frequency of your usage of the Service, navigational information, and information relating to the display of any advertisements transmitted to you). You agree that Juno LP may use Member Registration Information and other information provided by you or relating to your use of the Service ("User Information") to facilitate the distribution of information to you by others and for any other purposes deemed appropriate by Juno LP that do not violate the privacy provisions set forth in this Section 4.1 below. You agree that Juno LP may disclose to advertisers or other third parties statistical information derived through the aggregation of your User Information with information associated with all or some subset of the other members of the Service, but that Juno LP may not disclose your individual User Information in non-aggregated form ("Individual User Information") or Identifier Information (as defined below) to an advertiser or other third party (except as required or requested by law, legal process, regulation or governmental authority) without obtaining your consent. ("Identifier Information" consists of a member's name, address, e-mail address and telephone number.) Juno LP may obtain such consent by inquiring, during the account creation process or at any other time, whether you are willing to have such Individual User Information or Identifier Information disclosed to an advertiser or other third party (and providing a method by which you may provide such consent), by inquiring whether you object to the disclosure of such Individual User Information or Identifier Information to an advertiser or other third party (and providing a method by which you may withhold such consent), or by any other means. Such consent shall be presumed if Juno LP provides (electronic or other) notice to you during the account creation process that Individual User Information and/or Identifier Information may be disclosed to an advertiser or other third party in the event that you continue the account creation process (regardless of whether such notice does or does not contain a method by which you may explicitly provide such consent). In addition, if you use the Service to purchase goods or services, you will be presumed to have consented to the disclosure of Identifier Information to the company that sells or provides such goods or services. You acknowledge, however, that Juno LP is not the Internet, that Juno LP does not control the Content, services or areas available that may be accessible to you on the Internet through the Service, and that providers of Internet sites or services have separate data and privacy practices independent of Juno LP that govern the manner in which they use information that you provide to them.

4.2. You expressly permit and authorize Juno LP to furnish you, electronically or by any other means selected by Juno LP, information

BURGET, [illegible], BURGAARDT.

The spelling of this name has been considerably varied and many other forms as well as those given above are formed and which differ greatly from that of the imigrant ancestor whom we suppose was Hendrick Coenradtse 1, Burgaart. He married Marya, daughter of Janse Hause Van Hoesen and wife Valckie follows later.

The eldest son of Hendricke Coenradtse Burgaart was Coenradt Hendrickse of Claverac, New York in 1704, of Kinderhook, New York in 1720. He married November 12,1697, Guse Van WEy (Gusje Henrickse Van Wey) daughter of Hendrick Gerritse Van Wey, a colonial soldier.
Coenrad Burghardt(by his autograph "Coenrat Borghghardt") and Geesje had the following children:

Marietje(Mary) bp. February 27,1698, married Isaac La Grange.
Hendrick bp. May 12,1700.
Styntje bp. Jan. 4,1702 (also called Fisk) married Isaac Van Duersen.
Ytie bp. January 8,1704.
Jan bp. January 13,1706.
Coenrat bp. January 18,1708.

The above names and dates are found in Munsell's Collections of Hist. of Albany, New York Vol. lV, p.106, while the following children are recorded in the Register of the Lutheran Church in Athens, New York.

*Petrus(Peter) born at Kinderhook, New York, July 15, 1711, married Eva Huyck.
Jacobus born April 27,1715 at Kinderhook.

(BURGAARDT)

Coenradt(2)Borghard, for almost every possible spelling of whose name is ample authority, was long and promently identified with the civil and religious life of Kinderhook.

LAND LITIGATION

In land papers we have a description of John Beatty's Survey of two tracts of woodland containing together about 4,000 acres of land, laid out for Conrat Borghart and Elias Van Schaack. Borghart portion was in Claverack in 1767. In reply to Henry Van Rensselaer's caveat of protest, we have the petition of the sons of Coenradt Borghart(John,Coenrat, Garret, *Peter and Jacob) and sons-in-law Isaac Van Duersen and Peter Sharp reciting the "Licence and Purchase" in 1729.

From the Trouw - Boeck - Kinerhook, married December 28,1733, Hendrick Burghaard Jr. and Catherine Huyck.

Those who took the oath of office to King William of Orange 1699 - Among them was Koewradt Borgart, who contributed to the salary of the minister of the Dutch Reform Church in Kinderhook.

From Dr.Collin's History of Kinderhook: -
"Peter Burgett, the slave of Abraham Burgett, was worthy of the respect which he received from the entire community. He was an inordained lay preachers among his people. In familiarity with the Bible, in spirituality, general intelligence, ability, character, and good common sense, he was by far the superior of most of their ordained preachers here".
Hendrick(1)(Rev.Gerritse,Soldier in expedition to Canada, and wounded at La Prairie)Van Wie from Holland 1664, settled at Fort Orange,bought land at Van Wie's Point,Albany, New York. He married Eytje Ariaanx and died in 1691. Their son Gerrit died 1746 married Agrietze Caspars Covyn. Daughter Gusje married Coenraadt(2)Hendrick Burgaart.

BOURGET

No proof can be furnished that the Burgetts in America descend from a Francois-Antoine BOURGET, French Huguenot refugee in Germany. This theory is based on a private opinion only which cnnot be considered, since proof must be established by facts.

The beginning itself is already suspect in mentioning that Francois-Antoine Bourget, fearing the anti-Huguenot persecution, took refuge with his children in Alsace-Lorraine in 1669.

At this point it is worth to recall that in 1669 the protestant religion was still legally tolerated until the revocation by the Edict of Nantes in 1685. On the other part, there never was a province Alsace-Lorraine; this name was attributed to the "Imperial Land" consisting of Lorraine and Alsace, annexed by Germany after the victory of 1871. But in 1669 and during the entire period of persecution against the protestants after 1685, Lorraine was subject to the same laws as France and could, therefore, hardly provide a shelter for French refugees. Alsace which was reunited with France, except Strasbourg, by the Westphalian Treaty of 1648 was completely ruined and destroyed by the Thirty Years' War. Strasbourg was not reunited with France until 1681; the conditions contained in the capitulation of this city guaranteed protestant parishes the exercise of their religion but prohibited them from granting asylum to French protestant refugees.

This, of course, does not constitute a claim that French protestant families of the name Bourget have not emigrated, especially with destination Germany. Quite to the contrary, this is supported by the publication by R. Beringuier: Die Colonieliste von 1699, general role played by French refugees in Brandenburg since 1699 (Berlin, 1888). We cite two findings:

Page 34. Role of French refugees in Neustadt. Jean Bourget, of Rouen, maker of stockings.

Page 65. Role of French refugees in Friederichstadt. Guillaume Bourguet, gardener, his wife and three children.

But may we step back and take up the matter at the outset. In admitting that BURGETT is an original French name (which is possible), its original form would have to be BOURGET or BOURGUET.

This name, without being too frequent, is however not rare in France. It derives from the word "bourg", - a bourget or bourguet therefore is a small bourg. In topography there is the Lac du Bourget (Savoy) and the airport of Bourget near Paris. The most outstanding personalities of the name are Paul Bourget, contemporary writer and member of the Academie Francaise, author of the "Pupil", and Louis Bourguet, Huguenot sage, born at Nimes and fled to Switzerland after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes.

The French emigration under the "Ancient Regime", that is prior to the revolution of 1789, to countries other than French possessions (Canada, Louisiana, etc.) has always had its cause in the religious question. This leads us to admit that the Bourget or Bourguet emigrants were protestants.

In the absence of details (name of the first emigrant and his place of origin), general information has been collected.

LA CHESNAYE-DESBOIS - Nobility dictionary, 3rd edition, Paris 1863, In-4. Page 829.

BOURGET or BOURGUET, lords of Berville, Auberville, Ansonville (Normandy) a family of nobility mentioned August 27, 1668 of which Nicolas Bourguet, lord of Auberville, son of Guillaume Bourguet, burgher of Rouen, has obtained his nobility letter in 1578. The coat-of-arms: Azur with a gold stripe, accompanied by 3 silver dots, 2 on top and 1 in the center.

E. HAAG - The protestant France - 2nd edition, Paris 1879, Column 1126

BOURGET. There was a noble family of this name in the Normandy, displaying as coat-of-arms: Azue with a gold stripe accompanied by 3 silver dots. We do not know whether the following are related: David Bourget, minister at Frene (Normandy) 1620-26 - Daniel Bourget, scientist at Saumur, 1647 - Jehan Bourget, professor at the college of Queville, church of Rouen, imprisoned by the Court of Tournelle on April 7, 1672, being accused of having induced several Catholics to change their relifion. His brother, Salamon Bourget, was dean of said college since 1657. They were sons of Salomon Bourget, burgher of Caen, and Suzanne Louvet. Daniel and Salomon Bourget were condemned to the galleys for the rest of their lives for having assisted a religious assembly, the election of Argentan, 1697. A widow Bourget, pensioner of the Netherlands at The Hague, 1763.

E. HAAG. - The protestant France - 2nd edition, Paris 1881, Columns 1-7 (4 pages)

BOURGUET (Louis) philosopher, archeologist, naturalist and mathematician, born April 23, 1678, at Nimes; died December 31, 1742, at Neuchatel, Switzerland.

Bourguet was not more than 7 years old when the revocation of the Edict of Nantes forced his family to emigrate. His father, a wealthy merchant in Nimes, moved afterward to Geneva with his wife Catherine Rey and their son; but since 1687, after a short stay in Lausanne, he settled in Zurich where he, with his associates Jacques Bourguet and Jean Rey, established a big factory producing silk stockings, muslin and other luxury materials. The ensuing success made him decide in 1689 to establish a second factory at Castasegna. There he delegated his son whom he had made to follow in his job and who had resigned from college despite his rapid progress thanks to his astounding memory. But Louis Bourguet felt little inclination toward commerce; an irrestible urge turned him back to the sciences. In 1690 he returned to Zurich and his uncle Rey passing away 2 years later, he reassumed with passion the studies which he was forced to interupt. After a side trip of 4 years to Venice, 1711-1715, he returned to Berne where his family lived since 1700.

Bourguet had married in 1702 at Neuchatel, Switzerland, Suzanne Jourdan, daughter of Claude Jourdan, of Marvejols, having taken refuge in this town. He became a widower in 1738 with 4 children of whom onedaughter only survived him.

Nothing is known if a Bourguet who lived 1719 in Berlin and was employed as a councellor to the French High Court, was related to this family.

In the bulletin of the French Society of the History of Protestantism there are numerous places where the names Bourget or Bourguet are mentioned. As this research has not been accorded much proliferation, a few details are enumerated.

Page 14. Protestant church of Crocy (Crocy-Fontaines, 9 km. east of Falaise). The name Bourguet is found in the baptism and marriage register of Crocy (acts of 1596 to 1605 and 1622 to 1634), In 1599 the minister of Crocy was Gallot; his wife was Brissette Bourget and his brother-in-law was Etienne Bourget.

Page 16. In 1696, Claude Brousson, the heroic pastor of the desert came to Crocy to officiate at an assembly made up of a number of so-called "New Catholics" who met there. The meeting was detected and several leaders sent to the galleys, among others were Daniel and Salomon Bourget.

From 1738 to 1752, 42 children from Crocy, of the families Badouet, Bourdon, Bourget, Germain and Painel, were by order of the King pulled away from the arms of their fathers, mothers and nurses at the hospital of Falaise and the New Catholics of Alencon; the majority died.

Volume 50 (1901)

In 1683, Daniel Bourget, surgeon, was an elder of the Church of Crocy.

Pages 450-468. In the night from the 7th to the 8th of April, 1696, members of the church of Crocy met in the village of Cordiers in the stable of a Mr. Pierre Painel. The famous minister, Claude Brousson, was passing through Crocy; he held communion and performed several marriages. Among those the one of Jacques Bourget and Guillemine Pesnel.

Crocy was a rural community of 57 protestant householders. The liberal trades were represented by the man in charge, Pierre Bourget la Perrelle .

List and status of Crocy families which did not profess to be Roman Catholics, Mar.28, 1700:

7. Pierre Bourget la Pesrelle, common husband, his wife, 2 boys and 1 daughter (Pierre Bourget, common husband of Mrs. d'Orval, 47 years, was married in the Catholic Church to Anne Louise Herbron, of the parish of Couterne, in 1685. Three children: Benjamin, 15 years; Daniel, 5 years; and one daughter, Marie, 8 years, who in 1699 had followed the instructions of the minister of Crocy. Bourget and his wife who had revoked the allegiance in 1685 in the parish of Lignieres, into the hands of the minister of Grancey.)

10. The wife of Daniel Bourget condemned to the galleys, 50 years old, deprived of her dowry and the possessions of her husband, confiscated and assigned by the King to brigadier, Lord of Franceville.

23. The widow Jean Bourget, 45 years old, her 3 children and is a farmhand with Miss Guitonniere at Crocy; the oldest child is 8 years old; they have been sent to the hospital of Falaise.

42. The wife of Salomon Bourget Beaupre, 40 years old, said Solomon was sent to the galleys at the latest arrest and his property was confiscated and given to the Lord of Francville, brigadier. She has 3 children, the youngest thereof 8 or 10 years old.

In 1669 one Francois-Antoine Bourget from Hochburgund, now called "Haute Bourgoigne", together with his nine children in ages from ten to thirty-four, emigrated to Alsace-Lorraine because of his Protestant religion during the time of the persecution of the Huguenots. Four of these children were already married and had children of their own. Their names can no longer be determined today since the married children of Francois-Antoine Bourget shortly afterwards separated from their father, some going to the Pfalz and others to Holland in order to find a place to live and work. This original ancestor, Francois-Antoine Bourget, was a so-called Major Domus and was in charge of a castle belonging to a French prince. He was a member of the lower French nobility. He called himself "de Bourget". Since he lost all his property because of his flight, he became a wine grower and the children who remained with him married one after the other. My father's family traces its descent from one of these children and held their title of nobility until the French Revolution. In the village of Tunsel in Baden there exist inheritance records for the years 1703 to 1810 for members of the Bourget family. At the present time the mayor is having a search made in the Provincial Archives in Karlsruhe for the first names of the testators and deceased members of the family Bourget.

My grandfather was born in Tunsel in 1821; his father was Philip-Adolf who was born in 1789. There are also estate records in existence there, because some members of the family died childless. At the time of the French Revolution there resided in Thann in Alsace a brother of Philipp who is also supposed to have had in his possession some family papers which were lost, however, in the confusion of that period. A son of the old "de Bourget" was named Cornelius and this name as well as the names Philipp, Adolf, Franz-Anton, Louis, Jaques have remained in the family. An official of the mayor's office in Thann told me that many old records were burned during the bombardment of 1944.

Last year I saw at a genealogist's in an old book of the nobility a picture of our coat of arms with a description which coincides exactly with that which I have given above concerning the family. In the Provincial Archives apparently all the records are not available since some disappeared during their transfer during World War II.

In my opinion, Mr. Burgett, you are descended from the same ancestors as my father's family. One branch of the family lives in upper Alsace in the neighborhood of Volkensburg, Although male descendants allegedly no longer exist. In Switzerland, also, descendants are still living who trace their descent from the above mentioned Francois-Antoine de Bourget. In Baden there are also a few families with the name Burget who also go back to the old Francois-Antoine.

Lick Farm" on Catoctin Ridge (known today as "Buzzard's Flats") from Gabriel Thomas and his wife Margaret.[16] The location of this land would not have been distant from that of Elder Daniel Leatherman, being located east of Garfield, Md., between Foxville and Wolfsville.[17]

Nicholas Leatherman Homestead

Peter Leatherman, born 1713 and died March 28, 1774, immigrated to this country in 1731 at age 18 on the Britannia, possibly accompanied by younger brother, Daniel, who because of his age was not required to sign the oath. Peter and Daniel were of similar age and lived close to each other. Peter is buried in the large family cemetery, called "Buzzard's Cemetery," located on the homestead.

Nicholas Leatherman was born 1740 and died 1790 in West Virginia. Land records provide favorable circumstantial evidence in support of the hypothesis that Nicholas was a son of Peter.

Four years following the death of Peter Leatherman, the Stony Lick farm was purchased by Conrad Hogmire, supposed son-in-law of Peter Leatherman.[18] Shortly, Hogmire sold the farm to Lawrence Shrock. Following that, Nicholas Leatherman obtained it. Thus, if Nicholas were the son of Peter, Nicholas was purchasing the family farm on which his parents had lived many years.

Then on April 28, 1784, ten years after the death of Peter Leatherman, Nicholas and Susanna (Roderick) Leatherman sold this farm to Daniel and Sophia Buzzard. By August 10, 1784, they had purchased their lands on Patterson Creek and settled upon them.

The sequence and timing of these events support but do not prove the notion that Nicholas was a son of Peter Leatherman.

Settlement in Hampshire County.

There were two land purchases recorded on Aug. 10, 1784 by Nicholas Leatherman. One was from Peter Neace for 185 acres, a part of Patterson Creek Manor Lot Number 12, and the other was 130 acres from Okey Johnson, also a part of Patterson Creek Manor, Lot Number 11. The witness was Sam Dew (Sage and Jones, 29, 43). This location is on the Patterson Creek approximately three miles in a northwesterly direction from the location of the Beaver Run Church. The log house is located on the west side of the road from Burlington to Headsville, and the

All the Burkett in Dallas Co., Iowa are descendants of Adam P. Burget Research finds that most of his family changed the spelling of the last name to Burket or Burkett.

In the following graphs you find the last name variously wr[illegible]n Burget, Burket, and Burkett. For more extensive research on the Burget, Metzer, Snowburger and Puderbaugh family, visit the Geo. H. Liebegott collection, Public Library, Martinsburg, Pa.

The Burkhart family records speaks of the movement of the family to the west through Bedford County, Penna. The records says that one brother Adam remained in Morrison's Cove, Blair County Penna. We are presuming that this is the Adam who married Mary Puderbaugh (Butterbaugh). This record was furnished by Mr.George H.Liebegott who obtained it from descendents still remaining in the Morrison Cove area at that time. The name therefore had through the years been spelled variously. the above family using the shortened form BURGET.

The male decendants of Adam and Mary (Puderbaugh) Burget were all given the middle name of Puderbaugh, so they were all given the middle initial 'P'.

g) Sarah Catharine, born Dec. 8, 1862 and died Nov. 3, 1838, married John Calvin Cunningham. Susan was Brethren, and at least some of their children were also. These include the families of Carl and Lyle and Mabel whose names are found on the White Pine Brethren lists. Lyle married Hazel McGee; Mabel married Charles Stickley, and Carl married Lessie Mae George. Carl served as a Deacon at the White Pine Church of the Brethren. He was also licensed as a minister in 1927, but did not do much preaching. He and Lessie occupied the old Leatherman homestead.

h) Margaret Jane (Maggie) married Edwin H. Shumaker (Letherman, 537ff).

Summary.

This glimpse of the Rinker, High, Hawk, Leatherman and related families reveals the core of the membership of the Pine Church during the middle of the Nineteenth Century. These families were strongly intermarried and closely knit into a strong congregation. Necessarily lacking from the story is the role played by ministers and the organized life of the church. Lacking church records, our history can focus only on the family history and the family inter-relationships. Nevertheless, the image obtained from this exercise reveals a powerful, vigorous and growing Dunker community in the Purgittsville area by the early and middle part of the last century. As was noted, many ministers were produced by these families.

The Purgitt (Burkitt) Family.

This family name is spelled variously in Brethren history and land records. Burkitt is an Anglicization of the German name, Burkhardt, and the transformation of the name from Burkhardt to Burkitt to Purgitt can be followed in the records kept by the Clerk of the Hampshire County Court.

Burkitts owned land on Patterson Creek as early as 1777. The Burkitts arrived in Hampshire county at about the same time as the Plums and Hersmans. Henry Burkitt was enumerated by Buffington in 1782, the same enumerator who counted John High, Conrad Huffman, Henry Hartman and Christopher Hirshman and other Mill Creek families. When Marquis Calmes took the census of the same area in 1784, he spelled the names differently, e.g. Conrad Hoffman, Stophel Hoarsman, and Henry Purgitt.

Many Burkitts were Brethren in the Eighteenth Century. Some of these Brethren lived in Franklin Co., Pa., and in Washington and Frederick Counties of Maryland and also in the Valley of Virginia.

Henry Burkitt of Burkittsville married Elizabeth Fink, daughter of Dunker Philip Fink. George Burkitt (Williams, 497) was a Dunker at Burkittsville, Md. Henry is buried in the Elder John Slifer Cemetery, sometimes called the Burkitt Cemetery, near Burkittsville, the town named after him. His great house is now the home of the Brethren Wayne Guyton family who obtained it from his Brethren parents, Arthur and Pauline Zecher Guyton.

Christopher and Michael Burkitt owned land in upper Middletown Valley and were associated with Leathermans, Faws, and Michael Miller, all Dunkers.

Jehu Burkitt, who migrated into North Carolina and Tennessee, became the ancestor of a long line of Brethren families.

The origin of Henry Burkitt of Purgittsville has not been proved. The following statement of his possible ancestry is only suggestive. It is needs to be proved or disproved by means of additional research.

Henry Burkhard (Burkitt) is believed to be the son of Michael Burkhard of Frederick Co., Md. Michael had land surveyed in what is now Shenandoah County, Va., on Jan. 1, 1755. The land was assigned on that date to Burkitt by deed from Mark Ilor (Eller/Oyler?) who in turn had gotten it from John Painter. The witnesses were Jacob Rinker, Jr., and George Rinker. Note the relationship to the Rinker family. This land was located in the Stony Creek and Mill Creek areas of Shenandoah County, (Joyner, III, 2).

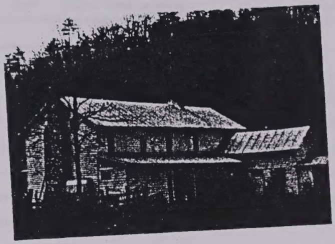
Other transactions identify Henry Burkhard (Burkitt) as a son of Michael. Shenandoah County land records reveal that between Jan. 23, 1777 and May 12, 1778, Michael Burkhard provided for the assignment of 279 acres of land lying on the drains of Stony Creek and Mill Creek to Henry Burkhart (Burkitt), land which earlier Michael had obtained from Mark Ilor. The deed for this land was issued Feb. 21, 1781, including the following wording, "I request a deed may issue to my son Henry Burkhard." It was signed "MB" who was identified in the record as Michael Burkhard (Joyner, III, 28).

A Michael Brookhart (Burkhard) is mentioned in the will of John Williams, dated Aug. 1, 1795, of Hampshire Co., W.Va. John Williams owned land in the Patterson Creek area. Other names in this will have been seen in the records of Brethren families, but their affiliation is not here known, e.g., Rannels, Lyle (Lisle), Alley (Oyler/Eller), and Painter. Michael and Jacob Brookhart (Burkitt) had purchased land in Frankfort (Springfield) in Hampshire County in 1789 and 1790 along with John Rannells (Sage and Jones, 20).



Henry Purgitt Homestead

The Henry Purgitt after whom Purgittsville is named, was on Hampshire County tax rolls as early as 1782. Joseph Neville's survey record reports "then did Henry Purgate enter 400 acres of land on the waters of Mill Creek adjacent to the land of John Moffatt and John Glaze to the north side on Jan. 7, 1785" (45).

Henry is believed to have married, Elizabeth, perhaps a sister of Jacob. Their parents were Valentine and Elizabeth Fidler of Frederick Co., Md. Also a Fridley family of Prices Church had an intermarriage with the Merritt family. A Merritt family also settled in the Mill Creek Valley.

Henry's large log house is located in Purgittsville on the west side of the highway adjacent to the stream which separates it from the barn. It is currently the home of Lawrence High who informed the writer in 1988 that it was built by Henry Purgitt when the Highs and the Purgitts were the only families in town. The house was used for many years as a stage coach stop.

The Purgitt/High cemetery is located on the hilltop directly west of the barn. In it are many unknown and presently unmarked graves. In recent years, Katie Purgitt, descendant of Henry Purgitt and former Postmistress, paid for grave stones for a few of the Purgitt graves which were then erected by Lawrence High. The cemetery also was used by the Veach family.

The will of Henry Purgitt, Sr., was written Feb. 4, 1835 and was probated Mar. 27, 1837. It lists his wife as Elizabeth and names six children: William who received 137.5 acres on Mill Creek where the father resided; Frederick; Henry; George; Mary Recor; Eliz. Shoemaker; Rachel Suber, and six other children who were unnamed.

War pensioner records described Henry as eighty-one years of age in 1835, so his birth would have been around 1754. Witnesses to his will were John High, John and Frederick Ludwick, and Thomas Sloan (Sage and Jones, 130). A comment on the will describes Henry Purgitt as "very religious."

The 137.5 acres on Mill Creek which Henry Purgitt lived was obtained from Elizabeth Fidler on Dec. 12, 1794. It had been transferred two days earlier to Elizabeth from her son Jacob Fidler. Elizabeth was evidently the mother of George

Property located near White Road on Pisgah Ridge

Farm home on National register

Washington, D. C. ---Congressman William H. Harsha announced today that the Heritage Conservation and Recreation Service has entered Burgett House and Barn near Ripley into the National Register of Historic Places.

The complex of early 19th Century farm house, barn, and outbuildings was selected for the National Register because of its architecture and its presence during exploration and settlement of the area.

* * *

Now owned by John F. Barrett and John H. Rutledge of Cincinnati, the property is located at the end of White Road, 1.2 kilometers south of the intersection of White and Pisgah Roads.

The buildings were built in 1825 on land given to Valentine Burgett for his military service in the Revolutionary War.

Very few buildings of this age have been discovered in Brown Co. Now used as a summer house, the property retains a good sense of what it must have been originally.

* * *

Listing in the National Register makes private property owners eligible for federal grants-in-aid for preservation, administered by the states as part of their historic preservation programs.

The Bloom-Rose Rd. is still closed down from Crosstown to Blue-Sky Park Rd., while Brown County is replacing what we called the Beehymer Bridge. We hope it is finished before too much longer.

This December 3rd is gloomy with rain coming down. I am glad to see several cars parked over at Bloom-Rose Church. Glad to see there are folks that are interested in keeping it going.

Sorry to learn of the passing of Mr. Lorah Ransom in his home while his wife, Irene Ransom, was in a hospital having surgery. I have a picture of Lorah and Irene that was taken for their golden wedding anniversary on August 26, 1975. Lorah and Irene have lived in Mt. Orab several years.

Just answered a telephone call with information that an old friend of ours, Mr. James Davis, passed away on

THE STATE OF OHIO;
Clermont County, } ss.

Joseph H Crane Esquire, president judge, and ~~Philip Gatch~~, Alexander Blair and ~~Joseph Campbell~~ John Morris, Esquires, Associate Judges of the Court of Common Pleas for said County of Clermont, to William White greeting:

Whereas, at a Court holden by us on the 18th day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Seventeen at the Courthouse in Williamsburgh, in the county aforesaid, Jacob Burget as is alleged, lately died intestate, having, while living, and at the time of his death, Goods and Chattels within the county and state aforesaid; by means whereof, ordering and granting Administration of all and singular the goods and chattels, and also the auditing and final discharging the account thereof, doth appertain unto us; and being desirous that the goods and chattels of said deceased may be well and truly administered, applied and disposed of, do grant unto you the said William White full power by these presents, to administer and faithfully dispose of all and singular the goods and chattels: to ask, demand and receive the debts which unto the said deceased, while living, and at the time of his death, did belong; and pay the debts the said deceased did owe, so far as such goods and chattels will thereunto extend and the law charge you. Hereby requiring you to make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect Inventory of all and singular the goods and chattels of said deceased, which shall be appraised and signed by Isacher Davis Walter Hall & Henry Ralston under oath or affirmation. And also a true and accurate statement of all the debts due and owing said estate, so far as they shall come to your hands, possession or knowledge; and the same so made, to return or cause to be returned to the Clerk's Office of our said Court within three months. And also you shall adjust and settle up the accounts of said estate within twelve months, unless further time be allowed. And we do, by these presents, deputize, constitute and appoint you the said William White Administrator of all and singular the goods and chattels which were of the said Jacob Burgett

In testimony whereof, we have, on the same day and year aforesaid, at Williamsburgh, caused the seal of our said Court to be hereto affixed; and ordered these presents to be attested.

In witness whereof, I, David C. Bryan, Clerk of said Court, have hereunto set my hand this 18th day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Seventeen

DESCENDANTS OF ISAAC AND BARBARA WATERS OF BROWN COUNTY, OHIO

Gale I. Harris, Ph.D.

FIRST GENERATION

ISAAC[1] WATERS appears in the 1795 tax list of Mason Co., Ky. where the record shows one male over 21, one male over 16, one horse and two cattle. His name also appears in the 1797 list with the notation "one male over 21 and three horses." Therefore he was born prior to 1774, but we have no contemporary record of date or place. That he had lived for some time in Pennsylvania prior to his arrival in Kentucky is evident from references to the birth of his two eldest children, Lydia and James, in 1789 and 1792, respectively, in that state. Although Isaac Waters does not appear in the 1790 census of Pennsylvania, a man by that name does appear in a list of soldiers in Washington Co., Pa. during the 1780's (Pennsylvania Archives, 5th Series). He died between 19 January 1813 and August 1814 in Clermont (now Brown) Co., Ohio according to the dates of signature and probate of his will (see following). His wife, Barbara, is referred to in various records in Brown Co., Ohio and in an 1804 deed recorded in Bracken Co., Ky. The place and date of their marriage is unknown. By an interpretation of the 1830 census of Brown Co., she was born between 1760 and 1770. She died in Brown Co. before 5 Sept. 1835 when her son Bazel Waters was appointed administrator of her estate.

On 19 Feb. 1798, Isaac Waters acquired in Bracken Co., Ky., from Philip Buckner and Tabie, his wife, 131 acres bounded by lands of Thomas Berry and Joseph Wright. On 11 July 1804, Isaac Waters and "Barbary", his wife, of Bracken Co. sold this land for a sum of 120 pounds to Thomas Lounsdale; Anderson Doniphan, witness (Bracken Co. Deeds). Evidently, he then moved his family across the Ohio River to Clermont Co. Ohio since his son Bazil was born ca. 1806 in Ohio. Isaac Waters next appears in the 1810 tax list of Clermont Co. (from which part of Brown Co. was formed in 1817). Hilman's Church, "one of the oldest Methodist preaching places in the county," located about three miles southeast of Georgetown in Pleasant Twp., was "erected as early as 1812" by "Joseph Hilman, Abel Rees, Israel Jennings, Isaac Waters, and several others." (1) The church no longer stands, although the churchyard cemetery, albeit in sad condition, still exists with many unmarked graves.

Isaac Waters' land, consisting of about 90 acres on Straight Creek in Clermont Co., part of the original entry by John Tibbs, was taxed in 1810 at $0.10/acre, the standard assessment for "second rate" land. Probably because of the prevailing difficulties in obtaining clear titles to land during the early years of the 19th century in southern Ohio, the deed was not recorded until 3 May 1814 in Clermont Co., perhaps just prior to Isaac's death. The deed shows that he paid $180 to William White and Jane, his wife, for 98 acres, 1 rod and $5^1/3$ perches on Straight Creek.

His will, dated 19 January 1813 and witnessed by Joseph Stableton and Gideon Dunham, was presented for probate at the August 1814 term of the Court of Common Pleas, Clermont County. (2) Letters of administration were granted to Henry Chapman and Able Rees. The will reads as follows:

> I Isaac Waters Being in a low Condition & not Long for this world but being in purfit Reson Do Commit my soul to God & my property to my wife & children as followeth Viz:
> I Do give & bequeath to my wife the Plantation on which we now Live During her Life & at her decease the Plantation sold & on Equil Divide of the money arising from the sale of the Land Made amoung the ~~five boys~~. "Barberry" Waters appears as head of a household in the 1820 census of Pleasant Twp. including herself, age over 45, and one female age 16-26. In 1830, she was clearly living with her son Isaac Waters in Pleasant Twp. She lived to see her son Elias, and her son Isaac and much of his family, die in the cholera epidemic which visited Brown Co. in 1833. Isaac[1] Waters and his wife Barbara probably were buried in the Hilman Ridge Churchyard (see above), but no markers remain.

The above contemporary history of Isaac and Barbara Waters would be meager indeed if it were not for the fortunate preservation of more extensive traditional records, the most revealing of which is the manuscript of a lecture in August 1921 by Samuel Sherman[4] Waters (3) at a reunion of decendants of Philip[2] Waters (Isaac[1]). While he was careful to note that "the opportunity of securing facts other than those held in memory by members of the family has not been available,"

3. S.S. Waters, Early History of the Waters Family, August 1921. This lecture manuscript was recently edited by Mr. John L. Oliver of Pittsboro, Indiana, a descendant of Philip[2] Waters, who kindly provided me with a copy in 1978. This manuscript also provides the basis for the brief sketch of Isaac and Barbara Waters given in The History of Hendricks Co., Indiana, Ed. by John R. McDowell, Oct. 1976.

we find his narrative to be so consistent in most details which can be compared with the contemporary record that we can with confidence present it here to give more understanding of this family. He relates that

> Isaac Waters came from England in an early day, hoping to find an older brother who had imigrated to this country and settled in Maryland. It seems that the two brothers, for reasons unknown, never met. But making his way farther into the then unbroken West, he settled on the Licking River in Kentucky. It is presumed that he had married before coming to Kentucky, for his wife, Barbara Unsettler, by her name proclaims her undoubted Germanic origin, and also by the changes to Elnsettler, from the German Einuedler, shows that she belongs to that German strain known as Pennsylvania Dutch. Their home on the Licking River was in all probability a struggle for existence; the soil, possibly not over-productive, caused them to depend largely on such resources as nature provided for sustenance. Be that as it may, this ancestral couple lived in the Kentucky home long enough to rear quite a considerable family. The sons were named, in order of their ages, James, Elias, Isaac, Philip and Basil. There were also three daughters of whom the name of but one, Lidia, can be recalled. (4)
> When (their son Philip, b. 1797) was eight years old (5), the home on the Licking River was broken up

---

4. Note that four daughters are mentioned in Isaac's will. Another minor error in this traditional account appears to be that Elias was probably the fourth son rather than the second if the 1830 census record is correct, i.e., in 1830, Elias was age 20-30 making him younger than James, Isaac and Philip.

5. The derived date of 1805 for their move to Ohio is thus consistent with the period 1804-1806 deduced earlier from the contemporary records.

> and the family moved to the southern part of Brown County, Ohio, and settled near the present village of Georgetown. (There) a farm of eighty acres (was) acquired, and by the combined effort of the father and older sons, considerable progress had been made toward improving it when the subsequent history of the family was changed by the early death of the father. The older brothers and sisters who had up to this time remained under the paternal roof, took unto themselves wives and husbands and a complete change in the home resulted. Owing to a provision of the Ohio law which made minor children a matter for legal consideration, the two younger children, Philip and Basil, were taken in charge of an appointed guardian and bound to an apprenticeship. The younger brother, Basil, began his term of service for a brick mason, while Philip was given over to a tanner by the name of Ristine.

The substance of this story, in particular the English origin of Isaac and the family name and German descent of his wife, Barbara, assumes greater credibility when we find that this tradition had also been preserved down through at least four generations in another branch of the family; i.e., that of James^2 Waters (Isaac^1). Isaac Wilson^4 Waters, a grandson of James^2, who had homesteaded in Kansas in 1883 provided the following account for his 1902 Biography (6):

> His (i.e. Isaac Wilson's) great-grandfather, Isaac Waters, was a native of England and was the founder of the family in the new world. On coming to America > he located near Paris or Lexington, Kentucky, and was there united in marriage with a Miss Onsettler, who was of German birth. (7) Their last days were spent in Ohio.

6. A Biographical History of Central Kansas, Vol. II; Lewis Publishing Co. (1902),p. 1599.

Samuel Sherman Waters further provides us with a clue regarding Isaac[1] Waters' parentage, which, otherwise, is not available to us. In a style clearly intended for his 1921 audience, he said:

> Let us digress just a moment to take up a broken thread of history that leads us back across the pond. Now it is related that the mother of this Isaac Waters was named Tout, and that the relationship between the Tout and Waters families came about through that far off ancestral marriage. It is due to this also that we find a persistence of the same names in both families as indicated by Benjamin, Basil, John, James etc. When the Touts left England we do not know; but we do know that the tie of relationship was close enough to bind the families closely together for at least several generations after the emigration from the old country. (8)...Kentucky (was) the home of (the Tout) family soon after the English immigration....

That this story is also substantially correct, and furthermore that it leads us to a more definite location for the Waters'

7. In fact, their marriage must have taken place before settling in Kentucky (see foregoing). In his family Bible, published in 1857 and referred to in more detail subsequently, Isaac Wilson Waters provides yet another spelling of Barbara's family name, i.e., "Onsutter," but gives her Christian name as Rachel, clearly incorrect.

8. This close relationship did exist for several generations in the Isaac[1], Philip[2] line of the family as will be shown under the Philip[2] family subsequently.

Kentucky home during the period 1795-1805, can be shown through consideration of available contemporary records. First, we return to Isaac[1] Waters' will (shown earlier) and its enigmatic statement concerning his son: "Isaac I want to goe to his uncle Bazel" (emphasis added). (9) Extensive investigation has failed to identify this "uncle Bazel" under the assumption he was a member of the immediate family of either Isaac[1] or of his wife. However, the veil partially lifts if we suppose, instead, he was a Tout.

Although a thorough study of the Tout family has yet to be conducted, and details of family relationships have not been established, we have enough for our immediate purpose. Mason Co. Kentucky deeds record on 11 April 1795 the sale of 50 acres of land for 15 pounds by Benjamin Harris of Amelia Co. Va. to Bazil Tout of Mason County. (10) On the same day, Bazil Tout witnessed the sale of 50 acres of land by Benjamin Harris to William McCullough of Mason Co. These lands were part of the original entries by

9. By today's more precise usage, the phrase, "his uncle Bazel," in this context would clearly refer to a brother of Isaac[1] or of his wife, Barbara; however, in late 18th or early 19th century usage, the "his" could refer either to the son or the father, and "uncle" might have meaning similar to today's "cousin."

10. Note that this is the same year that Isaac[1] Waters first appears in the tax lists of Mason Co.

Benjamin Harris on 23 Dec. 1782 along the Licking River watercourse. (Fayette Co. Entries.) During 1797, part of Mason County became the present Fleming County. Basil Tout then appears in the 1800 "census" (i.e. tax lists) on 16 August 1800 in Fleming Co. Next, he appears in the 1810 Federal census of Fleming Co., age 26-45, with his wife, and seven children 16 years old or under. (11) On 2 Dec. 1816 in Fleming Co., Basil Tout was assigned apprenticeship of Solomon Shepherd for "two years from 15 November next" and was to "teach Solomon the art and trade of brick making and laying." (12) Then again, in the 1820 Federal census of Fleming Co., he appears, age 45 or over with his wife, and now nine children age 26 or under, and another male age 45 or over -- perhaps the Abram Tout who died in 1824. (11)

This census record now makes sense of the statement referred to in Isaac[1] Waters' will, for just 10 names removed from that of Basil Tout there appears Isaac Waters, age 16-26, with his wife and two female children 10 years old or under! This man was Isaac[2], son of Isaac[1] Waters, as will be shown more conclusively under the discussion of his family in the following. Thus, the son Isaac evidently did just as his father had willed; he went to "uncle" Bazel, who lived in Fleming (earlier Mason) County, Kentucky and was a Tout, and we have confirmation of Samuel Sherman Waters' 1921 story.

11. These early tax, census and deed records show, in addition to Bazil Tout, a Benjamin Tout about the same age, and an Abram Tout, perhaps older, who died in Fleming Co. in 1824, testate, naming "Bazle" Tout executor.

Basil Tout, age 50-60, his wife and five of the younger children of his family were still in Fleming Co. in the 1830 Federal census. Not long thereafter, he moved to Hendricks Co., Indiana where he appears at age 75 in the family of George Cassel and wife Mahala, age 31, born Ky.; probably his daughter and son-in-law. This record shows that Basil Tout was born in "Virginia." Thus the Tout family had emigrated "from England" at least prior to 1775, and they probably had lived in "Virginia" for at least twenty years before their settlement in Mason (now Fleming) County, Kentucky.

Taken together, these surviving traditions and available contemporary records suggest that Isaac^1 Waters not only may have been searching for a lost brother in Maryland, but also may have come to join relatives of his mother. A more comprehensive study of the Tout family in England and America may shed more light on these relationships and on Isaac's parentage. Isaac and Barbara's first home in Kentucky evidently was along the Licking River about 15 miles west of Flemingsburg, and about 20 miles N.E. of Paris, Kentucky, consistent with the Isaac Wilson Waters' 1902 Biography. (6), where they lived

SECOND GENERATION

2. LYDIA^2 WATERS (Isaac^1) was born during 1789 in Pennsylvania and died 1 Oct. 1863, probably in Brown Co. Ohio where she was still living in 1860. She was one of the "two girls" being "of age" in her father's 1813 will. She married, probably within two or three years after her father's death in 1814, (1) Robert Wright "a native of Virginia" (13) who died before 1830. She then married in Brown Co. on 9 March 1831, Samuel Hodgkins, b. 6 June 1757 in Carlisle, Cumberland Co., Pa., d. 13 Oct. 1845 in Pleasant Twp., Brown County.

Samuel Hodgkins "moved with his father to Rock Run on the Susquehanna River, state not shown; from the last named place, he moved to Harford Co., Maryland" where he served in the Revolutionary War. (14) His pension claim states that he enlisted on an alarm and marched to Baltimore and Annapolis in Captain Bennett Bussey's Company. He again enlisted in the years 1775 and 1776 and served two tours, one of three months and one of nine months (the latter tour in Flying Camp) in Captain Bussey's Company; and he further served two months in the spring of 1777 and six weeks in the fall of 1782. After the Revolution, he moved to the neighborhood of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, thence to Lexington, Kentucky and finally in October of 1798 to Brown County, Ohio. He had a daughter named Elizabeth, by a previous wife, b. 13 July 1784 who married Aaron Burget and in 1853 was living in Indiana. Samuel was buried in the Burget-Purdum Cemetery south of Georgetown in Pleasant Twp.

"Lyda" Wright appears as head of household in the 1830 census of Pleasant Twp., Brown Co. Seven children, ages over 5 and under 20, are shown, some perhaps not her own. In the 1840 census of the same township, she is shown age 50-60 in the Samuel Hodkins, age 80-90 household. Also included are two females age 20-30, and one male and one female each age 5-10. Two years after their marriage, Samuel and Lydia, his wife, sold a lot in Georgetown to Aholiab Bently; Lydia signed by her mark. (Brown County Deed Book 10, page 299, dated 4 May 1833.) The next record is the 1850 census of Pleasant Twp. where Lydia Hodgkins, age 62, born Pa. appears again as head of a household consisting of herself and Barbary W. Hodgkins, age 33 born Ohio, Hanna Hodgkins, age 17 born Ohio, and Isaac Purdum, age 20, born Ohio, a "farmer".

On 27 Sept. 1855, Lydia Hodgkins, age 66, made application for bounty land due her under the act of 3 March 1855 based on her deceased husband Samuel's Revolutionary service. (14)

The application, signed by her mark, was witnessed by Samuel Burget and Elisha Mount, both of Brown Co. In this application, she stated that she and Samuel Hodgkins "had one child who is now living named Hannah Hodgkins who was born on the 16th day of June 1832." A note appended by the Justice of Peace certifies that Lydia "is unable to appear in court from age and infirmity" and that she "is a lady of truth and respectability." She appears once again in the 1860 census of Pleasant Twp. as "Liddia Hodkins", age 70, born "Ky." with Barbary Mount, age 44 born Ohio. (15) The records suggest that Lydia had at least five children.

- b. Nancy A., b. ca. 1855.
- c. James A., b. ca. 1857.
- d. John W., b. 1860.

15. Lydia's birthplace as shown here is almost certainly incorrect. Barbary Mount was probably her daughter by her first husband, Robert (or John) Wright.

3. JAMES^2 WATERS (Isaac^1) was born 29 Oct. 1792 in Pennsylvania (16) and died 27 Oct. 1866 ae 73-11-29 in Jackson Twp., Brown Co. Ohio. He m., first, 7 Aug. 1814 in Clermont Co. Ohio, Elizabeth Wallace, b. ca. 1795, d. 1822 in Brown Co. She may have been dau. of Thomas and Catherine Wallace who, according to The History of Brown County, Ohio (1883) "were natives of Ireland and Pennsylvania and came to Mason Co., Ky. in 1791, and lived on the 'Old Washington Trace' till 1815, when they came to Brown County." Catherine, wife of Thomas Wallace, is buried in the Fitche's Chapel Cemetery in Brown Co.; her tombstone shows she died 22 June 1860, age 88 years, 4 months and 7 days.

James^2 Waters then married, secondly, ~~25~~ 30 Dec. 1824 C:30 John Rankin pres. James McKee in Brown County, Margaret McKee, b. 13 July 1807, probably in Brown Co., d. 12 Jan. 1896 in Mt. The History of Brown Co., p. 211, under Franklin Twp., refers to James Waters as > "a farmer by occupation, but a natural mechanic. He accompanied his father, Isaac Waters, to Ohio at a very early day, locating in Brown Co., on the farm now (1883) owned by Nelson Watterman, of Pleasant Twp. He resided there till married, and then removed into the neighborhood of the old county seat, at 'Slab Camp', afterward to Jackson Twp., and subsequently to Illinois. He returned to Jackson Twp., and there died. He married Elizabeth Wallace, a native of this county. Of the three children born to them, (Isaac) is the only survivor. When Isaac was two years old, his mother departed this life, and his father subsequently married Margaret McKee, of Pleasant Twp. Eight children were born to this latter union. Mrs. Waters is still (1883) living, and resides near Russellville, in Jefferson Twp."

The available data show more children, who died young, than indicated in this sketch.

James Waters entered service on 26 Aug. 1812 in Captain James Hazlep's Co. of Artillary in Lt. Col. William Rayen's Regiment of Ohio Militia. He served as a private until 27 Feb. 1813 when he was discharged at Lower Sandusky, Ohio. (18) The decennial Federal census records of Brown Co. show James Waters and his family in Eagle Twp. in 1820, and in Jackson Twp. from 1830 through 1860. (19) Thus, he must have lived and farmed in Jackson Twp. for 50 years or longer except for the brief period in Illinois referred to above. In a partition proceeding entered in the November 1868 Term of the Court of Common Pleas, Brown Co., by his eldest son, John Waters, his farm of about 50 acres, i.e., the "homeplace", in Jackson Twp. was the subject of division between his widow, Margaret, and children, John Waters, Isaac Waters, Elizabeth Wall, Margaret Richey, Nancy Waters, Alexander Waters, America Dunn and Aaron Waters. (20) James Waters is buried in the Pleasant Hill Cemetery, Jackson Twp. where his tombstone still stands.

James Waters' children by his first wife, Elizabeth, were:

4. ISAAC^2 WATERS (Isaac^1) was born ca. 1794, and died 13 July 1833 in Brown County. He was mentioned by his father in his 1813 will as "my son Isaac should have the Sorrel Colt which he claims," and "Isaac I want to goe to his uncle Bazel." It appears that Isaac did heed his father's wishes because in the 1820 Federal Census of Fleming Co., Ky., we find him listed within a few names from the families of Bazil, Benjamin and William Toubt (sic), the former of which we presume to be the "uncle Bazel" referred to in the will. Isaac Waters appears, age 16-26, with his wife age 16-26 and two female children, ages under 10. His occupation is stated as being in "manufacture." We can surmise that this was in referrence to brickmaking and laying because, on 2 Dec. 1816, Basil Tout had been appointed to oversee the apprenticeship of one Soloman Shepherd to teach him these "arts" (22), and would fulfill his father's will that Isaac "should be put to good traide."

21. It is a temptation to presume that her name was actually Mary Tout, instead of Trout, because of the close connections between the Waters and Tout families discussed in these pages. However, there were also families by the name of Trout living in the area during this period.

It appears that Isaac did heed his father's wishes because in the 1820 Federal Census of Fleming Co., Ky., we find him listed within a few names from the families of Bazil, Benjamin and William Toubt (sic), the former of which we presume to be the "uncle Bazel" referred to in the will. Isaac Waters appears, age 16-26, with his wife age 16-26 and two female children, ages under 10. His occupation is stated as being in "manufacture." We can surmise that this was in referrence to brickmaking and laying because, on 2 Dec. 1816, Basil Tout had been appointed to oversee the apprenticeship of one Soloman Shepherd to teach him these "arts" (22), and would fulfill his father's will that Isaac "should be put to good traide."

21. It is a temptation to presume that her name was actually Mary Tout, instead of Trout, because of the close connections between the Waters and Tout families discussed in these pages. However, there were also families by the name of Trout living in the area during this period.

22. Fleming Co. Deed Book Abstracts, 1797-1818.

Sometime before 1830, Isaac returned to Brown Co. where he appears with his family in the 1830 census of Pleasant Twp., age 30-40 with his wife, age 30-40; seven children ages under 20, and one female age 60-70 believed to be his mother, Barbara Waters. He most likely returned to Brown County to his father's farm where his widowed mother was living. The 1830 enumeration of school children in Pleasant Twp. shows that he then had five children ages 4-16. The next mention of Isaac Waters is in The Castigator, an early newspaper, of 6 Aug. 1833 which states that "Isaac Waters, his wife, and two children all died of cholera, Joseph Shepherd appointed executor."

On the day he died three weeks earlier (13 July), Isaac had made his will witnessed by James Wall and Joseph Stilman. It reads

> Know all men by these presents that I Isaack Waters of the County of Brown and State of Ohio doeth will and bequeth to my wife Mary Watters one horse and goeers and one cow and twelve sheep and all of the Kitchen furnature and all of the beds and bedding thereunto belonging with the farme during her natural lifetime and at her deth all to be Sold and equilly devided among my lawful heirs with the acceptation sara rice the wife of Israel Rice which has received fifty dollars and that is to be deducted out of his share or her Share as the case may be all the Rest of my Isaac Waters was buried in the Hilman Ridge Cemetery where his tombstone still stands. His wife Mary, who evidently died only a few days later, is probably buried there, but no stone remains. His daughter Sara Rice, whom he mentioned in his will, died only a week later on 20 July and is buried nearby in the same cemetery. So also is his son Isaac who died before 6 August. Six surviving children, Barbara, Robert W., Margaret, Mary Jane, Nancy Jane and Lydia H., are mentioned in Brown County deeds recorded in June and July 1834 which deal with the interests of Isaac's brothers James, Philip, Elias (by administrator) and Bazil, and of his sister Nancy Purdum, in their father's farm.

23. And so ended the line of Isaacs! However, the name Isaac Waters appears repeatedly in other lines of Isaac^1 Waters' descendants as will be seen.

24. In his history cited earlier, Samuel Sherman Waters recounts the tradition that Benjamin Gardner, upon being apprenticed to a cruel ship builder in New York and treated roughly, ran away to join the Revolutionary Army. Arriving at a place where a recruiting officer was enrolling volunteers, Benjamin quickly grabbed the sum of three or four dollars accumulated on a drumhead and joined the army. The History of Brown County (1883) records that Benjamin Gardner was of Quaker descent and born 13 Sept, 1760 in R. I. and moved about 1770 to Renssalaer Co., N. Y., and in the Autumn of 1800, to Brown County. His wife Lucy was born 29 September 1762 in Connecticut.

After his father's death in 1814, Philip, "according to a provision of Ohio law," was "taken in charge of an appointed guardian and bound to an apprenticeship with a tanner by the name of Ristine (for whom) he peeled oak bark, beat it up into small bits, filled the pits, flushed the hides and performed the unsavory duties of tan yard work while mastering the intricacies of leather manufacture." This story, due to his grandson Samuel Sherman Waters, continues to relate that "the boy had been thrifty during his apprenticeship, and when he came to the end of his period of service he was in possession of a neat little nestegg earned at odd jobs and saved through the most rigid economy. Having gained his freedom at the age of twenty-one, he was married to Lydia Gardner before his next birthday." The federal census of 1820 shows that Philip and his family first lived for a while in Byrd Twp., but by 1830 had moved a few miles northward to Washington Twp. in Brown Co. where he appears both in the latter census and in the 1830 enumeration of school children which shows he had three children in the age range 4-16.

These contemporary records are generally consistent with S.S. Waters' narrative which we follow here in detail. "After his marriage to Lydia Gardner, Philip used his accumulated savings to purchase, or make considerable payment on, a farm about ten miles north of Georgetown. Here the couple began their married life under a set of conditions that if encountered today as a necessary consequence of matrimony, marriage would be unanimously voted an unqualified failure. There must have been a great deal of work on the farm, for it is still remembered that though he toiled laborously day after day, he could not put his heart into his task. Day after day, he afterward related, something kept dinning in his ears: 'You'll lose your work. You'll lose your farm.' The idea finally became so impressive that he sold the land and moved to Indiana. It developed later that owing to conflicting land grants made in that part of the state of Ohio, the titles were very faulty, and this farm with many others in the neighborhood were made the subject of a long and vexing litigation which was finally settled by the occupants making a practical repurchase of their homes."

In the Fall of 1834, probably late September, the journey to Hendricks Co., Indiana began by wagon, "drawn by what was then called a spike-team -- a yoke of oxen at the tongue of the wagon and a horse in front." (25) Because of the absence then of roads and bridges, "it was not until late in November when the family reached the end of the first lap of the journey" in Indianapolis, where "in passing through they noted that the hazel brush was being grubbed up in order that the foundation for the old statehouse might be laid." Upon arrival in Danville in Hendricks County, "they were hospitably received by the Tout family who tendered them the use of an empty cabin in which the goods were stored and the family found temporary shelter. It was through the aid and advice of Tout that Philip Waters was able to locate and purchase the land that was to be his future home." He entered the 120 acres at Crawfordsville, Indiana by making the long trip there by foot, where he paid a price of $1.25 per acre in gold. (26)

25. According to S. S. Waters, it was through the inducement of his relatives, the Tout family, that Philip went to Hendricks County.

On his return to Danville, Philip loaded his family and possessions into their wagon and immediately headed for their new home, at first a temporary shelter fashioned from their belongings and an "immense log," and "bark gathered from the forest protected the household goods and formed a roof." Here they lived until a "rough cabin of small timber could be built." During their second summer, Philip and his son's efforts were directed toward the "erection of a permanent log house made of hewn logs covered with hand-shaved clapboards and furnished

26. Part of this land is still today in possession of a great-great grandson, Harold Otis Waters, whose hospitality will be long remembered by the author who visited him, and his wife Shelia, during the summer of 1977. with a stick and clay chimney. This afforded more ample quarters for the large family and also served as a community meeting place for religious worship."

"Philip Waters, while yet an apprentice under Ristine, had become a devout Methodist, and a strict observance of religious duties in the home was adhered to until the day of his death. His wife, at the time of her marriage, was a member of the New Light Congregation, but after coming to Indiana entered the church of her husband." (27)

The next task, ofter completion of the hewn log house, was to make a loom. "The spinning wheels, cards, hackles and other such intricate implements as were required in weaving were brought from the Ohio home; but the cumbrous frame of the loom was constructed from native timber with the aid of such primitive tools as were available, the most important being the broadaxe. On this loom the mother wove the textiles of household use. The sheets, blankets, towels, linsey-woolseys were all the product of her domestic thrift. The father went back to his trade of tanner and made into leather the hides brought in by other pioneers in the neighborhood.

27. Lydia's older brother, Mathew Gardner, b. 5 Dec. 1790 in Rensselaer Co., N. Y., d. 10 Oct. 1873 in Brown Co. Ohio, was a prominent early minister of the Christian Church in Brown Co. His autobiography was published in 1874. (Ed. N. Summerbell, D.D. Cristian Publishing Assn., Dayton Ohio.)

All the footwear used by the early settlers was made from home-made leather by traveling shoemakers who went from home to home, making shoes for the entire family at each stop."

"In a few years ofter arriving in their new homes and providing for their most pressing needs, the widely scattered settlements began to be linked up into a community. Those living many miles apart were counted as neighbors and a mutual dependence on one another united them very closely. While there was a great deal of hard work to be done, it was made lighter by frequent log-rollings, barn-raisings, corn-huskings and other gatherings that afforded an opportunity for social intercourse."

Upon relating the sequence of family events, e.g., marriages of the children and accidental death of the son, Philip, by the fall of a dead tree branch at age 18, Samuel Sherman Waters refers to the final days of his grandparents Philip and Lydia Waters. As his grandfather grew older, "he increased in corpulence; in fact, he became so heavy that he became sedentary in his habits. His physical condition made him especially susceptible to an epidemic of dysentery prevalent in the neighborhood at the time. He had partly recovered from this attack when typhoid developed and he lived but two weeks (in 1851). Grandmother was in good health up until the spring of 1863 when her son, Joseph was stricken with typhoid. She remained at his bedside to nurse him in his illness, and after his death, she too fell a prey to the disease which was now to claim its third victim in the family." Philip and Lydia Waters are both buried in the Sparks Cemetery near Pittsboro, Indiana where their tombstones still stand. Their children were:

It happened ... when Philip, a boy of 18, was killed by the fall of a limb from a dead tree during wheat harvest while he and three others were reaping the grain. He was cradling the wheat and was some little distance ahead of the others when the limb fell. It was about twenty feet long and some eight inches in diameter. Falling on end, the heavy part toppled over and pinned the boy to the earth, crushing his head and shoulders."

He was described as "Son of Noah and Margaret (Evans) — Both bur wal cem Ellis, both of whom were natives of Pennsylvania, his parentage being Irish; hers Scotch and Irish. Noah was in the War of 1812. John E. was reared in the country and received the limited education his neighborhood offered." His wife, Mary's "father was of Irish; her mother of Dutch extraction." (31) Their biography continues with this curious tale:

> The rather remarkable name (Alcinda Isolina Douraman Devargus Dust) of their youngest child has this origin. Her eldest brother had been on a visit to Pike's Peak and out west met a young lady, Alcinda Dust, to whom he became greatly attached. On his return, he wanted his baby sister named after her, but his father had seen an American heroine, so good and kind to disabled soldiers that he wished to perpetuate her name in his family. They comprimised the matter by giving her both names. The family is noted for great physical development. Ritta Ann Glaze was the youngest of four children of Nathaniel and Ritta Ann (Thompson) Glaze. Nathaniel^4 Glaze

ALMOST A CENTURY.

Life's Brief Span Lengthened Out to Nearly Five Score Years.

Rity Ann Glaze, mother of James Glaze and Ann Waters, of Blue Grass, and grandmother of Wm. Glaze, of this city, died at her son's home, February 25th, 1879, at the advanced age of ninety-five years and eight months. She was born in Pennsylvania, but her parents were from Delaware, of the name of Thompson, a long-lived and hardy race of people that formerly emigrated from England. Her mother lived to the great age of 105 years, many of the members of the family living to ninety and upwards. This aged mother had possessed a remarkable constitution and retained her mental and physical powers up to an advanced age. At the age of ninety she could see and hear as well as many at sixty, and could do housework and knitting and would feel that she was not appreciated if not allowed to do part of the housework. Up to within a short time of her death she could converse intelligently of the past, giving many interesting incidents of her history and of pioneer life in Ohio, and many incidents connected with the war of 1812, among them the enlisting of her brothers. She retained much better what transpired 70 to 80 years ago than what transpired in the last ten years. She seems to have died from old age alone. The sands of life apparently all ran out and about two weeks before her death all her powers seemed to fail, she lost her sight and hearing entirely and her friends could only communicate with her by the sense of touch. She became a christian in early life and joined the Methodist church, but some fifty years ago she changed her membership to the Christian church and her friends and children can truly say she lived a consistent christian all her life. She did not forget her religion nor her devotions up to the last, and would offer up her evening prayer at the regular hour of bedtime after her powers had failed so that she did not know night from day. She had only four children and but two of them are now living. She lived a widow about thirty-five years. During all of her married life she lived in Brown county, O. Her remains were deposited in the cemetery at Mann's Chapel, south of Rossville, Feb. 27th, by the side of other members of the family, who have died, one by one, in the last twenty > principally in Brown County, where he was reared upon a farm, and there he was married, Sept. 5, 1839, to Miss Ritta Ann Glaze, who was born Dec. 20, 1820. He owned a good farm of one hundred and twenty acres of land in Brown County, which he continued to operate until our subject (Isaac W. Waters, b. 1842) was several years old and then removed to Indiana, where he resided for a few years, but finally returned to Brown County, Ohio, his wife having interest in an estate there, of which he had charge for a number of years. His last days, however, were spent in Vermilion County, Illinois, where he died on the 10th of March, 1877, honored and respected by all who knew him. He was a lifelong member of the Christian, or what was then called the Newlight Church, and was a Democrat in political sentiment. His wife still (1902) survives him and now makes her home with her children in Stafford Co., Kansas. In religious faith she is a Baptist and is a most estimable woman. The family of this worthy couple consisted of ten children ...".

From census records and birthplaces of their children, it appears that they "resided in Indiana" sometime between 1850 and 1854. They evidently moved to Vermilion Co., Ill. sometime after 1867 since their youngest child was b. in Ohio that year. The record suggests that he farmed the land in Jackson Twp. owned earlier by Nathaniel Glaze, his father-in-law. A tradition preserved by the Sellman family holds that "Johnny" Waters, while still in Brown Co., one night heard a prowler at his farm and shot in his general direction. The fellow appropriately withdrew from the scene. The next day a well known man in the neighborhood showed up with one ear missing and a curious reluctance to discuss the matter.

Ritta Ann was referred to in a letter (now in possession of John Glaze, Jr., Greenwood, Ind.) written on 4 Jan. 1910 by her nephew, Rev. Joseph Glaze, just three weeks before his death, to his son Elmer Glaze in unique but clear grammar thus; "I will go home in 10 days will stop at Penalosa (Kansas) to Aunt Ann Watters 89 years old near blind." Ritta Ann is buried in the Shelman Cemetery north of Cuñningham, Kansas. From the Isaac Wilson Waters family Bible published in 1857, we have a detailed vital record of the children' of John and Ritta Ann (Glaze) Waters:

At age nineteen, Isaac C. Waters started "boating on the Ohio River, making three trips to and from New Orleans, each in the Winter season." After his marriage in 1842 he started farming, "renting land for a year or two, and subsequently purchasing 52 acres, on which he resided for two years. He then sold his farm and removed to Carlisle, where he lived for one year. He then re-engaged in farming, and in 1860 purchased a saw-mill at Carlisle. During the (Civil War, he) was commissioned by Gov. David Tod as Captain of a company of militia at Carlisle, in Jackson Twp., and on one occasion made a trip to Ripley to defend that city from a supposed raid from Morgan, the rebel General." His 1883 biography (35), from which the above is taken, also records that Isaac C. Waters had "held nearly all the township offices, and in 1879 was elected Justice of the Peace," and that he was "also connected with the Masonic fraternity at Russellville."

The biography states that Isaac C. and Lucinda Waters were parents of twelve children; five had died in infancy, and four were still living in 1883. The children who we can identify were as follows:

i. Martha Ann, b. ca. 1843, living in 1883; m. Francis Parker.

From his widow's pension, we have that James Waters was mustered into service in the Civil War for a period of three years as a private in Co. K., 48th Rgt., Ohio Infantry on 11 Nov. 1861. During January 1862 he was granted furlough "on Surgeon's Certificate" and returned to his regiment on 12 Nov. 1862, but he was soon sent to General Hospital (on 20 December). He was back on duty during the period January - May 1863. The Company Muster Roll for May/June 1863 states simply that he "Died Warrington, Miss. June 14/63 of Diarrhea and Diptheria." The Regimental Descriptive Book shows that he was 5 ft., 10 in. tall, had dark complexion, blue or hazel eyes and that he was by occupation a machinist.

Waterman, b. 5 March 1817 in Brown Co., d. 1893. He was a son of Soloman and Eleanor (Frederick) Waterman, natives of Maryland and Lancaster Co. Pennsylvania, respectively. After Barbara died, Nelson married second, ca. 1859, Frances E. Rachford, b. ca. 1840 in Ohio, by whom he had two children; Lucy Mary and Claude Nelson. (35)

Nelson and Barbara Waterman acquired the homestead of her grandfather, Isaac^1 Waters, in Pleasant Twp. on which her parents Isaac^2 and Mary (Trout) Waters had been living at their death in 1833. Nelson and Barbara's children were:

i. Caroline Wilson W., b. 1 apr. ~~ca.~~ 1837 in Ohio; m - -- Wm. Walter Parker (Wilson) and lived in Kansas in 1883.

14. BENJAMIN G.^{3} WATERS (Philip^2, Isaac^1), b. ca. 1819 in Brown Co. Ohio, d. after 1886 in Hendricks Co. Indiana. He married 30 July 1840 in Hendricks Co., Martha Gregg, b. 16 April 1818 in Virginia, d. 24 Nov. 1887 in Hendricks Co. She was a daughter of Jacob Gregg, an early school teacher in Hendricks County.

Samuel Sherman Waters, nephew of Benjamin G., wrote that Benjamin and Martha "began their married life in a house built on the 'west forty' of the original home tract (of his parents, Philip and Lydia (Gardner) Waters). They lived there a few years and then moved to Sullivan County. Jacob G., their eldest son, was born before this removal was made. The home in Sullivan County did not prove satisfactory; there was much sickness in the neighborhood, and Benjamin suffered an attack of typhoid fever during the residence there. At this time a second son, Philip Ohaver, was born, after which they returned to Hendricks County and settled near the old home."

In another reference (36), we find that "after Philip Waters death in 1851, Benjamin and Martha Gregg Waters acquired a share of the family farm" which is traced down to its present owner, Harold Otis Waters, great-grandson of Benjamin G. Waters. In a Petition for Partition filed 29 April 1852 in Hendricks County by Benjamin G. Waters, we find that he had a one-seventh part interest in his father's estate with his six surviving brothers and sisters; his mother, Lydia, entitled dower. Both Benjamin and Martha were probably buried in the Sparks Cemetery near Pittsboro; however, only her tombstone was observed in 1977. Their children were:

22. i. Jacob G., b. 16 Sept. 1841 in Hendricks Co. Indiana.

ii. Philip Ohaver, b. 1842 in Sullivan Co. Indiana, d. 1925. He married 1 Jan. 1878 in Hendricks Co., Eliza Hyton, b. 1859, in Indiana, d. 1909. They are buried in the Greenlawn Cemetery, Brownsburg Indiana. One child known to be theirs was:

15. CAREY D.^{3} WATERS (Philip^2, Isaac^1), b. ca. 1820 in Ohio, moved to Madison Co. Missouri where last heard from. His wife's name was Lucy, b. ca. 1824. We have the story from his nephew, S. S. Waters, that Carey "left home at the age of nineteen or twenty" and was "of a roving, adventurous nature from boyhood. He stole away from home without giving any indication of his intentions, and after a varied experience in wandering over the South, joined the regular army and during his term of service, took part in an expedition against the Indians in Florida. He remained in the army until the close of the trouble and came back with his regiment to Louisville, Kentucky, where he was discharged."

"At Louisville he hired to a captain of a steamboat plying between Louisville and New Orleans, then came back up the river as far as St. Louis where he again enlisted in the army. This force was assigned duty in the far West and took him to the Rocky Mountain region of the upper Missouri River. At the close of this service he started back home, but somewhere in the state of Missouri he met a gunsmith in whose shop he worked a number of years, and whose daughter afterward became his wife. He came back to the old home (in Hendricks Co.) at the time of his father's death and remained until the estate was settled, after which he went back to Missouri. Since that time nothing has ever been heard of that branch of the family." The 1850 census of Madison Co. Missouri shows children:

i. Marion, b. ca. 1844 in Mo.
ii. Lidy, b. ca. 1846 in Mo.
iii. Benjamin, b. ca. 1848 in Mo.

16. ISAAC BASIL^3 WATERS (Philip^2, Isaac^1), b. ca. 1832 in Brown Co. Ohio, d. 1921 in Hendricks Co. Indiana. He married first, 16 April 1858 in Hendricks Co., Elizabeth Sarah Walters, b. 18 July 1838 in Indiana, d. 12 Aug. 1861. She is buried in the Pittsboro, Indiana Cemetery. He then married secondly, 19 Nov. 1863 in Hendricks Co., Elizabeth Ann Watts, b. ca. 1837 in Kentucky, d. about 1920.

Again following S. S. Waters' account, this time of his father, we learn that after his father's death in 1851, Isaac Basil "worked out at the carpenter's trade. He had no experience and his employer, Park Poynter, paid him the munificent stipend of five dollars a month. He worked with Poynter one season and later kept at the trade under Ezekial Clark and Archabald Alexander. Having served his apprenticeship, he began working on his own account and was assisted by his younger brother, John. The two boys worked at carpentering during the summers of 1857 to 1860, and during the winter months Isaac taught school." He served in the Civil War in Co. C., 25th Indiana Volunteers.

In August 1921, Samuel Sherman Waters concluded his narrative with the statement (Concerning Philip^2 Water's children) that "all of that family are now gone except Isaac Basil, a sere and withered leaf on a forsaken bough." He evidently died soon afterward. The children of Isaac and Elizabeth Sarah Waters were:

i. Franceska, b. ca. 1859,
ii. Lucille, b. 1860,

and the children of Isaac Basil and Elizabeth Ann were:

23. iii. Samuel Sherman, b. ca. 1865 in Indiana.
24. iv. John Tout, b. 1867 in Indiana.
v. Myrtle Ellen, died young.
vi. Ferdie, died young.

17. JOSEPH W.^{3} WATERS (Philip^2, Isaac^1), b. 1834 in Brown County Ohio, d. 1863 in Hendricks Co. Indiana. He married 10 Nov. 1858 in Hendricks Co., Elizabeth Watson, b. ca. 1838 in Kentucky.

Of his uncle, Joseph W., S. S. Waters wrote that "he lived on the farm with his mother until the time of his marriage to Elizabeth Watson. He and his wife began housekeeping on a tract of land afterward known as the Elijah Veach farm. Joseph Waters was a perfect specimen of developed manhood. He was six feet two inches in height, of muscular build and weighed 200 pounds. He delighted in wrestling and jumping, and at log-rollings and house raisings it was his pride to outlift any man in the neighborhood. In 1863 he fell a victim of typhoid fever, a disease that made its appearance in the autumn of each of the years from 1858 to 1863." Joseph W. Waters is buried in the Sparks Cemetery, Pittsboro Indiana. Their children were:

i. Alonzo F., b. 1860 in Indiana, d. 1863 and buried in the Sparks Cemetery.
ii. Mary.

18. JOHN TOUT^3 WATERS (Philip^2, Isaac^1), b. ca. 1836 in Hendricks Co. Indiana, d. 1872 in Indianapolis. He married 18 Aug. 1859 in Hendricks Co., his relative, Sarah Ann Tout, b. ca. 1834 in Ohio.

With his brother, Joseph W., John Tout Waters remained at home several years to manage the farm after their father's death in 1851. His nephew, S. S. Waters, said that he "learned the carpenter's trade and became a skilled mechanic. There are a few houses still standing (in 1921) in Pittsboro that he designed and built. He took part in the Civil War, serving as an artificer (with his brother, Isaac Basil in Co. C., 25th Indiana Rgt.) After the war's close he returned to Pittsboro where he again worked at his trade, later moving to Indianapolis where he died of spotted fever in 1872." We have no record of children.

Kingman County Kansas. He married 31 Oct. 1867 in Brown Co., Margaret Roush, b. 8 Nov. 1844 in Highland Co. Ohio, d. 15 Oct. 1914 near Penalosa, Kingman Co. Kansas. Isaac Wilson, his wife Margaret, and his mother, Ritta Ann (Glaze) Waters, are buried in the Shelman Cemetery near Cunningham, Kansas.

Margaret Roush was the second child of Henry and Rachel (Wilkin) Roush of Highland Co. Ohio, but who also migrated west to Missouri and finally to Kansas where he d. 9 March 1900. They are also buried in the Shelman Cemetery. Henry Roush, b. ca. 1820 in Highland Co., was son of Henry^3 (Philip^2, John Adam^1) and Barbara (Fanchler) Roush of Highland County. (37) Rachel Wilkin, b. 1823 in Highland Co., d. 1903 was daughter of George^3 (Philip^2, Godfrey^1) and Susannah (Wendel) Wilkin of Highland County. (38)

Soon after their marriage in Brown Co., Isaac and Margaret Waters moved in 1869 to Marion Co. Missouri

where they lived four or five years and then moved to Cole Co. Missouri. In about 1876, they moved back east to Champaign Co. Illinois; remaining there about a year, they then moved to Vermilion Co. Illinois where they appear in the 1880 census of Butler Twp. In 1882 they moved to Pretty Prairie, Reno Co. Kansas where they lived one year; then finally they moved in 1883 to Eureka Twp., Kingman Co. Kansas where they homesteaded on the southeast quarter of Section 7. In his 1902 biography, Isaac Wilson Water's homestead venture is described as follows (39)

> "Mr. Waters brought with him only a dollar and a half and one horse and although he bought another soon after locating here it unfortunately died, leaving him without a team. Upon this place he erected a box house, fourteen by sixteen feet, boarded up and down, and broke out ten acres of his land, but having no team he was obliged to work for others for about two years. He was then able to purchase a yoke of steers, and with them he broke forty acres of his land. He also saved enough to buy a cow, for which he paid forty dollars, but being greatly in need of a well he gave the cow to a man to bore a well for him. The work, however, was dishonestly done and proved utterly worthless, so that he lost the entire amount. In those early days, Mr. Waters traded considerably and at length became the owner of two suckling colts, which he kept until they were two years old and then sold them. He continued to work for others for some time, but was at length able to devote his entire time and attention to his farm. Since then he has steadily prospered, although at one time he was obliged to mortgage his place, but it is now free from debt, and one hundred and twenty acres of the farm are under cultivation. In 1899 he erected a good substantial house, and also built a double granary 16 by 24 feet."

22. JACOB G.^{4} WATERS (Benjamin G.^{3}, Philip^2, Isaac^1), b. 16 Sept. 1841 in Hendricks Co. Indiana, d. 31 Dec. 1897 in Hendricks Co. He married 8 Jan. 1863 in Hendricks Co., Burzilla Jane Courtney, b. 25 Oct. 1845, d. 12 May 1936. They are buried in the Greenlawn Cemetery, Brownsburg, Indiana.

Jacob, the eldest son of Benjamin and Martha (Gregg) Waters, served in Co. C., 25th Indiana Rgt. in the Civil War. In 1886, they purchased from his parents the latter's portion of the Philip^2 Waters homestead, which has since been passed down to their grandson, Harold Otis Waters. Jacob and Burzilla Waters had several children, including:

i. Anna L., b. 1864, d. 1928; m. - - - Perkins. She is buried in the Sparks Cemetery near Pittsboro, Indiana.

ii. Luna R., b. 30 Oct. 1868, d. 9 June 1950; m. Logan S. Halfaker, b. 1865, d. 1932.

23. SAMUEL SHERMAN^4 WATERS (Isaac Basil^3, Philip^2, Isaac^1), b. ca. 1865 in Hendricks Co. Indiana, living in Indianapolis in the "late 1920's". He married Ethel Wills.

His nephew, John Oliver, has provided an account of Samuel Sherman Water's activities (41), remarking that he "was an independent character, devoting every waking hour to the pursuit of any project that struck his fancy," and that he "was better known as Sherman, and in later life as S. S." He "became a skilled cabinetmaker, although his work was not as detailed and finely finished as that of his brother, John Tout. He made a few violins and repaired musical instruments." Among his "varied vocations in and around Pittsboro were postmaster, schoolteacher, publisher, music teacher, philosopher and tinkerer.

He once decided to build a small steam engine, and labored diligently at practically nothing else for several months, fashioning every part to his satisfaction. Finally, when it was finished, he took it to a local factory where he could connect it to a steam supply line. The home-made steam engine ran perfectly, and Sherman subsequently discarded it. He mastered it and that was that."

"In the late 1820's, Sherman became interested in astronomy - the only thing that ever held his attention for any length of time. He made at least three telescopes, grinding his own lenses on a machine he converted from a sewing machine. He tested his lenses in his workshop after dark, using a kerosene lamp with a metal chimney with a pinhole in it. No one ever knew what he was looking for, but when he supposedly found it, he would then mount the lens in the telescope. He soon found that he needed a mechanism that would keep the telescope trained on a star under observation, and he developed that from a windup phonograph motor. Sherman Waters eventually took up residence in Indianapolis." (42). Samuel Sherman and Ethel (Wills) Waters' children were:

i. Horace, living in Sandusky, Ohio.
ii. Mary Alice.

42. He also found time to write the account of the Waters' family which has been used liberally in these pages.

24. JOHN TOUT^4 WATERS (Isaac Basil^3, Philip^2, Isaac^1), not to be confused with his uncle by that name (No. 18), was b. 1867 in Hendricks County Indiana, d. January 1943. He married 25 Dec. 1888, Flora Phillips, b. ca. 1872, d. 1946. She was daughter of Melville and Jane (Ellis) Phillips of Brownsburg Indiana, who died in 1923 and March 1932, respectively.

Writing of his grandfather, John Oliver related that John Tout Waters "was a great cyclist -- of the high-wheel variety -- and he made the bike trip to Lebanon and back on several occasions when he was courting Flora. He worked with his father, who was a coffin maker in what amounted to the funeral business of the day. Later, his father Isaac also supplied burial clothes, the hearse and team, and John was the driver. John, however, became a licensed embalmer as did Flora, who was one of two women in her class to receive embalming licenses in 1896. John and Flora operated and undertaking and furniture business in Pittsboro until about the middle of World War I. when they sold out and moved to Indianapolis. Flora became a 'trade embalmer', going on death calls for any of the established funeral directors who needed her. Later she was employed by Flarrer and Buchanan as a lady attendant until her retirement. John Waters worked as a carpenter in the maintenance department of L. S. Ayres Department Store." They had one child:

i. Ivy Beulah, b. 24 Feb. 1893, d. 14 Dec. 1955. She m. 18 June 1913, Charles Oliver, b. 13 Dec. 1890, d. April 1973, son of Leroy Porter Oliver. They moved to Indianapolis in 1919 where he worked for the Pennsylvania Railroad at various offices; then in 1933 they moved back to Pittsboro, Indiana. They had one child:

a. John, b. April 1920 in Indianapolis, lives in Pittsboro, Indiana in 1978. (43) He married in Sept. 1949, Doris Brown. John and Doris are employed at two different banks in Indianapolis.

43. The writer is grateful for John Oliver's willing assistance in providing the unpublished Samuel Sherman Waters account of the Philip^2 Waters family.

25. ISAAC PINGRY^5 WATERS (Isaac Wilson^4, John^3, James^2, Isaac^1), b. 2 May 1874 in Illinois, d. 22 Oct. 1962 in Cunningham, Kingman Co. Kansas. (44) He married ~~20~~ 13 April 190~~3~~4 in Kansas, Della Alaretta Crick, b. 28 May 1875 in Rimersburg, Clarion Co. Pennsylvania, d. 5 June 1953 near Cunningham, Kansas.

Della Crick was the eighth child of James Harrison and Rachel (Rankin) Crick of Pratt Co. Kansas who, upon migrating from Clarion Co. Pa. in 1883, homesteaded a few miles northwest of Cunningham, in Pratt Co., in 1884. James Harrison^3 Crick (Jacob^2, Adam^1), b. 30 June 1836 in Clarion Co. Pa., d. 22 Nov. 1911 in Pratt Co., was son of Jacob and Angeline (Flick) Crick of Clarion Co. Rachel^4 Rankin (Benjamin M.^{3}, Benjamin^2, William^1), b. 12 Jan. 1838 in Clarion Co., d. 21 Oct. 1924 in Pratt Co., was a daughter of Benjamin M. and Margaret A. (Armstrong) Rankin of Clarion County. Angeline^4 Flick (Jonas^3, John Casper^2, Gerlach Paul^1), b. ca. 1813 in Pa., d. after 1886 in Pa., was daughter of Jonas and Mary Flick of Clarion Co. Her father and grandfather served in the War of 1812 and the Revolutionary War, respectively. Margaret A.^{2} Armstrong (James^{1}), b. 25 May 1814 in Armstrong Co. Pa., d. 5 October 1909 in Clarion Co. Pa., was daughter of James and Nancy (Lemon) Armstrong, m. 8 April 1794 in Cumberland Co. Pa.

When a young man, Isaac Pingry (known to family and friends as "Ping" Waters) hired out to drive a team and wagon during the Sooner Rush into Oklahoma Territory. He was fond of regaleing his children and grandchildren with the story that while still at home with his parents, one night he heard a burgler in the house, obviously after some money kept there. Ping, still in his underware, started after the man and ended up chasing him many miles over the roads and fields near Penalosa, Kansas.

After their marriage, Ping and Della Waters purchased a farm about six miles north of Cunningham where they remained the rest of their lives. He also ran a blacksmith shop on his farm. They are buried in the Shelman Cemetery near their farm. Their children were:

i. Nelson Wesley, b. 22 April 190~~4~~5 near Penalosa, Kansas, lives in Pratt, Kansas in 1978. He married first, Beatrice Campbell, and second, Jessie Hineman, d. 1978, and third, Mrs. - - - Abel. He had no children.

ii. Elva Rachel, b. 16 July 1907, lives in Cunningham, Kansas in 1978. She married Elmer Raymond^{3} Glenn (William Hugh^{2}, James Philander^{1}), b. 22 March 1906, d. 8 Nov. 1971 in Cunningham. Their children are:

   a. Calvin D., b. 23 June 1930; m. Charlene Jo Montgomery.

Effie sold this farm to her son and daughter-in-law, Harold Otis and Shelia Waters. Otis and Effie (Wills) Waters' children were:

i. Harold Otis, b. 12 March 1912 in Hendricks Co., lives on the old Philip^{2} Waters farm in 1978. He married 22 Feb. 1941 in Brownsburg, Indiana, Shelia Justina King, b. 26 Sept. 1910 in Hendricks Co., daughter of Patrick Michael and Delia Bridget (Lenahan) King of Hendricks Co. They have two children:

  a. Charles Franklin, b. 23 April 1942 at Lebanon, Indiana; m. 10 January 1964 in Pittsboro, Patricia Joan Norman, b. 16 Jan. 1943 at Plainfield, Ind.

  b. Mary Lou, b. 8 Jan. 1946 at Lebanon; m. 26 July 1969 in Indianapolis, Robert Thomas Fox, b. 14 Sept. 1944 in Flint, Mi.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Situated on a hilltop overlooking Rangle Run to the north and west, the Burgett House and Barn are surrounded by tobacco fields and woodland. The house is a one story rectangular building of common bond brick walls 15 inches thick. It has a facade of Flemish bond brick. The house rests upon a foundation of squared random rubble.

The facade has a central,recessed porch enclosed at an undetermined date by weatherboard,flush with the exterior facade wall. A plain wooden door protected by a small gabled hood is centered in the weatherboard wall. Removal of wall paper in 1977,in the enclosed porch,reveals the outline of a stairway leading to the loft. A single doorway is set into each of the three interior brick walls of the enclosed porch.

Single rectangular windows flank the facade entrance. All of the windows of the house have jack arches above and lugsills below. The windows are of double hung sash,and one light over one, which indicates that the sash is not original.

The gable ends are on the sides of the house where single width doors individually appear near the south (facade) wall. Two small rectangular attic windows flank the end chimney on the east wall. The rear, north side, of the house is distinguished by a central single width door flanked by two windows on either side, making a total of four windows. All of the doors of the house have jack arches overhead. The house has no basement. The gabled roof has modern sheet metal

The house has unusual features in the form of a brick water table consisting of a bottom most course of bricks slanting outward at the base. Under the rooflines of the facade and rear north side are projecting courses of molded brick reminiscent of earlier seaboard colonial styles.

The four room house retains its original woodwork, which includes exquisite detailing on an apparently original mantel in the east room.

100 meters southeast of the house are a story and a half 19th Century barn of peg construction and vertical wooden siding, and a small outbuilding of the same vintage, also of frame construction. Near the southwest corner of the house stands another small frame outbuilding of vertical wooden siding.

SPECIFIC DATES 1825 BUILDER/ARCHITECT

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The house is connected with early settlers of Brown County. Yet it is most important as a relatively unchanged survival of an early pre-Victorian style of building, found in the river counties of Southwestern Ohio.

The house is situated on land granted to Valentine Burgett by the United States government for military service in the American Revolution. Part of the land later came to be owned by the son of Valentine Burgett, Abraham Burgett (1792-1843), who married Rebecca Drake in 1818. U.S. Census Records reveal that Valentine and Abraham Burgett resided in Brown County as early as 1820.

Tax records indicate that the house was probably built in 1825 as it appears on the 1826 tax duplicate at a value of $250.00. It appears on an 88 acre tract of land owned by Abraham Burgett, who probably had the house built. The son of Abraham and Rebecca Burgett, James F. Burgett (1819 - 1883) also lived in the house. Further history of the Burgett family is unknown.

The house is significant because of its early period and its unusual architectural features such as the finely carved mantel and the molded exterior cornice of brick. It is a simple structure, yet it shows the mark of a master builder and craftsman. Although the inventory of Brown County buildings is far from complete, it is only one of two buildings of its type discovered in the course of the inventory since 1975, in Brown County.

Today the house and its barn and outbuildings stand as a cohesive grouping of 19th Century Ohio farm buildings, which retain their original fabric and character.

John Mann, Complainant
vs
Aaron Burgett
and Others – Defendants

In Chancery.

Brown County ss. Be it remembered that heretofore to wit on the fifth day of September in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hun=dred and thirty one the Complainant by A Liggett Esquire his Solicitor produced and filed in the Clerks office here his Petition in Chancery against the defendants wh said Petition is in the words following to wit, "To the honorable the Court of Common Pleas of Brown County Ohio in Chancery sitting. The Bill of complaint of John Mann humbly complaining Sheweth unto your Honors That on the twenty first day of August in the year eighteen hundred and sixteen a certain Jacob Burgett now deceased made and executed his certain promissory note under his hand and seal to your Orator as follows: "August 21st 181 I promise to pay John Mann seventy Dollars on or before the first day of August next for value rec'd. Witness my hand and seal" Jacob Burgett (Seal) which for greater certain here refered to as a part hereof. That afterwards and before the payment of said note or any part thereof to wit the day of the said Jacob Burgett departed this life and ad=ministration of his goods and chattles &c was in due form of law granted to William White Esqr. That your Orator proved said note by the oath of one William Morrow and the same so proven was recived and accepted by said Administrator as a claim ag said Estate, but said estate proving Insolvent your Orator received no more than the sum 23.83 Dollars on said Claim as his divident of said Estate and the residue of said note w its accruing interest remains due and unpaid to this ~~day~~ Your Orator further states [illegible] Burgett late of said County of Brown on the day of departed this life Intest and that afterwards to wit, the day of Administration of all and singular the goods and chattles &c which were of the said Valentine at the time of his death was in due form of law granted to Aaron Burgett and Abraham Burgett (who are prayed to be made defendants to this Bill) Your Orator further states that the said Jacob Burgett dec? was son and one of the legal heirs of the said Valentine decd. That the personal estate of the said Valentine after payment of debts and dower of his Widow to be distributed among his children and grand children will amount to a large sum to wit the sum of That the said Valentine died seized of the following real estate to wit one moiety of Eighty eight and a half acres of land on the Ohio river above the mouth of Straight creek, also sixty six acres of land; also seventy seven acres of land, also fifty acres of land all lying and being in the County aforesaid and which has descended to his heirs at law. Your Orator further states that the said Jacob Burgett at his decease left four children his legal heirs some of whom have since deceased leaving children and that the following are heirs at law of said Jacob namely, William Bridge and Letty his wife late Letty Burgett daughter of said Jacob, Sarah Burgett (a minor) daughter of Jacob, two children of Margaret Fight Decd. late Margaret Burgett a daughter of said Jacob, the names of whom are unknown to your Orator. The children of William Burgett decd. who was son of the said Jacob deceased, namely, Elizabeth and Amanda Burgett, the above heirs reside in Brown County aforesaid with the exception of William Bridge and wife who reside in Pennsylvania (all of whom are prayed to be made defendants to this Bill) who in right of the said Jacob Burgett decd. take one tenth part by descent of the real Estate of which the said Valentine died seized as aforesaid and are entitled to one share in the distribution of his personal estate. Your Orator aver that the Interest of the heirs of the said Jacob Burgett in the real and personal Estate of the said Valentine derived through the said Jacob amounts to a large sum to wit the sum of 1 Dollars and your Orator charges that in Equity and good conscience it ought and that it is chargeable with the debts of their Ancestor. Your Orator further charges that the said defendants heirs of the said Jacob Burgett hav no property real or personal save that descended and that to which they have be ceded as aforesaid within the Jurisdiction of this Court and that some of them are wholly insolvent as will be seen reference being had to the Bill of Complaint filed in this Honorable Court and now pending of Job Egbert against two of them namely William C Bridge and wife and William Fight and wife, so that should th once receive their full interest in the real and personal estate of the said Valentine your Orator fears and strongly believes he would eventually be defrauded out of his just de against the Estate of their Ancestor the said Jacob. Your Orator further states that the sa William White the administrator of the Estate of the said Jacob has long since departed this life and that no administration de bonis non &c of said Jacob has since been granted to any one. Your Orator further states that a petition is now pending before your Honorable Court by Abraham Burgett one of the heirs of said Valentine praye for partition of the said real estate of the said Valentine in which petition such proceedings have been had that the commissioners appointed to make partition thereof have reported to this Honorable Court that the same cannot be done without prejudice to or spoiling the whole so that no doubt the said lands will be ordered to be sold agreeably to the statute and the money arising from such sale divided among those entitled to it which petition and proceedings for greater certainty a here refered to as a part of this Bill) But now so it is may it please your Hon the defendants contriving &c refuse to pay your Orator the amount of his just claim against the Estate of the said Jacob as aforesaid and the said administrators of said Valentine refuse to pay the same out of the monies in their hands to be div ded among the said Jacob's heirs altho they well know and admit the justic of your Orators claim but threaten to pay the same over to the heirs of the

Brown County Common Pleas July Term AD 1832,

Jacob, and certain creditors of the heirs (or some of them) of the said Jacob are endeavoring to obtain said money for debts personally due to them by said heirs who they aver to be insolvent and the said heirs refuse to order the payment of your Orators claim but are endeavoring to get their distributive share of the personal and also their share of the money arising fro the sale of the real Estate, when sold, of the said Valentine into their own hands in order to cheat and defraud your Orator and other creditors of the estate of their said Ancestor Jacob Burgett dec^{d}. All which actings and doings of the said defendants are contrary to equity and good conscience and tend manifestly to injure and defraud your Orator: In tender consideration whereof and for as much as your Orator is without remedy in the premises by the strict rules of the Common law and can only obtain relief in a court of Equity where matters of this kind are properly relieveable and cognizable. To the end therefore that the said defendants may upon their corporal oaths true direct and perfect answers make to all and singular the matters and things herein stated and set forth and that as fully, as if the same were here again repeated and par by way of interrogatory and that the defendants Administrators of Valentine Burgett Dec^{d} may be enjoined and prohibited from paying over any part of the share of the said defendants heirs of Jacob Burgett Dec^{d} in and to the personal Estate of their said Intestate and that the Clerk, Sheriff and all others may be enjoined and prohibited from paying over to them their share of the proceeds of the sales of the real Estate of the said Valentine Burgett dec^{d} untill this matter can be fully heard in Equity and by your final decree to order and adjudge that the said claim of your Orator agains the Estate of the said Jacob Burgett Decd be first fully paid and satisfied by the said administrator or whoever may have in their hands or have the co tion of the money and share of the heirs of the said Jacob Burgett decd in t Estate real and personal of the said Valentine out of said share before any par thereof is paid over to them or in discharge of debts due by them or either of th and such other and further relief in the premises to your Orator to grant as may be consistent with Equity and good conscience and your Orators case requires. May it please your Honors to grant the States most gracious writ of Injunction directed &c Commanding &c And your orator will pray &c, John Mann A Leggett Solicitor. And Whereas afterwards to wit on the thirtieth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty two the defendants by their attorney Thomas Morris produced and filed in the Clerks office here their Demur to the complainants Bill which is in the words following to wit. Burgetts heirs advs John Mann, In Chancery demurrer - The defendants Thomas Morris their Attorney come and defend &c And say that the Bill of the Complainant and the matters and things therein contained are not sufficient in law to entitle the complainant to a decree of this Court which he is ready to verify Wherefore for want of a sufficient Bill the defendants pray to be hence dismissed and their costs decreed &c Thomas Morris atty for defts."

And Now on this day that is to say the thirty first day of July in in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty two came the parties by their Attornies and upon the hearing of this cause upon demurrer to the complainants Bill this cause is dimissed at Complainants costs. ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~ ~

GENEALOGIST'S SYNOPSIS OF THE COURT PROCEEDINGS IN RE THE ESTATE OF VALENTINE BURGETT, SR

These proceedings were held at the various quarterly or semi-annual sessions of the Brown County Court of Common Pleas at Georgetown, Ohio beginning in November 1830 and continuing until November 1835. The case became known as Abraham Burgett, Petitioner) vs. Valentine Burgett Heirs.

1. There was one event of significance that was not a part of the court proceedings, but was a very important preliminary to them for genealogists. On 22 Aug 1829, the widow, Mahala Burgett, in writing, relinquished her right to administer the estate, and addressed her recommendation to the court, that it be administered "by my two sons Aaron and Abraham." This was signed with her mark and witnessed by James Frost (who apparently was Mahala's son-in-law).

2. On 24 Aug 1829, the aforementioned paper was presented to the court, whereupon on 26 Aug 1829 the presiding judge, William Anderson, ordered that Aaron and Abraham Burgett be appointed as administrators. It was also then ordered that Thomas McConnel, Lynes Pangburn and John Mefford be appraisers of the deceased's personal effects. The order, as a letter of administration was issued on 26 Aug 1829.

3. On 5 Nov 1830, Abraham Burgett and his counsel, Archibald Liggett, of Ripley, began the court case alone, i.e., without Aaron, since brother Aaron had by that time removed his residence to Johnson County, Indiana. The first order of business was the submission of a paper that enumerated the assets for the court and listed all the known heirs. No mention was made of any homes or improvements on any of the lands. The assets of land were as follows, although the numbering of the tracts is solely for the convenience of this paper:

Tract One. The undivided half part or moiety of a tract of land of eighty and one-half acres lying on the Ohio River in Brown County, conveyed to Valentine Burgett, Sr and Abraham Burgett jointly by William Waters by deed dated 4 Sep 1824, was described as follows:

Beginning at a stake on the Ohio River, thence running N7°E 116 poles to a white walnut corner, thence by a line running N73°W 120 poles to a hickory on the East Fork of Straight Creek, thence by the original line of the patent survey down Straight Creek to the Ohio River, and thence up the Ohio River by the original survey line to the beginning; containing by estimation 88 ½ acres, the same being a part of survey #867 patented to David Bradford, but otherwise known as the Southhall Survey.

Tract Two. Sixty-six acres, more or less, in Brown County, Ohio, in the Stephen Southhall Survey #867, that were conveyed to Valentine Burgett, Sr by Stephen Wills and his wife, by deed dated 8 Apr 1815, was described as follows:

Beginning in the middle of a run, corner to two sugar trees and a blue ash, thence N82°W 134 ¼ poles to a hickory, buckeye and sugar, thence S8°W 79 poles to a black walnut and white walnut, thence S82°E 134 ¼ poles to a beech and buckeye, thence N8°E 79 poles to the beginning.

Tract Three. Seventy-seven acres, more or less, in Brown County, Ohio, in the the Walker Baylor Survey #1697, that were first conveyed to Abraham Sills by Walker Baylor and then were later conveyed to Valentine Burgett, Sr by Abraham Sills, the latter conveyance being by deed dated 15 Sep 1815. This tract is described as follows: Beginning at a hickory and buckeye stump near Burgett's gate, thence N1°E 232 poles to a beech, buckeye and hackberry, thence S86°W 15 poles to a buckeye and beech, corner to the Bradford-Southhall Survey #867, thence S8°W with the original survey line 284 poles to two sugar trees, thence E 80 poles to a line stump into a cut stone, thence N79°E 49 poles to the middle of the great road near a marked sugar tree in Chapman's land, thence W 44 poles to the beginning.

Tract Four. Fifty acres, more or less, in Brown County, Ohio, in the David Walker Survey #1348, that was patented to Philip Bucker, with the 50 acres having then been conveyed to Valentine Burgett, Sr by Philip Buckner by deed dated 13 Aug 1811. The tract was described as follows: Beginning at a hackberry, NW corner to Henry Keith, and standing on the side of Still House Run, thence S75°E 56 poles to a hackberry in Motin's line, thence with Motin's line N9°E 40 poles to a hickory, NW corner to Motin, thence S75°E 50 poles to a mulberry in line, thence N7°E 30 poles to a sugar tree, SE corner to Sills, thence with Sills' line N78°W 139 poles to an ash, thence S9°W 66 poles to two ashes, thence S78°E 27 poles to a sugar tree by the Still House Spring, thence S9°W 25 poles to the beginning.

The heirs of the estate were enumerated and described as follows, although the letter designations shown here for them are solely for the convenience of this paper:

a. Mahala Burgett, widow of the deceased Valentine Burgett, Sr, and entitled to Dower in estate lands.
b. Thomas Rogers and Barbara, his wife (late Barbara Burgett).

All the heirs were stated to be living in Brown County, Ohio except as follows:
Heirs "d" and "l" were stated to be living in Indiana.
Heirs "e," were stated to be living in Pennsylvania.

Continuing on 5 Nov 1830, an order was requested to (1) Summons the locally resident heirs to appear at the next session of the court and to notify the non-resident heirs of the contiunance of the case, and (2) to allow the widow's dower lands to be set off from the balance of the estate.

4. On 19 Nov 1830, an order was issued by the court for the sheriff to summons all the heirs to appear at the next session of the court; also for the matter to be legally advertised in the Georgetown newspaper, The Castigator.

5. Sheriff Jeremiah Purdum advised the court by endorsement in January 1831 that he had done as was ordered. Michael Ammen, publisher of The Castigator, advised the court by sworn statement in April 1831 that he had complied with the advertising requirements.

6. On 11 May 1831, at the Spring 1831 term of the court, it was ordered that the sheriff cause an inquest to set off Mahala's dower lands and tenements, and that three freeholders, Walter Wall, Thomas McConnel and Lynes Pangburn be appointed to attend that matter and appraise the values of the land parcels.

7. On 23 May 1831, Sheriff Purdum advised the court that the dower lands had been set off. Within the above described tract 3, the land was divided by a line from the beginning of the parcel description running to the west across the tract. All the land of tract 3 north of that line along the Augusta Road, unspecified as to the number of acres, were to be the dower lands for Mahala. The balance of tract 3, lying south of the road, was supposed to be 20 acres. On 27 May 1831, those who were the appointed appraisers reported that the supposed 20 acres of tract 3 had a value of $8.00 per acre. Tract 4, said to be lying above the town of Levanna, was appraised to a value of $4.00 per acre. The appraisal of tract 1, in terms of the moiety half belonging to the estate, was that 44 acres of the land had a value of $18.00 per acre. There was no mention made of any appraisal of tract 2 at that time.

8. On 10 Nov 1831 at the Fall term of the court, it was ordered that the aforementioned appraised tracts be sold after having been legally advertised and at public auction by the sheriff for not less than two-thirds of the appraised values. One-third of the purchase prices were to be in cash money, one-third was required to be paid in one year, and one-third was required to be paid in two years from the date of purchase.

9. At the Spring term of the court in April 1832, Sheriff Purdum reported that as of 29 February 1832 he had sold the following lands after their legal advertisement in The Castigator:
a. Tract 4 to William Richey, the highest bidder, for $5.4375 an acre with one-third in cash and two-thirds on bonds.
b. The lands of the south part of tract 3, supposed to be 20 acres, to Henry Chapman, the highest bidder, for $13.8125 an acre, with one-third in cash and two-thirds on bonds.
c. The Valentine Burgett moiety half of tract 1 to Abraham Burgett, the highest bidder, for $14.00 per acre, with one-third in cash and two-thirds on bonds.
The court approved and confirmed the sales, and directed that appropriate deeds be prepared and issued to the purchasers.

10. At a Summer term of the court in July 1833, the petitioner amended the preceeding record to state that it had been discovered that the land sold to Henry Chapman was 25+ acres instead of the supposed 20 acres, and that the purchaser had refused to pay over the amounts due for the additional amount of land that he had been advised of. On 15 Aug 1833 the sheriff was ordered to summons Henry Chapman to the court on 28 Oct 1833 to answer the charges. On 23 Aug 1833, the sheriff reported that he had complied with the order.

11. There is no mention of proceedings on 28 Oct 1833, but on 23 Dec 1833, Henry Chapman filed a motion via his counsel Humes & DeVore, to wit: that he had purchased the land honestly, that he had been told by the county surveyor that there was not 25+ acres within the metes and bounds of his land, that he denied having refused to pay for any additional land over the supposed amount of 20 acres, and that he would do whatever the court ordered, including paying for any land properly determined to be additional land, over and above 20 acres.

12. At the November 1833 term of the court, the petitioner was allowed to amend his previous bill to account for a notice he had filed with the clerk's office on 1 Apr 1833 to wit: that the widow, Mahala Burgett had died. A space in the notice for the date of death was, however, left blank. No other mention of that date is apparent.

The amendment also for the first time explained that a dispute had arisen regarding the title to the tract 2 lands.

13. On 4 Apr 1834, the petitioner was allowed to amend to state that the title dispute on tract 2 had been settled, and it was proposed that public auction sale of that land as well as the land that had been set off to the widow's dower be pursued. On 5 Apr 1834, the court ordered the sheriff to notify freeholders Lynes Pangburn, Walter Wall and Henry Martin that they had been appointed to appraise the lands and tenements. There was also an order that the county survery make a survey of the land previously set off as dower for Mahala Burgett, and of the land that Henry Chapman had bought.

14. At the November 1834 term of the court, the sheriff reported that the named appraisers had returned a report as of 11 Aug 1834 that they had appraised tract 2 at $7.00 per acre, that they had appraised that part of tract 3 north of Augusta Road at $13.00 per acre, and that Jeptha Beasley, the Brown County Surveyor, had reported that land to be 44+ acres. A slightly revised, but really materially unchanged description of the metes and bounds of that land was reported as follows:
Beginning at a stake, SW [transcript improperly said NW] corner of Breckenridge Survey #938, thence North 234 poles to a buckeye and beech, thence S86°W 14 poles and 20 links to a buckeye, thence S8°W 232 [transcript improperly said N8°W238] poles to a stake on the south side of the Augusta Road in the line of Bradford's [Southhall's] Survey, thence N86°50'E 45 poles and 13 links to the beginning, containing 44 acres and 12 poles. The names James Davidson and John Mitchell are noted as signers to the survey record with Mr. Beasley.

15. Also at the November 1834 term of the court, the county surveyor produced records from the clerk's office of his 31 July 1834 survey of the land that Henry Chapman had bought. It gave the following, but materially unchanged description of that land:
Beginning at a stone at the letter H on the plat, corner to Thomas Rogers' land, thence East 79 poles to a stone, thence N18°42'E 46 poles and 24 links to a stake 33 feet south of the Augusta Road, thence N89½°W 43 poles to a stake 33 feet south of the Augusta Road and claimed to be a SW corner of Breckenridge Survey #938, thence North 2 poles to a stake also claimed to be a SW corner of Breckenridge Survey #938, thence N85¼°W 45 poles to a stake, thence West 50 poles to the beginning, containing 24 acres, 2 roods and 11 poles.

16. The reports were approved by the court and it was ordered that the sheriff proceed to advertise and sell the lands of tract 2 and the redescribed lands that were formerly the north part of tract 3. Terms were to be not less than two-thirds the appraised value and with one fourth the purchase price in cash, one-fourth in 6 months, one-fourth in 12 months, and one-fourth in 18 months.

the amendment also for the first time explained that a dispute had arisen regarding the title to the tract 2 lands.

13. On 4 Apr 1834, the petitioner was allowed to amend to state that the title dispute on tract 2 had been settled, and it was proposed that public auction sale of that land as well as the land that had been set out to the widow's dower be pursued. On 5 Apr 1834, the court ordered the sheriff to notify freeholders Lyman Fangboner, Walter Wall and Henry Mettin that they had been appointed to appraise the lands and tenements. There was also an order that the county surveyor make a survey of the land previously set off as dower for Mahala Burgett, and of the land that Henry Chapman had bought.

14. At the November 1834 term of the court, the sheriff reported that the named appraisers had returned a report as of 13 Aug 1834 that they had appraised tract 2 at $7.00 per acre, that they had appraised that part of tract 2 north of Augusta Road at $15.00 per acre, and that Jeptha Beasley, the Brown County Surveyor, had reported that land to be 64 acres. A slightly revised, but really materially unchanged description of the metes and bounds of that land was reported as follows:
Beginning at a stake, SW (transcript incorrectly said NW) corner of Breckenridge Survey #436, thence North 234 poles to a buckeye and beech, thence S86°E 14 poles and 20 links to a buckeye, thence S5°W 232 (transcript incorrectly said N7°W 36) poles to a stake on the south side of the Augusta Road in the line of Trueland's (Southall's) Survey, thence N86°30'W 40 poles and 14 links to the beginning, containing 64 acres and 12 poles. The names James Davidson and John Mitchell are noted as chainmen in the survey record with Mr. Beasley.

15. Also at the November 1834 term of the court, the county surveyor produced records from the clerk's office of his 31 Jul 1834 survey of the land that Henry Chapman had bought. It gave the following, but materially unchanged description of that land:
Beginning at a stone at the letter W on the plat, corner to Thomas Rogers' land, thence East 99 poles to a stone, thence N85°42'E 48 poles and 24 links to a stake 32 feet south of the Augusta Road, thence N86°W 43 poles to a stake 32 feet south of the Augusta Road and claimed to be a SW corner of Breckenridge Survey #436, thence North 2 poles to a stake also claimed to be a SW corner of Breckenridge Survey #436, thence N88°W 45 poles to a stake, thence West 50 poles to the beginning, containing 24 acres, 2 roods and 11 poles.

16. The reports were approved by the court and it was ordered that the sheriff proceed to advertise and sell the lands of tract 2 and the undescribed lands that were formerly the north part of tract 3. Terms were to be not less than two-thirds the appraised value and with one fourth the purchase price in cash, one-fourth in 6 months, one-fourth in 12 months, and one-fourth in 18 months.

17. New Sheriff, John H. Blair, reported to the court on 2 Apr 1835 that in accord with his direction he had advertised the propeties in The Castigator and afterward had sold them on 7 Feb 1835 as follows: The 44+ acre tract north of the Augusta Road was sold to John Mitchell, the highest bidder, for $680.00. The 66 acres, tract 2, was sold to Edward Heizer for $315.00. The sheriff reported having one-fourth in cash money, and notes and securities bearing interest from 1 Apr 1835 regarding the balances. The court approved and confirmed the sales, directed the issuance of deeds to the purchasers, and directed the moneys, notes, and securities be turned over to the clerk for the payment of expenses and with distribution of the balance to the heirs in accordance with the laws.

18. On 11 Nov 1835, the court closed the case by remanding Henry Chapman to pay the clerk $63.10 for 4 acres, 2 roods, and 11 poles of land at $13.81 per acre, together with interest from 29 Feb 1832 until paid. The court reiterated that expenses were to be paid and the balance was to be distributed to the heirs in accordance with the laws. Judge Martin Price signed the final papers.

This summary of events was prepared on 6 Aug 1999 by John S. Pohl, a fifth generation descendant of Charity Burgett Richey. The substance presented here was taken from the text of various official records of Brown County, Ohio that were associated with the case.

PISGAH RIDGE LAND SURVEY DESCRIPTIONS

The following started out to be a point of humor regarding the land descriptions for properties along the south side of the old Augusta Road. This paper was first prepared as an addendum to a description of the proceedings of the settlement of the Valentine Burgett estate that occurred between 1830 and 1835. As such, it still reads as if it were a part of that paper. After I declared it to be a separate document, I added what is now the last paragraph as a natural continuation of the thoughts expressed herein. It pertains to where the last Valentine Burgett home was probably located.

Clearly, there were no roads through the area when the first deeds for the various parcels of land within of the patented lands were sold in the early 1800s. As roads developed, most of them were generally along and straddling property lines. It is unclear as to whether "Thirty-three feet south of the road," meant 33 feet south of the centerline of the road or 33 feet south of the north edge of the road. It appears to have been the latter. Two poles happens to equal 33 feet. It is inconceivable that the surveyors in the 1790s would have set off the Breckenridge #938 Survey to have had two southwestern corners just 33 feet apart. It appears that the southern boundary of the Breckenridge #938 Survey was the northern edge of a 33 feet wide road "right-of-way" when the Augusta Road grew from a beaten path to a common road. Why else would the point of the beginning of the original description of tract 2 have been on the north side of the road near Burgett's gate, as it was described? That point was a common corner between the Breckenridge #938 Survey and the Walker Baylor #1697 Survey. Apparently at some time between the the time the beaten path became a common road and the time of making deeds in the 1830s there had been a "cover-up" effort to make it look like the road straddled the original survey lines. If that is what was done, the landowners on the north side of the road gained a one pole wide strip and the owners on the south side lost the same amount in the process of making the road centerline be the "adjusted" survey lines. At survey corners, the 33 foot width of the road had to be accounted for, thus the claim of two corners at the southwest corner of the Breckenridge survey.

If one studies the detail data of the new surveys associated with these estate proceedings, he finds that the land that Chapman bought was surveyed to be slightly less than the thought-to-be 25 acres, partly because it was surveyed to a line south of the road right-of-way rather than to the road centerline. Contradictingly, and apparently in some degree of error, the land that Mitchell bought on the north side of the road was surveyed to the centerline of the road at the southwestern corner of the parcel and to the edge of the north right-of-way line at its southeastern corner (a corner that most likely was the original southwestern corner of the Breckenridge #938 Survey).

All this seems to be confirmed by what an 1858 deed for the land that Chapman bought (by then Richey land being sold) gave as its description. It started with "A stone in the road," (presumably at the south edge of the road where a stake had been placed in 1834) and immediately thereafter named a corner that was 2 poles north. That would have placed the property owners survey lines that ran to the east of this "stone" be along the south edge of the road, thus forever dedicating a 33 foot wide strip to public domain for the road right of way. While this was better than the apparent cover-up of the 1830s, it looks like the county stole the road right of way from the adjoining land owners.

To this day, a slight northerly bend or jog in the now named Pisgah Ridge Road is noted as one proceeds west past the intersection of Pisgah Ridge Road and Neu Road. That is where the centerline of the road drifts northerly to attain centerline position that is in-line with the extension of the original southern boundary of the Breckenridge #938 Survey.

Dirt roads have a way of shifting from side to side over a period of years. Neu Road is an old dirt road. Although the south end of this road may have drifted a bit east, it appears that the south end of New Road, at its present intersection with Pisgah Ridge Road was very near to the location of "Burgett's gate" that was mentioned in the description of tract 3. It is quite possible therefore, that Neu Road is an improvement of what was an access road to a Burgett home. Although some records account for a Burgett home, supposedly built in 1825, to have been at the south end of what is presently known as White Road, it is my suspicion that the last Burgett home was on the property that John Mitchell bought in 1835. Why else would that property have been set off as the widow's dower lands? Certainly, the family was not going to put her out of her home.

1. Thomas¹ Rogers, son of (Father Unknown) and of (Mother Unknown), born 22 January 1767 at Pennsylvania/Virginia?; died 3 August 1850 in Brown County, Ohio. He married Nancy Barbary Burgett, daughter of Valentine Burgett.

Will of Thomas Rogers

"I Thomas Rogers of the county of Brown in the state of Ohio do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following that is to say:

First, it is my will that my funeral expenses and all my just debts be fully paid.

Second, I give devise and bequeath to my beloved wife Nancy Barbary Rogers in lieu of her dower and years support out of my estate the plantation on which we not reside situate in Union Township in the county and state aforesaid containing about fifty acres more or less to her to have and to hold foreever. Also all my personal estate of every description. she however first desposing of a sufficiency thereof to pay my just debts as aforesaid. Also firewood off my other farm adjoining my son Ezekiel lot of ground during her natural life. I have given my son William Rogers his portion of my estate.

Third, I give and devise to my son Ezekiel Rogers the following described tract or parcel of land being part of my entry of 1000 acres made in the name of Stephen Southall by No. 867 and being part of my farm adjoining said Ezekiel lot of ground beginning at an oak stump in a line of said Stephen Southall survey and in a line of said Ezekiel Rogers lot of ground, thence with Southall line 129 poles to Kautz's corner a little under the top of the River Hill; thence with a line between my land and Kautz's land so far that a stright line to a large white oak in the head of a small branch and a straight line from said white oak to the biginning will contain twenty five acres to him the said Ezekiel Rogers to have and to hold during his natural life and at his death I give and devise said tract of twenty five acres of land to the living children or the legal reprsentatives of the said Ezekiel Rogers to them to have and to hold forever.

Fourth, the balance of my lands not herein disposed of I will that my executors shall sell at public sale on a credit of six months and on the payment of the purchase money convey said lands by deed to the purchaser and the money arising from the sale of said lands I will shall be equally devided into seven parts or shares and one share or seventh part paid by my executors to each one of my daughters or their legal representatives except my daughter Eleanor Foster. I give and bequeath the one seventh part of the money arising from the sale of said lands to the children of my said daughter Eleanor Foster.

The costs and expences for setting my estate shall be first paid out of the money arising from the sale of said lands and the remainder divided as aforesaid.
And lastly I hereby constitute and appoint my said wife Nancy Barbary Rogers, John Heizer and Henry Martin to be the executors for this my last will and testament revokeing and annulling all former wills by me made and ratifying and confirming this and no other to be my last will and testament.
In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my sand and seal this eighteenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty five.

#3 DUNHAM DONHAM marriages 1800-75 [hermfagley@juno.com]

Typed in 1995 by Anna Wagner AnnaW9241@aol.com and posted of old Prodigy pal,Scottie Trimble's www.stst.net web page. Back in the "glory days" of Prodigy genealogy,1993 era,there were a group researching together that included a hospital executive,a lawyer,2 businessmen, a bass fisherwoman, and teen-age
SCOTT TRIMBLE. He held his own,and now he's a graduate of U CALIF-BERKLEY.
Scott is of "King" JOHN DONHAM and THOMAS and Mary Ball Brown.
Scottie has posted much SIMMONS data-an English SIMMONS family. The most exceptional of the following is my own deaf Bantam Oh store-keeper-weaver,Benj Ely marrying for a 3rd time. At Piscataway,NJ 1700 WAS REV EDMUND DUNHAM,.
At nearby Woodbridge,NE NJ was the early DONHAM'S,who pronouce it DUNHAM.
85% OF THE following marriages are Ohio Township's MT PISGAH area across 10 mile creek valley to Locust Corner,Pierce Twnsp. The Donham's had the hill-tops; the Behymer's-Becklehymers the valley. Some are across 12 mile creek valley. Mostly Baptist. NJ>greene co,very sw Pa> fort at ROUND BOTTOM-Terrace Park abt 1790> ne Milford,then scatter,mostly near MT PISGAH-for DONHAM'S.

CLERMONT COUNTY, OHIO. MARRIAGES 1800-1874
BRIDES and GROOMS with the surname DONHAM
Researched, Compiled, and Typed by: Anna WAGNER
Cleaned Up and Annotated by: Scott TRIMBLE
Information Further Reviewed by: Pete MANN
Brent SCHLOTTMAN
Completed: 20 Jan 1995

The following information was collected by Anna WAGNER. She researched through the marriage records of Clermont County and typed up the original of this document. The text has since been cleaned up and added to.

The first numbers are the books and page numbers the marriage can be found in. For example, "4-071" is in Book 4, Page 171. The bride or groom with the name DONHAM is next with any personal information from the record enclosed in parentheses. A number by itself indicates the age. Next comes the spouse and any information about that person. The date following is the marriage date and the man who performed the ceremony is listed at the end of the line. Many of the names are obviously spelled wrong but they were copied the way it was written on the original record. For example, in one entry the name FAGIN appears as FAGINS and in others REECE appears as REED and REESE. Names with a "}" in front mean that I have a definite identification of the parents of this individual. Names without the "}" mean that I am not sure or have no idea.

My greatgrandparents Ulysses Augustus Rice and Delilah Jane Wells were married 10 Aug 1862 by Rev. J. D. Hatfield. I have the certificate signed by him. The certificate has Ulysses and Delilah both living in Mt. Olive but doesn't give the location of the ceremony. Was Rev. Hatfield associated with a specific church? What is the significance of "MG"?

we would go into the cabin with mother and fall asleep, to be awakened by the cry of "Moscow". Then out on the wharf-boat and up the hill and through tree lined streets to the hotel. This hotel was quite old and was called the "Dick House", after my grandmother. Along the side of it was a grassy shade lane leading to the river. The garden also led to the river. A road used to be between the garden and the river but it was washed away years ago before my time. A large persimmon or pecan tree grew near the house. My uncle Will Dick died of a clot or tumor on the brain which was attributed to a fall from this tree. Hop vines grew in the garden. A grape arbor led to the barn where travelers stabled their horses. There was a long back porch with two wash stands and basin at one end. I loved to climb on the stool in the office and pore over the names in the register. In those days, many traveling men came to town and remained over night. In the summer the place was filled with summer boarders. A bell on the roof was rung a half hour before meals and again at meal time. Once in a while someone would pull the rope to hard and turn the bell over, and then one of the boys would climb up on the roof and straighten it out again. When we were older and were out on the river, I loved to hear the deep toned peal of the bell as it came to us over the water. Quite close was a creek between high banks and on the far side was a farm house. Over it the owner had hung, on wire cables, a swinging bridge just like a board walk with a railing on each side. We never failed to go over it, always with great trepidation as it swayed and swung with us. In the middle we always stopped and talked about how terrible it would be if we fell over into that slimy mud far beneath us. Some of the boys and girls liked to drink from a "blue lick spring" out by the saw mill because they had been told the water was healthful but I couldn't even bear the smell of it.

I had an uncle up there who used to go up the river, buy a field of watermelons, ship them down by boat and store them in the hotel cellar and gradually sell them. One day two of us girls and two boys bought one from him and hid it in a cornfield across the swinging bridge. After the dinner dishes were washed, we slipped away and eat out there in that cornfield until we could eat no more. Then when we returned my aunt said "come, I have a treat for you. We are going to have water melon".

During one Christmas season I went to Moscow by train. Had to take a street car to Cincy, a train out of the old C & O station to Ivor, Kentucky and a boat over across the river which was filled with floating cakes of ice, to Moscow. A couple of us girls and boys went out to skate. Went down to Little Indian Creek out it, and then somehow or other down Big Indian, past U. S. Grant's birth place. How funny children are. We had not any dinner and had that long walk home ahead of us. We went to the home of an Aunt of one of the girls hoping she would give us something to eat. She did but she didn't know we hadn't eaten and gave us some little Christmas cookies. I remember how disappointed I was because I wanted bread and butter.

The Donham Family

The Donham (Dunham) family is a very large one, many of us descend from Nathaniel Dunham, Sr., probably born in New Jersey. In the town records of Woodbridge, Middlesex, New Jersey I found a Nathaniel Dunham born or christened 10 April 1679 to Jonathan Dunham alias Singletary and Mary, his wife, formerly of Haverhill in Massachusetts Colony. Although I've spent considerable time researching, I have not been able to prove this is our ancestor. At this time it is the most promising.

According to the History of Clermont County, Ohio, 1880, Nathaniel married twice, the names of his wives are unknown. By his first wife he had a son John; by his second wife he had sons William, Jonathan, Nathaniel, Jr., b. 1733 Middlesex, New Jersey and a daughter, name unknown.

John, the first son of Nathaniel, inherited his father's estate and remained on the homestead. William Donham married and moved to northern Alabama. Jonathan Donham married and remained a resident of New Jersey.

My ancestor, Nathaniel Donham, Jr., was born in 1788 in Middlesex, New Jersey, married first, Mary Sutton, who was born ca 1760 in New Jersey. She died at Mapletown, Greene Co, Pennsylvania. He married second, prior to 1774, Keziah Crossley in New Jersey. Nathaniel died in 1820 in Pierce Township, Clermont County, Ohio. Keziah died after 1820.

Nathaniel and Mary Sutton were parents of: David b. ca 1769 New Jersey; John b. April 1767; Lewis b. 24 June 1771 New Jersey; daughter, name unknown.

Nathaniel and Keziah Crossley were parents of: Mary b. 5 May 1774 Greene County, Pennsylvania; Henry b. in Greene County; Abel b. 18 July 1777 Greene County; William b. Greene County; Amos b. Greene County; Robert b. ca 1784 Greene County; Jonathan Singleton b. 16 February 1786 Greene County.

David, the first son of Nathaniel Donham, Jr., was born in New Jersey. He married Elizabeth Garrison, the daughter of Frederick and Margaret Garrison. They had one son Job. David was on the Green County tax list in 1790 and on the 1830 Monongahalia Township, Green County tax list as an Inn keeper.

John, the second son of Nathaniel Donham, Jr., was born in April 1767 in New Jersey. He married first, Sarah "Sallie Jennings; second, Elizabeth Brown on 5 February 1811 in Clermont County, Ohio. Elizabeth was born on the 9th of October 1792, died 22 August 1878. John died on the 15th of August 1855. John and Sallie were the parents of: Lewis, b. ca 1799, d. Dec. 1801, abt age 3; Isaac b. ca 1800; David b. ca 1802; Jonathan b. 9 May 1804, Clermont Co.; Mary "Polly".

John and Elizabeth were the parents of: Sarah "Sally" 1813, d. 1849; Margaret b. 11 June 1815 Clermont County, Nathaniel b. 22 Feb. 1818; Jennetta b. 16 April 1820; Elizabeth b. 1824; John b. 1827; Robert b. 1830.

Lewis, the third son of Nathaniel Donham, Jr., was born 1771 in New Jersey. He married Amy Maple who was born 1785, the daughter of Stephen and Mary Slack Maple. Lewis died in 1845. Amy died in 1844. Lewis and Amy had a son John, b. 26 September 1806.

Mary, daughter of Nathaniel Donham, Jr. was born on the of May 1774 in Greene County, Pennsylvania. She married Henry Lee in 1795. Henry was born in 1772, died in 1836. Mary died 9 February 1839 in Vigo County, Indiana. Mary and Henry were the parents of : John Ross Lee b. 6 June 1796; William D. Lee b. 1798; Rachel Lee who d. y.; Rhoda Lee who d. y.; Henry Donham Lee b. 10 July 1805 Warren County, OH.; Judge Nathaniel Lee b. 1807 Warren County, OH.; Dr. Jonathan Lee b. 1810 Ohio; David Sutton Lee.

Henry, son of Nathaniel Donham, Jr., was born in Green County, Pennsylvania. He married and moved to Clay County, Indiana, ca 1833.

Abel, son of Nathaniel Donham, Jr., was born on 18 July 1777 in Greene County, Pennsylvania. He married first, Elizabeth Ferguson b. 21 March 1780, daughter of Isaac Ferguson and Elizabeth Leedom. She died on 6 November 1851. He married second, Sarah Ann _____? Abel died on 17 May 1853 in Ohio Township, Clermont County. They are buried on the Love Farm Cemetery on the farm of J. K. Love located between Lindale and Mt. Pisgah. In 1826, Abel was a landowner in Ohio and Pierce Townships. He was among the first settlers of the northern part of Ohio Township, and was a member of the Ten Mile Regular Baptist Church and a Trustee in 1826.

Abel and Elizabeth were the parents of: John; Lewis Singleton; Abel; Mary; Keziah; Hiley; Elvira; Cynthia, who m. Isaac Ferguson on 17 May 1829.

Abel and Sarah Ann were the parents of: Julia Ann; Sarah Ann; Nancy b. ca 1820; Evaline; Elizabeth b. 1 August 1806; Sarah; Permina / Pernina b. 8 December 1814 Clermont County.

William, son of Nathaniel Donham, Jr., was born in 1782 in Greene County, Pennsylvania. He m. Sarah Arthur in 1802. She was born 27 August 1785, d. in 1863 in Clermont County. Sarah was the daughter of Rachel Brown and James Arthur. William was a fence viewer in 1826 in Ohio Township. They moved to Vigo County, Indiana in 1833. He was a farmer and ran a grist and saw mill. They were members of the Baptist Church. William was an old-time Democrat.

William and Sarah were the parents of: Nathaniel b. ca 1803, d. about age 15; Rachel b. ca 1805; Keziah b. ca 1807; George Washington b. ca 1809; Abel b. 5 October 1812; Abijah b. 1814; Joseph b. ca 1815; Ira b. 1817; Darius b. 1 December 1819; William Orcemus b. ca 1821; Melissa b. ca 1823.

Amos, son of Nathaniel Donham, Jr., was a qualified voter in Ohio Township in 1804 and 1805. He possibly moved to Brown County. He had children, Dennis and Ewell.

*Robert, son of Nathaniel Donham, Jr., was born on 16 February 1782 in Greene County, Pennsylvania. He m. Ruth Ferguson born 13 February 1785 in Kentucky (probably Maysville). Ruth was the daughter of Rev. War Soldier, Isaac Ferguson and Elizabeth Leedom who is supposed to be of Rev. War fame. Ruth died in 1877 at age 95. Robert died in 1846/47. Robert, Amos and Abel Donham were among the first settlers of the northern part of Ohio Township. Robert was County Commissioner from 1832-1835. He had land adjacent to his brother, John.

Robert and Ruth were parents of: Nancy b. 2 July 1806; *John S. b.12 August 1808; Isaiah b. 12 May 1810; Nathaniel b. 17 December 1811; Eliza b. 30 October 1813; Mary b. 17 November 1815; Isaac b. 23 July 1818; Robert b. 30 July 1820; Ruth b. 10 August 1822; Zachariah b. 30 June 1826; Thomas b. 13 July 1829.

I descend from Nathaniel Dunham, Sr., Nathaniel Donham, Jr., Robert Donham, John S. Donham, George Jackson Donham, Isaac Ferguson Donham, Thelma May Donham. I have a lot of material on the Donham family and am putting together a book.

THE RICHEYS TO OHIO

The gentleman who gave me the information about the Richeys having come from Chester County, Pennsylvania believed that three brothers, Robert Richey, Andrew Richey (Sr), and William Richey removed from there and came to the Ohio Territory together, sometime about 1796. The oldest of them would have been about 19 at the time, the youngest about 16 or a little younger. They had been reared at Upper Providence Township of Chester County, which is just to the north of the present day town of Oxford, Pennsylvania. At least two of the brothers, Robert, who was thought to have been the oldest, and Andrew, the next in age, settled in the Pisgah Ridge area of eastern Hamilton County, as at that time Hamilton County included the land all the way east to Elk Run, which is now called Eagle Creek. I have been unable to identify the location of the residence of "third brother" William Richey. He is not listed in the Brown County census of 1820. I have been unable to determine the place where Andrew and Robert Richey were married, but I know that Robert's marriage occurred after he was in Ohio. I believe that the same is true for Andrew Richey's marriage. Marriage records of that era are hard to find. By 1800, the establishment of Clermont County made the area from the Little Miami River eastward to Eagle Creek (which is inclusive of the Pisgah Ridge area) be the bounds of that county. Adams County, which had been formed from Hamilton County lands in 1797, ran from east of Eagle Creek to a north-south line about 20 miles west of Portsmouth. In 1817 a strip of land approximately six miles wide was taken from the western part of Adams County and the land east of a north-south line approximately 5 miles west of present-day Higginsport was taken from Clermont County to form Brown County. Thusly, early marriage records for the Pisgah Ridge area might belong to any of the three counties, Hamilton, Clermont or Brown. Of course, the marriages might have occurred across the Ohio River in Kentucky at what is now Maysville, Dover, or Augusta, since Kentucky became a state in 1792.

In spite of inability to find marriage records, dates for marriages can be approximated. The 1850 Brown County census says that Andrew Richey Jr was born in Ohio and gives an age of 53 for him, thus implying both that he was born in 1797 and that his father, Andrew Sr, married circa 1796/7 or before.

Five people were in the Robert Richey household in 1820. A male was age 10-16. This was William, born 1807. There were two adult males age 26-45. One was Robert. I have not been able to identify the other, unless it might have been Andrew (Sr). Robert's wife, was age 26-45. There was another female whose age was between 16 and 26. From these facts I could conclude that Robert married between 1794 and 1803, but likely between 1796 and 1803.

Information that I only learned about in June 1999, and from the files of Pat Donaldson Mills, professional genealogist at Georgetown, indicates that Robert Richey's wife was Charity Burgett and that Mary "Polly" Richey was their daughter, born circa 1800. Brown County marriage records indicate that Polly Richey was married to John Mitchell by John Rankin, the famed slave freedom minister at Ripley, on 16 September 1823. The deed for the Robert P. Cahall land purchase mentioned below indicates that a John Mitchell lived on the north side of the Augusta Road near its intersection with Neu Road. Further research indicates that his residence there was on land he purchased from the Valentine Burgett estate in the 1830s. The John Mitchell census entry of 1860 says he was from Pennsylvania and gives his age as 59. The entry includes his wife, Mary, and gives her age as 62. This implies that Robert Richey married circa 1797 and that Mary "Polly" was born circa 1798.

According to the dependable data in the 1820 census, only three people were in the Andrew Richey household at that time. Two were males in the 16-26 age group, one was a female in the 16-26 age group. This rules out one of the males as being Andrew Richey Sr, as he would have been about 45 by that time if he was alive then. It appears that these males were Andrew Richey Jr, who would have been 23, and his younger brother William who was likely about 16 or 17. The 1850 census gives Andrew Richey Jr's wife's name as Sarah, age 47, implying that she was born in 1803. Thomas Rogers' family information identifies this Sarah as his daughter and confirms birth in 1803. I have not been able to find a record of Andrew Jr's marriage to Sarah. From ages of children in the 1850 census, as well as information in the 1830 and 1840 census, it appears that the marriage was sometime between 1820 and 1824. Brown County marriage records indicate that a Margaret Richey married Fred Bussey on 13 September 1821. The marriage ceremony was performed by Henry Chapman, Justice of the Peace. This, therefore was very likely a "marriage of people known in the neighborhood." Even so, I had a hard time finding the Bussey family in the 1820 census. The first s of the double sses had been handwritten in old style to look like an f and the German spoken name had been written down by the census taker to "look" as though the name was Bufseau. But, it was clearly the Bussey family. The only son at home in 1820 was already between 26 and 45 years of age, and his father's name was Frederick. The family was found in the 1830 census in the northwestern part of Brown County. Fred had died in 1832 leaving Margaret with a young family. She remarried to Joseph Owen in 1833, and the Owen family was found in the 1850 census where Margaret was listed as 50 years old. That puts her birth at 1799-1800. Regarding the entries in the 1820 census, I have concluded that Andrew Richey Jr's marriage to Sarah Rogers was just after the census had been taken and that it was Margaret Richey who was in that household when the census was taken.

Although Andrew Richey Jr's younger brother William is recorded as marrying Martha Myers on 26 November 1825, there was no record of them in the 1830 Brown County census. It was believed that they went to Indiana with their young daughter about 1828. A William Richey whose age was given as 47 was found in the 1850 census of Decatur County, Indiana with wife Martha, age 45. Their daughter, Elizabeth, was listed as age 23, born in Ohio. This implies that she was born in 1827. The Indiana census entry confirms the birth of Andrew Jr's brother William to be circa 1803. Pat Donaldson Mills' records say the birth was 15 September 1803.

The lack of an entry for a female in the Andrew Richey entry in the 1820 census with age old enough to have Andrew Sr's wife implies that she had died before 1820. As it was apparently the practice of enumerating people where they were found at the time the census taker arrived (and regardless of where there home was), there is credence for the possibility that the unidentified male in the Robert Richey household of 1820 might have been Andrew Sr.

There were two William Richeys listed in the 1830 census of Decatur County, Indiana. One was the William mentioned above, the other was listed as if they were neighbors and is thought to have been "third brother" William. His household was listed to have one male age 5-10, one male age 10-15, two males age 15-20, two females age 5-10, and one female age 10-15. William would have been the person in the 40-50 age bracket and his wife would have been the one in the age 30-40 bracket. It is plausible that, since no Ohio or Kentucky residence for "third brother William" can be found in census data, that he might not have come to Ohio in 1796, but instead, came there for only a short time, about 1828, on his way to Indiana.

In the 1830 Brown County, Ohio census, the William Richey (1807) household included one male under 5 (Josiah, born in early 1830), one female under 5 (who shall be unnamed for this moment), William, in age bracket 20-30, and his wife Nancy Daugherty, whom he married in 1829, in age bracket 20-30. There was no Robert Richey household in the 1830 census. From these facts I first concluded that both Robert Richey and his wife died between 1820 and 1830. This conclusion was apparently only true for Robert Richey. Pat Donaldson Mills' information indicates that his wife Charity was alive in 1835. Based on that information, I am at a loss to explain why I do not find a Charity Richey household in the 1830 census, but it is possible that she took up residence with one of her Burgett brothers since there was a brand new wife and son in the William Richey household by that time.

Who was the unnamed female in the William Richey household who was under 5 in 1830? She remained with the William Richey household through the 1840 census. Brown County marriage records show the marriage of a Mary Richey to Robert Parker Cahall on 15 May 1845. Robert Cahall was the son of William Richey's neighbor, Solomon Cahall. The 1850 Brown County census shows Robert P. Cahall's wife's name as Mary, and her age to be 24. This implies that she was born in 1826. From these facts I first concluded that Mary Richey was the daughter of Robert Richey and his wife, and that both of them died between 1826 and 1830. It appeared that Mary's older brother, William (1807) raised her as his own. My conclusion did not stand up. Obituary information provided by Mary's daughter, Lucy Cahall Davis, that appeared in the Ripley Bee newspaper says that Mary was the only child of William Richey and Deborah. As there were no other William Richeys in the neighborhood to have been Mary's father in 1826, one must come to the inevitable conclusion that the William Richey of 1807 was first married to ~~a~~ Deborah Runyon and that Mary was their daughter. Pat Donaldson Mills' information says that Mary was born 26 November 1826. This data infers that William Richey's marriage to Nancy Daugherty in 1829 was his second marriage at the early age of 22. ~~In July 1999, I learned that their had been a Deborah in every family of John Heizer's descendants. The John~~

~~Heizer family has been nearby neighbors to the Robert Richey family by 1820. The 1820 census shows that the Heizer household at that time included a female between the ages of 10 and 16. I have concluded that William Richey's first wife was Deborah Heizer~~ NO! error

The date of the death of Andrew Richey Sr's wife is unaccounted for. If she lived beyond 1820, her whereabouts in 1820 are unaccounted for. There are two possibilities on that; one is that Andrew Richey Jr had taken over the household and his mother had gone elsewhere; the other is that she got lost in the census record keeping (as opposed to record taking). Explanation of the latter is that the pages of the census book came unbound as explained at a note on census microfilm, and that the "right side data, which would have included one more age bracket column, could not be confirmed to be for the right people."

In all my research on the Richey family, I learned that the entire area of what is now southern Brown County had been reserved at the time of Ohio statehood in 1803 for land grants to Revolutionary War veterans, predominantly but apparently not exclusively to those from Virginia. Surveys of Ohio Territory land commenced in the 1790s, with most of the work having been done by a John O'Bannion (or O'Bannon), who was known to accept part of the lands granted to others for his work. He obviously surveyed a great deal of land for himself. His name appears on many of the original area land surveys. The 1876 Atlas of Brown County shows the location of all the original surveys.

The Richey family tree includes a William Richey whose adult life was during the period of the Revolutionary War. Although I have no records to that effect, I suspect that he served in that war. Official records show that a William Richey was given a land grant, but that the land was sold to someone else. It just might be possible that this William Richey's grandsons, Robert, Andrew and William, were trying to find that land, could not find it, and settled at Pisgah Ridge rather than to continue to look for it. Is it strange that the records show there to have been one 180 acre parcel of land that was originally surveyed in the name of William Richey but divided into three equal parts? Very few of the other surveys seemed to have been so divided. Now, it is time to tell you where the William Richey Survey was located. Look at the 1876 Atlas of Brown County, Ohio, for Huntington Township. To the northeast of the town of Aberdeen there was a William Richey Survey, #2713. It is only about 10 miles upstream of the Ohio from where the Richey brothers settled.

The ancestral story related above is true and based on fact. The story about why the Richeys came to Ohio is from my own imagination. It might all be a fairy tale, but it makes sense to me.

FROM HISTORY OF CHESTER CO (PA) 1881 BY FUTHEY
PUBLISHED AT PHILADELPHIA

from Oxford township, now a part of Philadelphia City, and the name may have come thence or directly from England. It was divided into Upper and Lower Oxford in 1797.

In 1841 the line between Upper Oxford and West Fallowfield being in dispute, and its location uncertain, commissioners were appointed by the court to ascertain and relocate it. They established it, according to the record of 1728 defining the bounds of Fallowfield, and by tradition, as beginning at the northeast corner of William Penn, Jr.'s, manor, thence south 85½ degrees west 850 perches to the northwest corner of the same,—being the northern boundary of said manor,—thence north 47½ degrees west 496 perches to the middle of Octorara Creek, which the commissioners say they "believe to be near the original line."

William Penn granted a warrant, dated 15th of 7th month, 1701, for the survey of 10,000 acres of land for his son William Penn, being "the remainder due to him of 50,000 acres originally granted by me to his mother." In pursuance of this warrant a tract of 5000 acres was laid out for William Penn, Jr., on the west side of Fagg's Manor, and the remainder was subsequently conveyed, unlocated, by his son William to William Allen, of Philadelphia.

This tract was resurveyed on the 5th, 12th, and 13th days of June, 1741, in pursuance of a warrant from the proprietaries, dated the 10th of February, 1740, and a return of the same into the secretary's office was made on the 25th of June, 1741. From the draught of the manor, the following description may be given:

> Beginning at an ash-tree at the northwest corner of Fagg's Manor, and from thence running west 800 perches to a Spanish oak, thence north 1000 perches to a chestnut-tree, thence east 800 perches to a post in the line of Fagg's Manor, and by the same north 1000 perches to the place of beginning, containing 5000 acres.

The reader will be able to determine the position of the manor on our county map with tolerable accuracy by being informed that the north line still remains as that part of the south line of West Fallowfield which runs nearly east and west, and by supposing other lines one-fourth longer to be drawn southward from either end of this line, and connected by a fourth line parallel to the first.

In connection with the draught of resurvey above mentioned, there is given "a list of names of persons who have consented to settle on William Penn's manor," which is here given:

This manor embraced all the eastern portion of Upper Oxford and a small part of Lower Oxford. By deeds of lease and release, dated 3d and 4th of May, 1742, William Penn, Esq., late of London, but now of Dublin, son of William Penn, Jr., deceased, conveyed all his right and title to this manor to John White, of London, to whom a patent was granted Dec. 12, 1747. Those who had settled

Between Penn's Manor and Octorara Creek surveys were made from 1730 to 1750, and later, as desired by settlers. The taxables in 1754 were as follows:

OXFORD BOROUGH.

The borough of Oxford was incorporated by act of Assembly of April 8, 1833. It was taken partly from Lower Oxford, but principally from East Nottingham. A few years since it was enlarged by decree of court.

PARKESBURG.

This borough was incorporated March 1, 1872. When the State constructed the railroad from Philadelphia to Columbia, the work-shops, commonly called the State shops, were located at Parkesburg, and continued there until the year 1861, when their operations were removed by the Pennsylvania Railroad to Harrisburg as a more

Dear Genny, 22 July 99

I spent the day at the library yesterday and came home tired. Your envelope in the mail was a pleasant surprise to begin with and inside, the picture of Valentine Burgett's home and the description of its location was another. I immediately set to trying to read the two legal documents and had to do a bit of guessing but came to two conclusions: That I do not understand the system that was used to make land grants and patents, and that Mahala must have been a first name rather than a last name.

The 1829 document was apparently some thing that assigned the administration to Abraham and Aaron, apparently because Mahala (Mahaly) could not handle it. The list of administrations throws me a new curve: who was the Valentine who died in 1822? I may be able to figure it out by myself, but so far haven't tried.

The three-page document is one that I am not sure I understand the purpose of, although there was something similar after William Richey died. Partition? Petition for the court to accept an estate settlement proposal that includes sale or division of lands? Whatever, I stumbled on the term "late" regarding maiden names, and I have stumbled over the description of lands that included the name Bradford amongst the original survey land patents. I find no Bradford survey in my Atlas. Was it maybe that Southhall bought the entire Bradford survey land and it was renamed to him?

I thought it funny, really funny, that they would have made a stake at the river's edge be part of a legal description. Stakes in those places do not last long. In the balance of the legal descriptions I have noted the same names as were used to describe the bounds of William Richey's first property. It had to have been somewhere on the periphery of what Valentine had owned. I want to try to make a rough scale plot of the lands described in this document sometime when I have more time.

✓ Came home from the library yesterday with several new bits regarding things associated with the Richey line. 1. Found a Frederick Busseau (Bussey) listing in 1820 that included a son who was 26 or so at the time. It matches reasonably well with the marriage records that say a Frederick Bussey married a Margaret Richey in 1821. They must have left the area before 1830. Do not find them in the 1830 census. I am told, however that there is a Bussey entry in the 1860 census. I haven't specifically explored that yet. My conclusion that they left the area matches with the name on the sheet of administrations that you sent, indicating also to me that no son was in the area. 2. Found in the Brown County history that a Jeptha Beasley who married in 1794 in KY had settled in Union and had removed in 1818 to Ripley. It matches with other findings for him at Ripley that had not heretofore matched with the fact that one of his sons had signed Henry Chapman's will in 1838 as a witness. Now I know that the Chapman and Beasley families were neighbors from 1797 or so until 1818. 3. Learned that Mason County, KY was formed in 1888 from Bourbon County and that when formed it included all KY lands north and east of the Licking River and its North Fork to its source with an artificial line only between the North Fork source and the KY-VA line. Bourbon County at that time was left with the land between the North Fork and the South Fork of the Licking River. County division stayed that way until 1794 when Campbell County took the part that was between the now Bracken County line and the mouth of the Licking River. Next change was the formation of Bracken County in 1796. So, in those days, Mason County was a VERY BIG PIECE OF LAND. It was of interest to me because I had already found one marriage of interest in Mason County in 1794. It was Henry Chapman's marriage.

I spent the balance of my time yesterday taking 1830 census names and 1810 tax record names which I will put in the computer later today. First, I have a dreaded dental appointment to get two crowns fitted and to have two more started.

Thanks again for the mailed info. Valentine Burgett's property had to have been just south of the land that became William Richey's property by the 1850s. It also sounded as though at least part of Henry Chapman's property had been on the south side of the Augusta Road.

All for now. John

Dear Johnsons, 27 July 99

Was at the library finally today and took names in the 1830 census of Scott Township. Stumbled into Frederick Bussey there. Took down family data. Then I remembered something that Genny had sent about administrations that listed Frederick Bussey in 1832. I stopped what I was doing and looked at marriage records. First found a W C Bussey who married Matilda Rogers in 1850. W C, if born soon after Fred Bussey's marriage to Margaret Richey in 1821, would have been old enough to marry by 1850. It matched the census data that showed one son in 1830 under 5 years old. Next thing I found was a Margaret Bussey marriage to an Owens in 1851. Next a Martha Bussey marriage to an Owens in 1855. I thought I was onto something. Kept looking. Found record of an 1833 marriage between a Joseph Owens and Margaret Bussey, a second marriage for her and apparently so for him, too. The latter Margaret here is Margaret Richey, daughter of Andrew Richey, Sr whom I had thought previously was born ca 1799. Jumped over to the 1850 census index and found a Joseph Owens there. Went to the 1850 film and found Joseph Owens, 69 and Margaret, 50, with a young female, Margaret B, age 20, in the household. All this to find that Margaret Richey's birth was ca 1800 instead of my guessed at ca 1799.

Dear Genny, 20 July 1999

Was doing some editing a while ago. Ran into two William Lanes. On pages that I am not sure are in the right places in the 1820 census film. One on page 344, currently in Byrd Township listings, one on page 404, currently in Perry Township listings. Sorry, I do not have family info on these, just names of heads of families. Hope this might help in whatever you are doing. John

About 1796 Robert & Andrew Richey settled at Pisgah Ridge. James & Francis Daugherty, brothers, and the Kirkpatrick family came from Westmoreland Co, PA in 1799.

Wm. Richey's first land was 50 acres, bought from the Valentine Burgett estate in 1832. When William died, the 112 acres he owned on Augusta Road was sold to his son-in-law.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS: This family tree has been compiled from family records, U. S. Census information, and a tremendous amount of help from Mrs. Dorothy Huron, Georgetown, Ohio. She did major research of newspaper clippings and of Brown County records in order to find a great deal of this information. Some information was from Maggie Daugherty, Georgetown. Some early-Ohio Richey information was from Mrs. Pat Donaldson Mills, Georgetown. Some of the information was from the Illiana Genealogical Society, Danville, Ill. The earliest Richey family information was from James Richey, Melbourne, FL, and the Chester County Pennsylvania Historical Society.

The James Richey family were nomads. They first lived in Union Township near the William Richey residence. For several years they lived in Pleasant Township. By 1900, and from then until James' death, they lived in Clark Township just south of Hamersville as neighbors to the William Brown family.

The J.V. Richey family lived at the farm area known as West Fork, in Franklin Township of Brown County. For the last 6 months of Lillian Evaline's life they moved to her father's home at Hamersville, and then returned to West Fork. They moved to just south of Hamersville in 1917 and lived there until 1924, when they moved back to the same home at West Fork. After J.V. died, the property was sold and Edna and the rest of her family lived on the West End of Georgetown.

CAHALL - WOODS

AND NOW:- one final intrusion on your time and tolerance. A brief (and that's a laugh!) explanation of my association with and interest in the Cahall family history. While no longer a name line our descent can be traced in this manner:

James Cahall, Sr. and wife Ellender Lyon Cahall
Thomas Cahall, Sr. and wife Sarah Parker Cahall
Sarah Cahall and husband Francis Drake, son of Henry and Nancy Lyon Drake
Francis Marion Drake and wife Arcadia Belle Gilbert, daughter of Benjamin Evans Gilbert and Lavinna Blair Gilbert
Bessie Pearl Drake and husband John Pearl Woods, son of A. Baker Woods and Jeanette Lucas Woods, daughter of Reason Lucas and Martha Ann West Lucas
Glenn Woods - and there the line ends abruptly.

Sarah Cahall, daughter of Thomas, Sr. and Sarah Parker Cahall, was born in Brown County, Ohio, November 8, 1813. On October 10, 1835 she was married to Francis Drake, descendant of the Plainfield, N.J., Drakes. In the summer of 1843 Francis and Sarah Cahall Drake were living in Augusta, Ky., where he worked for his wife's uncle Solomon Cahall. Francis Drake flatboated loads of produce to New Orleans and there sold both boat and goods. If the profits warranted he bought a horse and rode home in style. If the sales brought less than hoped he walked the entire distance, making several such trips. From one such business trip he never returned. He was robbed, murdered and his body, according to family tradition, disposed of in the Mississippi River. Later investigation has uncovered hints that he may have returned as far as Ohio, intending to visit his parents, and been murdered in that state. By the time of his death Francis Drake was the father of four children with a fifth one expected shortly. Unable to support herself and care for the children Sarah Cahall Drake returned from Augusta, Ky., to Brown County, Ohio, and for a time lived in the home of her parents. The posthumous child, Francis Marion Drake was born there December 28, 1843. For some time following that Sarah Cahall Drake continued to make her home with her parents. She worked in the fields and did whatever chores she could to help pay for their support. Frequently when she could return to the house at lunch time or in the evening she would find her small children crying but could not learn from them the cause of their tears. Bath time inspections discovered evidence that they were - in her absence - being pinched, slapped and otherwise abused by two of Sarah's own sisters who resented the food the children ate even though their mother was earning it. Sarah Cahall Drake removed her five children from the influence of her sisters and for a time lived in an old house then still standing on her father's farm. A few years later she married William Richey, a widower with children by his first marriage. No children were born to William and Sarah Cahall Drake Richey. Sarah Cahall is buried in the Cahall Family Cemetry between the graves of her first husband and a son who died of measles while serving in Virginia in the Union Army. Her tombstone - recently destroyed by carelessness - bore only the name Sarah Richey with no clue as to her maiden name nor that of her first husband. The tombstone of Francis Drake states that he died October 17, 1843, aged about 39 years. This would indicate that he did return to Ohio before being murdered.

Francis and Sarah Cahall Drake were also the parents of Robert C. Drake, who married Flora E. Young. The latter were the grandparents of Flora Drake (Mrs. Jean) Brown and the late William Drake.

THE JOSIAH RICHEY FAMILY

Josiah Richey, oldest of seven children, was born May 23, 1830, and was united in marriage on April 22, 1868, to Miss Mary Ann Denniston, a sister of Isa E. Denniston, wife of Albert A. Chapman. Mr. Richey united with the Pisgah Church under the labors of the Reverend J. P. Daugherty and was baptized the same night in the waters of Straight Creek. His wife, Mary Ann, was born March 26, 1838, in Union Township. She united with the Pisgah Church when quite young and attended regularly as long as she was able. Mary Ann was the step-daughter of the Rev. J. P. Daughtery. She died November 23, 1921, at the age of 83 years, 7 months and 28 days. Both are buried in Pisgah Cemetery. Josiah and Mary Ann (Denniston) Richey were the grandparents of Josiah E. Richey.

William L. Richey, only son of Josiah and Mary Ann (Denniston) Richey, was born October 19, 1869. He was united in marriage on August 31, 1892, to Ida Evans, born July 23, 1869, and the daughter of Elza and Rebecca (Burgett) Evans. Ida Richey lived her entire life in this community. In her youth she became active in the affairs of Pisgah Church and continued her membership throughout life. She was the oldest of five children, and at the time of her death, she was the oldest resident of the neighborhood. Her death occurred May 28, 1957, and he died March 3, 1957. Both were over 87 years of age at the time of death and are buried in Pisgah Cemetery. Mr. Richey was also very active in the affairs of Pisgah Church. To this union five children were born: Josiah E., Mary A., Lida F., John, (who died in infancy), and Robert L. Mary A. and Lida F. preceded their father and mother in death but both are buried in Maplewood Cemetery, Ripley, Ohio.

Josiah E. Richey, was born on Pisgah Ridge, December 6, 1893, and has lived on the same farm all of his life. He attended Sunday School, Church, the Mefford-Pangburn re-unions and Homecomings at Pisgah Church during all of these years. He remembers his grandmother relating about the big storm which tore down one end of the church building. The year is not certain but she had Joe's father with her at the time and he was just an infant. Josiah E. Richey was married to Nola (Mefford) Watson on April 22, 1961. She was also born in the neighborhood on February 27, 1897. The only other living member of this family is Mr. Richey's brother, Robert L. Richey, who was born January 24, 1904. He attended Pisgah Church and Sunday School over the years and has lived his entire life in the Pisgah Ridge neighborhood. (See J. P. Daugherty.)

"If she ever loved McNamar, that love was ended before she gave her promise to Lincoln. Lincoln loved her sincerely, and she gave to him undivided affection.

"You ask why Lincoln, who first on his arrival in New Salem boarded at the Cameron home, did not make a match with one of the Cameron girls. Perhaps one reason was Lincoln was not a man whom all women liked. The Cameron girls made fun of his awkwardness and called him "Old Plain Abe."

"I do not know that their father shared their feelings, but they were all Democrats while we, their cousins, were Whigs. We liked Lincoln the better for some political reasons for which the Cameron girls disliked him.

"Ann was light-complexioned, here hair auburn. During her sickness her hair was cut, and mother kept it for many years. After a time the moths got into it and we had to destroy it.

Sweet and Beautiful

"She had blue eyes and was slender and not very robust. All our memories and traditions of her are of a sweet and beautiful character. "Ann did not die at New Salem. Before her death my father and mother moved from the tavern to their farm on Sand Ridge, seven miles from New Salem and a mile from the Concord cemetery where (John)? was buried. Business at New Salem did not prosper, as had been expected. My father and his nephew, John Cameron, had invested heavily in the future of that little town and its decline was a serious embarrassment to father.

I do not know by what means John McNamar acquired title to father's farm. It has been said that he bought it after Ann's death as a matter of sentiment. John McNamar was not a sentimental man and he (acquired)? the title before the death (either)? of Ann or my father.

Mother Turned Out

"His alleged love for the memory of my dead sister was not sufficient to induce him to shelter Ann's widowed mother in the home which she had helped to build.

"That was why mother had to take her family of fatherless children and move to a new home in Iowa. He turned mother out. We had a hard time, but at length we made a home there. Mother died in the home of my sister, Nancy Prewitt, in Fairfield, Ia."

After this fashion did the sister of Ann Rutledge talked to me, growing more animated as she talked. We would chat for a while, and I would then withdraw to an adjacent room and write down what she had said, giving her time to rest a little and to think of other things.

"Sarah Rutledge Saunders" she signs her name, but everyone calls her "Aunt Sallie." She was living with her son, James Rutledge Saunders, a bachelor, at Sisquoe, Cal.,when she suffered the fall that broke her hip. She now is in a private home for the care of invalids at Lompoc, Cal.

Sir

I take the liberty of addressing you in relation to a claim which two of the citizens of this county say they have to a tract of land situate in Chester co. Pa.

The land in question, lies near a place called the Turks Head (now Westchester as I have been informed) it was owned by Samuel Richey, Some thirty or forty years ago, he died leaving four sons, Samuel, Robert, William and Andrew The land, as the claimants are informed was entailed by the last will of Samuel (the elder) so that it was held by Samuel jr. & the male heirs of his body — that he has deceased leaving no sons — & on this William Richey son of Robert decd. & Andrew Richey son of Andrew decd predicate their claims. They live in this county. William also son of Andrew lives in Indiana. These claimants seem well satisfied of the justness of their claim, but they are destitute of any definite information either in relation to the location of the land or the special ground of their claim. They don't know even at what time the old man Samuel or his son to whom the land was devised died.

Their fathers removed about forty years go to this State.

The object of my addressing you is to induce you to make inquiries and examinations at the Offices of your county, in which the records of wills deeds &c are kept, and return by letter addressed to me at this place, the result of your examination as well as your opinion, of the validity of the claim. They instruct me to say to you that if in your opinion it would be advisable for them, to take steps to prosecute their claim they will intrust the management of the business to you

Yours respectfully

RICHEY FAMILY - A SUMMARY

The Richey family came to Richland, Lawrence, and Crawford Counties in Illinois in 1855 from Meigs County, Ohio. They were of Scottish-Irish ancestry who came to Pennsylvania about 1745 from County Donegal in Northern Ireland.

It is believed that the Richeys were in N.Ireland as early as 1603 when James I of England (James VI of Scotland), who was a Presbyterian, confiscated over one million acres from native Irish Catholics and resettled the land with Presbyterians from the Lowlands of Scotland. In British Heraldry records the Ritchies were originally from Ardlarach in the Lowlands. In Ireland the name was spelled Richey, Ritchie, and Richie.

Scottish Citizens in Northern Ireland prospered until James II was deposed, and their property was confiscated by William III and the Puritans about 1690. The Scottish Presbyterians who refused to become tenants on their own land, then moved into the hills of County Donegal and surrounding area. They were denied nearly all civil rights and were permitted to engage in only two trades: linen and whiskey making. These trades were not in competition with British industry. Then a confiscatory tax was levied on both trades, and the wily Scots-Irish soon bought ships, ran the port blockades on Donegal Bay, and took their products to Europe and America. Trade restrictions were then tightened, and by 1719 a group of 301 Scottish Citizens of N.Ireland addressed a letter in the form of a petition to come to New England. Among the sighers were many Richeys and Ritchies.

By 1750 Andrew, David, and Adam Richey were on tax lists in Chester and York counties in Pa., along the Susquehanna river. David was owner and captain of a ship called "Beulah." He died in York Co., Pa., where his will was probated in 1797. His children were: Esther Neeley, wife of William; Sarah Trinnel, widow of Alexander; David born 1745; Thomas; Andrew; John born 1755 and married Mary Welsh; Hannah Lamb of Cumberland Co., born 1756; and Adam C(lark) Richey.

David Richey was born 1745 and married Catherine Trinnel about 1762/3. In 1776 he enlisted in the American Revolution in Capt. John Marshall's Company in York County. His children were: Andrew W. born 1763; John M. 1765; William 1767; and Adam Clark 1775.

In 1781 David and family moved to the frontier in Washington Co., Pa., where he bought 300 acres in Fallowfield Township near the Monongahela river. In 1786 he received a warrant grant for 335 3/4 acres nearby, at "Coal Lick" on Pike's Run which enters the Monongahela across from Westmoreland Co. There was a boundary dispute between Virginia and Pennsylvania, and the Pa. residents in lower Wash. Co. were obliged to purchase land certificates for Yohogamia Co., Va. In 1788

David Richey sold his warrant grant to James Thomas, but kept his Fallowfield land. Between 1783 and 1793 he paid tax in Fallowfield on his land, 2 horses, 4 cows, 3 sheep, and his distillery. He had learned to make what his father and grandfather had once carried in the "Beulah," the fine old "blockade buster."

When Pa. reclaimed this land from Virginia, a tax was placed on whiskey to help defray the cost of maintaining the frontier. The Scots-Irish, remembering a confiscatory tax that brought them to America in the first place, rebelled. The Whiskey Insurrection ended in 1794 after many rebels had been burned out. But, by then, David Richey and his sons William and Adam Clark, had moved down the Ohio to Maysville (Old Limestone) in Mason Co., Kentucky. David's wife had died about 1791, and late in 1793 he married Mary McIntyre in Mason Co., Ky.

David's son, Andrew W., stayed in Washington Co., Pa. until 1821 when he moved to Meigs County, Ohio.

ANDREW W.^{3} RICHEY (David ^{2,1})

Andrew W., son of David, was born in 1763. By tradition he is said to have enlisted in the Revolution at age 16. Although an Andrew Richey did enlist in 1779 as Private 7th Class in Cumberland County, it cannot be proven that he was the same Andrew, although the 7th class rating sounds like a young boy of 16.

In later life Andrew W. was called "Captain," and it is said that he participated in the frontier wars in Ohio and was in the Battle of Falling Timbers. Few, if any, militia lists for services in Ohio Territory exist. He was still at home with his parents in 1790 according to the age groupings in his father's house in Wash. Co.

About 1794/5 Andrew W. married Martha Linton. No early marriage records are extant for Wash. or Westmoreland Co. Martha was born 1773, a daughter of Joshua Linton of East Bethlehem Twp., on Pike's Run. The Lintons were of Scottish ancestry, their immigrant ancestor being Rev. John Linton who came from Linton, Scotland, near Edinburgh, to Bucks Co., Pa. in 1682. He was a minister in the Established Church, but soon changed to Quaker in Pa.

Andrew W. and Martha left Pa. in 1821 and went by flatboat down the Ohio headed for Mason Co., Ky. Only their oldest son, John McCuby Richey, remained in Pa.

Their flatboat met with an accident at the Big Bend of the Ohio at the foot of Meigs County, and the family was marooned. Andrew W.

decided to stay there. Meigs was a new county organized in 1819. There were no roads, no schools and no churches, but land was available. Money was almost non-existant on the frontier, and the settlers traded pelts and ginseng for guns, ammunition, and salt. Andrew W. bought 150 acres, cleared part of it, and set out seedling fruit trees brought from Pa. By 1850 the Apple Grove Postoffice was located on his land.

He transported his produce down the Ohio by flatboat to the river town settlements, sold the flatboats, and returned home by canoe. He died on 12 June 1828 and was buried in the new Letart Falls Cemetery (Methodist). By tradition he died of injuries received when he was waylaid by river pirates while on a return trip up river after selling his produce. His father, David Richey, out-lived him, and died in 1834 at age 89 in Mason Co., Ky., where he was buried near Washington.

Andrew's wife, Martha, died on 15 Aug. 1838 and was buried next to him. Their tombstones are still standing in Letart Falls Cemetery.

Their children were: John McCuby born 1796 Pa.; Isaac; Adam Clark; Joseph; William; James Hamilton G.; Thomas Linton born 1810 Pa.; and Nancy 1812-1857 who is buried in Lone Tree Cemetery in Lawrence Co., Ill. on the Richland Co. line.

JOHN McCUBY ^{4} RICHEY (A.W.^{3}, David ^{2,1})

He was born 29 Nov. 1796 in Pa., the oldest child of Andrew W. and Martha. We do not know the source of the McCuby name. John McCuby Richey remained in Pa. until 1832. About 1817 he married Rachel Smith of Westmoreland Co. She was born 1794, a daughter of Jacob and Eva Smith. The Smiths were originally in Bucks Co., and were of German ancestry. They were Presbyterians. Jacob Smith died in 1810 in Westmoreland Co., and left a will naming Rachel as one of his 16 children. Her brother, John Smith, owned a store in Donegal Twp., and by tradition, John M. Richey operated the store for him.

In 1832 John M. and family moved to Letart Twp., Meigs Co., Ohio, where he became head of the clan and farmed his father's land. His children were: Rev. John Smith Richey born 1819 Pa.(Methodist); William Calvin 1821 Pa.; Joseph Linton 1823 Pa.; James Benjamin Austin 1826 Pa.; Katherine who died 1840 and is buried at Letart Falls Cemetery; Andrew Jackson 1829 Pa.; George Washington 1830 Pa.; and Hugh David Richey born 1833 in Meigs Co., Ohio.

The Richeys farmed the land of Andrew W., raised fruit crops, and sold their produce along the Ohio and as far away as New Orleans. By 1850 the farm at Apple Grove near Letart Falls, could no longer support the growing number of Richeys. Adding to the burden was the problem of run-away slaves who crossed from Virginia into Ohio in search of freedom. Across the Big Bend, just north of Ravenswood, Va.(W.Va.) there was a terminal for run-aways. It was located in cellars and underground vaults under a beautiful and historic home built by George Washington for his niece, Mrs. Custis, after Washington made the survey for 3,000 acres in Washington's Bottoms. The property changed hands many times and became a terminal for the underground, but survived the Civil War with a minimum of damage. Under cover of darkness or heavy fog, slaves were smuggled across the river, long before the war, and many of them took refuge at the Richey home while waiting for transport to other places.

In the spring of 1855 John McCuby Richey and part of his children, and his brother, Thomas Linton Richey and family, left Racine in Meigs Co., and came by steamboat to Evansville, Indiana. With John M. were his wife and their married sons: James Benjamin Austin, Joseph Linton, and Rev. John Smith Richey, and their families, and his single children, Nancy and Hugh David, making a total of 23.

The women and children were left with friends and relatives in Evansville, and the men came ahead on foot to Illinois in search of land. Hugh David, however, took the next boat back to Ohio, where he was married the next year.

Left in Ohio were other sons of John M., including William C.Richey who inherited the family land in Meigs Co., and also a family heirloom, being a ship's wheel that had passed through the family from the days of the first David Richey and the "Beulah." The wheel is now owned by Ray Earl Ritchie, grandson of Wm. C. Richey, and Ray E. now owns the Washington home and it's 3,000 acres in Washington's Bottoms. This branch of the family prefers the Ritchie spelling. The wheel has been made into a very unusual lamp.

On 9 July 1855, John M.Richey purchased 137 acres from Isaac Smalley, being the W/2 NW and theE.side, E.Pt., NE., Claremont Twp., Section 3, Twp. 3 North, Range 14 West, Richland Co., Ill. The land was only partly cleared, and there were still herds of deer and flocks of wild turkey. The road east to Vincennes was little more than a mud trail. The Richey land lay in the angle between the road to Claremont and the Vincennes road which is now old Route 50. The property is now owned by the E.R.Scherer family.

The women and children were brought from Evansville, and for the first few months they all lived in a small log house on the Smalley place. In May 1856, James Richey, son of John M., bought the E/2 NE and the SW NE in Section 20, Twp. 4 North, Range 14 West in German Twp., from T.T.Dollahan. The same month Thomas Linton Richey, brother of John M., bought the NW SE, and the SE SW, and the SW NE in Section 23 in German Twp. from Casey Epperson. Through the years additional land was bought by the Richeys in both German and Claremont Townships.

In 1858 John M. Richey received word that his son, Hugh David, had lost a hand while trying to break up a fight among a steamboat crew. On 8 May 1858 John M. and wife Rachel, sold their land to James Armstrong on contract and returned to Ohio. Their son James, sold out to his brother, Joseph Linton Richey, and also went back to Ohio.

On 2 Feb. 1859 James M. Armstrong deeded his purchase back to John M. Richey. In January of 1862, Rachel Smith Richey died in Ohio and was buried in Letart Falls Cemetery. Later in the same year her husband, John M. Richey, married Mrs. Elizabeth (Ball) Sayre. On 14 Jan. 1863, John M. and wife Elizabeth, deeded his land in Richland Co., Ill., to his son Hugh David Richey for $2,350.00. John had formerly sold to Armstrong on contract for $3,500.00. In 1864 Hugh David moved to Richland county and recorded the deed.

John McCuby Richey remained in Meigs County, where he died on 9 Apr. 1879, and was buried in Letart Falls Cemetery next to his first wife, Rachel.

REV. JOHN SMITH ^{5}RICHEY (John M.^{4}, A.W.^{3}, David^{2,1})

He was born 1819 Pa., and went to Meigs Co., Ohio, with his parents in 1832. On 25 Oct. 1844 he married Marion Sayre, with Rev. Isaac Reynolds (Methodist), officiating. He came to Illinois with his parents in 1855, and bought 300 acres near Flat Rock in Crawford County. For a few years he returned to Ohio as a minister, but came back to Flat Rock, where he is buried in the Jones Cemetery.

His children were: Martha A. born 1847; Harvey A. 1850, and married Eliza Mickey of Lawrence Co., and had two sons, Dr. James Austin Richey, and Homer Linton Richey who was a director in the Flat Rock bank; Thomas 1852; Grace 1855; Ella 1857 Ill.; and Estella who married Everett Leonidas Jones in 1895, who was an attorney and state legislator from Robinson in Crawford County.

JOSEPH LINTON 5 RICHEY (John M.^{4}, A.W.^{3}, David ^{2,1})

He was born 24 March 1823 in Pa. He married Hannah Catherine Wolf (also called Anna C.) in Meigs Co., Ohio, on 6 Dec. 1844, with Rev. Isaac Reynolds officiating. She was born 31 July 1825, a daughter of George Wolf of Meigs Co., who had 2/10 of the E/2 of 100 acre Lot No. 269, 270, 271 in town No. 2, R12, Section 7 in the OHIO COMPANY PURCHASE. He was apparently a Revolutionary War soldier, although this line has not been followed. In April 1879 Hannah Wolf Richey and her brother John J. Wolf, sold their part of their father's land to their brother, Michael Wolf.

Joseph L. Richey came to German Twp., Richland Co., in 1855, and bought land in 1856 as previously stated. He also bought land in Petty Twp., Lawrence Co., near the Richland co. line. He died at New Hebron in Crawford Co. on 24 March 1893. His estate was administered in Richland Co., and he was buried in Leech Cemetery in Lawrence Co. His wife, Hannah C., died on 10 Sept. 1833 and was buried in Leech Cemetery. Their tombstones are still standing.

Their children were:

1. James Austin Benjamin b. 17 Jan. 1847 Ohio; died 28 Apr.1860; buried in Leech Cemetery.
2. Isaac Reynolds b. 1 Sept.1848; died May 1913 Lincoln, Neb.
3. Sarah Catherine b. 24 June 1850 Ohio; died 24 May 1881; buried in Leech Cemetery.
4. William Earl 1863-1863; buried Leech Cemetery.
5. John McCuby b. 30 Aug. 1852 Ohio; died 6 Feb. 1917 Olney, Ill.; buried Leech Cemetery, Lawrence Co.; married Emma Piper on 7 Aug. 1875, and had Mary H. who married Charles Gray. Their daughter Georgia Gray, a teacher, married Vern Petty of Olney; Ella married James Baker in 1898; and John Verner died age 2. John M. also reared a niece, Mable, a daughter of his brother George M. There are others in this family whose records are not yet in.
6. George Michael Richey was born 29 Sept. 1853 Ohio; died 20 Oct. 1924; buried Jones Cemetery near Flat Rock, Crawford Co. The first producing oil well in Crawford Co. was on his land. He married Ella B.Shaw(also called Elvessa) and lived near FlatRock. She was a daughter of John R.Shaw who married Rosanna Parker, a daughter of Jonathan Parker.
   1) James Austin Benjamin 1877-1954; married Matilda Lindsay of Lawrence Co.; both buried Jones Cem., Flat Rock. They had: Col.Harold Lindsay Richey, retired, who lives in Victoria, British Columbia; Helen married Story Fox, mayor of Lawrenceville; Dorothy married Donald Smith, both teachers, and live in Auburn, Alabama; Dr.June Richey, doctor of psychiatry, who taught in both U.S. and Ireland, and married Dr.Hugh Dollahan, a school principal in Lawrenceville.

   6) and 7) Elmer and Fannie who died young.
   8) Mabel 1898-1979; reared by her uncle John M. Richey; married Oscar O. Shaw. Lived Glendale, California.

7. Orville Milton Richey born 4 Apr. 1857 Ill.; died 26 Mar. 1946 at Coffeen in Montgomery Co., Ill.; buried Amity in Richland Co., but his will was probated in Lawrence Co. He taught school in Flat Rock, Sumner, and Coffeen. On 18 Jan. 1883 he married Martha Ella Rich. Place of marriage is unknown. Can anyone supply this information? Martha E. was born 1860 and died in 1934 with burial at Amity where she and Orville were active members in theMethodist church for many years. Information about the Rich family is needed. Children were:

1) William Earl born 10 June 1887 Ill.; died 25 Sept.1963,Olney, and was buried at Amity. Married 1st to Nellie Dean Cotterell, daughter of Aden and Martha (Lathrop)Cotterell. A Cotterell sketch appears in the History of Richland, Clay, and Marion Counties. The Lathrop lineage is in the History of Effingham, Jasper, and Richland County, and an additional record was written by Gail L. Lathrop in 1957. Wilma Lathrop of Olney has a copy. Children of William E. and Nellie were: (1) Wendell Earl born 1914; died 25 Sept. 1963 in Olney, and was buried at Amity. (2) Nellie Evelyn born 1921; a teacher; married ______Decker and lives in Lavonia, Michigan. (3) Dr. Harold Winston Richey who teaches in St.Louis University. (4) Helen Evangeline born 1923 Burlington, Colorado; a teacher; married Arthur Weinberg who is States Attorney in Cincinnati. Their daughter, Jennifer Evelyn, is in nurses training. Their son, Daniel Arthur Weinberg, received his medical degree from Case Medical School in June 1980.

   William Earl married 2nd to Cynthia (Cotterell) Richey, widow of his cousin, Harrison Richey. Cynthia was a sister of the first wife of William Earl.

2) Dr. Orville Grant Richey 1884-1918; buried at Amity. Married Ruby Petty and had one son, Orville Paul, born 1918, who is living in Arabia where he is with an oil company. A daughter, Arlie Isis, died young. After the death of Orville G., his wife, Ruby, married E. Ervin who owned a grocery in Sumner.

HUGH DAVID ^{5}RICHEY (John M.^{4}, A.W.^{3}, David^{2,1})

He was born 18 June 1833 in Letart Twp., Meigs Co., Ohio. He attended a subscription school in Meigs county, as did the rest of the family. He came to Illinois with his parents in 1855, but returned the same year to Ohio. On 13 Apr. 1856 he married Cyrena A. Nease in Meigs County. She was born 30 Sept. 1856, the 11th of 12 children of Michael and Catherine (Wolf) Nease of Racine in Meigs County.

The Nease family came from the Rhine river in Germany in 1765 and the immigrants, William Henry, and his wife, Anna (Brock) Nease, took a large tract of land by colonial grant at Germantown (Philadelphia). After William Henry died, his son Henry, lost his father's deed in a fire that destroyed a colony he was creating in the Shenandoah Valley. Henry Nease married Mary Zerkel. They were parents of Michael Nease, father of Cyrena A. Richey. The Germantown land was the subject of court proceedings for years, and title had not been cleared when the British burned Washington in the War of 1812, and court records were lost in the fire. In the early 1900's a National Nease Family Association was organized, and an effort was made to re-open the Nease case. The effort failed, although the government is still holding an escrow account that draws massive interest, for the purchase of the Nease land by several steel companies. Gideon J. Nease, brother of Cyrena, came to Lawrence Co., Ill., and his son B.M.Nease, was a school principal in Sumner, and in Claremont. A copy of the Nease Family History is owned by Glen Nease of German Twp. The Zerkel History has also been published and a copy is owned by Mrs. Robert Stiff, R.R. Dundas, Ill.

Hugh David Richey received 137 acres in Claremont Twp. from his father, John McCuby Richey, and he and Cyrena came here and recorded the deed in 1864. He then built a large two story home on the land facing the road which is now old Route 50 east of Olney, and to the east of the Claremont road. He then bought the E/2 SE SE in Section 4 in German Twp. from Jacob Baird in 1875, and the SE SE Section 34 in same from Henry Marshall in 1877. He also owned a small store in partnership with A.W.Mace in Claremont.

On 24 March 1893, Hugh David and Cyrena sold his land in Richland County to Daniel W. Long of Clay County for $4,500.00, and for $4,000.00 he bought Long's land in Harter Twp., Clay County, in the N/2 SW and SE SW, and the S/2 SE NW., Section 21, T13N, R14W, and a tract of 60 acres in Stanford Twp. He and Cyrena moved to Harter Twp. in 1894. He wore an iron hook for a hand and people called him "Big Hook Davie." His children were:

1) Mary Wealtha born 19 Feb. 1857 Ohio. She married Lot Beadle in 1874 in Richland Co., and had a daughter, Pearley, born 1858, the same year in which Mr. Beadle died. On 18 Sept. 1879 she married James Austin Richey, son of Thomas Linton Richey who was a brother of John McCuby Richey. (see Thos.L.Richey lineage)
2) Arthur Wellington Richey was born 4 Apr. 1860 Ohio. (see Arthur W. Richey lineage)
3) Ida - died young
4) William E. born 1864 Ill.; at age 17 he lost a leg in a mine accident. The mine was located just west of Amity in German Twp. He went back to school, became a Justice of the Peace in Claremont Twp., and entered the real estate business. By 1900 he owned over 2,500 acres in Clay County.

Hugh David Richey died 30 Jan. 1904 at his home in Harter Twp., Clay Co., and was buried in Elmwood Cemetery in Flora. His wife, Cyrena, died 18Sept. 1909 in Cincinnati, Ohio, in the home of their son, Wm.E., and she was brought back for burial next to her husband in Elmwood Cemetery in Flora. A large marble tombstone marks their graves. In 1901 Hugh David deeded all of his land to his son, Wm.E., called "Peg Leg Willie." It was a trust deed guaranteeing the parents the use of the property and rents therefrom for the rest of their natural lives. Hugh David died of heart attack, as did most of the Richeys. Then Willie sold all of his own and his father's land, and moved to Cincinnati, taking his mother with him.

The funeral of Andrew W. Richey was in the Clay City Methodist Church, although he was a member of the Claremont Church. Services were in charge of his I.O.O.F. brothers, and he was buried in the Clay City Cemetery. His old dog, Colonel, kept returning to the river and howling for his master, and someone had to make repeated trips to bring the dog back home. Finally, Charles Lamp, son-in-law of Mr. Richey, shot the dog, and friends and neighbors did not react kindly to the shooting. The old man and his dog were mourned by every child who had ridden in the school wagon with them.

His widow, Catherine (Melrose) Richey, lived among her children after his death. She was with her son, Frank, in Terre Haute, when she died in 1938. She was brought back to Clay City for burial next to her husband. She was a tiny woman and wore a size 2 shoe. She played the pump organ beautifully, with a preference for old religious hymns.

Their children were:

1. Grace, born 20 Nov. 1879 Claremont Twp.; married Charles McDuff in Olney in 1899 and moved to Chicago where he was an electrical engineer
2. Minnie, born 15 Aug. 1881 Claremont Twp.; Richland Co.; married Charles Lamp in Olney. They lived in Chicago for several years, but retired in Clay City. Their daughter, Ruth, married Byron Hutchison who was from Clay Co. and owned a small publishing company in Chicago.
3. Mary Florence born 27 Dec. 1884 Claremont; married Bert Dunnegan and lived in Flora. She died soon.
4. John David Richey, born 25 Feb. 1890 Claremont; attended school in Harter Twp., ClayCo.; married Eliza G. Green in Louisville. She was born 30 Aug. 1893 in Claiborne Co., Tenn., a daughter of Benjamin Harrison and Margaret (Winstead) Green who came to Clay Co. in 1900 and lived in the Red Brush District. Her Green(e) family has been traced back to Judge William Greene of Hunterdon Co., N.J., whose sons helped to found the "Jersey Settlement" in Rowan Co., N.C. Her great-grandfather, Jeremiah Greene, served in the Revolution from Rowan Co., N.C. and moved to Ashe Co.

   John David Richey was village blacksmith in Clay City. He died on 14 Aug. 1948, and his wife died in 1976. Both are buried in Clay City Cemetery.

   Their only child, Ancil Arthur Richey, was born 18 Oct. 1913 in Louisville. He attended Clay City schools and graduated from Harter-Stanford High School in Flora, and received an agricultural scholarship to the University of Illinois, where he played on the polo team. He was district manager, and later a division industrial accounts sales man for Shell Oil Company, before becoming an independent oil producer. He was also co-owner of the Allis Chalmers and DeSoto-Plymouth dealership in Clinton, Ill. He founded Southern Illinois Oil Producers in 1957 and moved to Olney from Clinton in 1968. He married Gladys M.Forbes, a teacher in Decatur, in 1940. In 1969, after being severely injured in a car-tractor collision, he sold his oil business to his partner, and is now semi-retired.

5. Frank Lester Richey born 15 Feb. 1898 Harter Twp., Clay Co.; lived in Terre Haute and was a mechanic; married Elizabeth Porter in Clark Co.; their children are: Catherine, Rosemary and Arlo.
6. Glen Chester Richey born 15 Nov. 1896 in Harter Twp.; married Louise Murray; was a mechanic in Terre Haute. Their only child, Patricia Ann, lived with Ancil A. and Gladys Richey in Clinton, Ill. for several years. She is now employed by CBS Records in Terre Haute.
7. Della Richey, born 6 Dec. 1903 in Arkansas; married Harold Maneeley of Terre Haute. Their only child, Jean, married Robert Newman, an official with the Pullman Company, and lives in Birmingham, Alabama.

THOMAS LINTON ^{4} RICHEY (A.W.^{3}, David ^{2,1})

He was born 5 May 1810 in Pa., and died 1874, with burial in Lone Tree Cemetery, Petty Twp., Lawrence Co., Ill. Lone Tree is also called Prairieton Cemetery, the church being across the line in Richland County.

He married Elizabeth Franks in Meigs Co., Ohio in 1834. She was born in New York in 1808. Her mother, also named Elizabeth Franks, was born 1780 in Germany, and in 1850 lived with the Thos. L. Richeys. This entire family came to Illinois in 1855 with John M. Richey.

Thomas L. bought 120 acres in German Twp., part of which was patented by Joseph Basden whose deed from the government was written on a piece of sheepskin. The land joined that which Thos. L. bought from Casey Epperson in 1856.

Thomas L. joined the Union army at age 51, and served for 2½ years as a Sergeant in the Sixty-third Ill.Regiment where he participated in Sherman's March to the Sea. He was discharged in 1864 with a surgeon's certificate of total disability. He enlisted in Lawrence co., and the war records spell his name Ritchie.

His children were: 1) John Andrew 1837-1905; buried Lone Tree. He served in the Union army. 2) Sarah Matilda 1841-1881; buried Lone Tree; 3) James Austin born 1848 Ohio,

JAMES AUSTIN ^{5} RICHEY (Thos.L.^{4}, A.W.^{3}, David ^{2,1})

He was born 10 Aug. 1848 in Meigs Co., Ohio. See He died 25 May 1926 and was buried at Amity. He came to Richland Co. in 1855. He lived in German Twp. for 52 years except for two years when he went to Green Co., Arkansas with a group of kinfolk. He owned 240 acres and was Amity school director for 12 years. His wife served as postmistress at Amity. He also served as road supervisor for two terms. He was a strong Republican, but never aspired to political office.

He married Mrs. Lot Beadle on 18 Sept. 1879 in Richland Co. She was Mary, the widowed daughter of Hugh David Richey. Mary had a daughter, Pearley Beadle, born 1876.

Children of James Austin Richey were:

1. William E. - single - lived German Twp.
2. Thomas E., 1880-1960; killed in a tractor wreck; married Clara B. Alsey and had Pauline, wife of Ralph Hill; and James; Ellsworth; and Carl.
3. Clem David 1883-1968; married Mamie Young. He worked on the Olney Daily Mail for a few years, then for the Hudson-Hill, John Deere agency, and then moved to Flora where he bought the International Harvester dealership. He had four sons.
4. Cyrena Maud born 1889; married Elmus McCaw; both buried Amity.
5. Bessie Blanche,married Roy Bailey. Both buried Amity. Their son, Otho, was a school principal at Sumner. Their daughter, Cleatis, married Carl Lathrop of Lawrenceville.

Clem David Richey was a Richey through both his mother and his father, and he was an authority on Richey lineage. He was a major source of information and inspiration in the collection of records for the Richey Family History.

> At a date to be announced later, the compiler, Gladys Forbes Richey, will offer xerox copies of a Richey Family History 1745-1980, which will include more detailed records, with pictures and copies of some documents.

Dear Linda Wilson--

I received your letter on Monday and I am going to answer it a little at a time. Today I have a few things on Dunhams and I will send them while I hunt up more answers to your questions.

I will tell you my relation to this group of people. Thomas and Nancy Barbary Burgett Rogers were my great-great-grandparents on my paternal side. (Burgett was Purgett in Kentucky) Ezekiel and Rachel Armstrong Rogers were my great-grand parents, on my paternal side. Perry William and Sophia Fidelia Dunham Rogers were my grandparents. My Dad was Charlie Gibson Rogers, # 9 in a family of ten children. Perry William came to Oklahoma in 1901 to homestead. Perry William died within six months after coming to Indian Territory. The did homestead 160 acres in a community called the Paruna neighbor. All nine children did homestead in about a ten square mile area and lived in the Paruna Neighbor. Nellie, the youngest, died at the age of 15. Thomas Jefferson Rogers moved to Westville , Okla when his children were about 14 years of age. He and his wife, Annie Edith Swank Rogers lived and died in this area and they are buried in Westville,Okla. Eva Jane Rogers Smalley moved to Protection, Kans. and she is buried there. Perry William and Sophia plus all of the other eight children are buried in Willow Creek Cemetery in this community.

I grew up with these extended famiily members so I knew of them and about them quite well. Sophia died January 1, 1927 and is buried in the Willow Creek Cemetery. There is a family story that she lived with the Indians before marrying Perry William. I do have a census record where she was to be adopted by Ezekiel and Rachel. Perry William was 39 and she was 14 or 16.

I do have court record where a Jeremiah Dunham and Elizabeth were married and a record of a Arron Dunham married an Elizabeth Wheatley. I am wondering if his name was Arron Jeremiah Dunham.

I would like to find the parents of Thomas Rogers. I believe it to be the Ezekiel Rogers that is buried in Sprigg township Cemetery. I believe his wife's name was Mary and Thomas named his second daughter , Mary. His first son was William so that gives credence to William as his father. Some other Decendants of Thomas are saying it is John. John, Had a Thomas but I don't believe it is our Thomas. This John' s wife seemed to be Diademia. They were also in Virginia, as well as in Sprigg Township.

I am fairly new on my computer but I have joined the Ancestry.Com so I hope to find something a little later.

We are going to be at the Pisgah Ridge Church Potluck on September 10, so come on down.

I believe you have gone further with you research than I have. I knew I couldn't be in Ohio too much so I have just search Thomas's immediate family and the families that followed. If we are able, we plan on going to Romney, WV and Doylestown, Pa for a short time. I will watch for the answers to your Questions and answer them, if I can. My E-mail address is mruthrogers @ AOL.

Take care. Madge Ruth Rogers Mathews

Dear Mrs. Burgett,

This is a copy of the 1830 Johnson County census Naomi Sexton of Little York, Ind. sent me of the Griffiths in Nineveh Twp.
Hannah Griffith - males 1 10/15 - females 1 under 5 -2 5/10-
1 20/30
Samuel Griffith - males 1 under 5 - 1 20/30 - females 2 under 5-2 5/10 - 1 30/40 -Both page 29 Nineveh Township.
A Samuel and Thomas Griffith came to Indiana from Ohio in 1826.
I found this in Judge Banta's Johnson County History 1888. p.305
In a letter Naomi wrote me June.5, 1978--the following:
One Thomas Griffith died in Johnson Co., and left widow Hannah who 2nd married Jeremiah Hibbs in or before 1838, I saw that marriage but didn't copy it - married March 17, 1831 (forgot I had early Johnson Co. marriages). This Thomas left children Samuel, Mary, Rachel, Elizabeth. (minors when he died)
Another Thomas Griffith died and final settlement was Made 8th Feb. 1870 by administrator A.J. Griffith. He left widow who was probably Phebe, but she may have been a daughter. A check of 1860 Johnson Co. census might find him.
Naomi later found my great great grandfather Thomas in 1860 census living with his daughter, Nancy and her husband W.A.Brooks in Pleasant Twp.
I hope thereis something in this to help you. My typing leaves a lot to be desired.

Sincerely,

Leta Grubb

Samuel Burgett.Georgetown, is one of the oldest and most prominent citizens of Pleasant Twp. and Brown County. He was born on a Farm where he now resides January 25, 1812. His parents were Valentine Jr. & Mary Lane-Burgett. natives of Virginia, the former of German and the latter of English parentage. Mr Burgett, was raised a "farmer's boy" and has been a Farmer through life. In 1829 his Father diedcand soon after Mr Burgett purchased the farm of 240 acres of the heirs. When 23 years of age, he enguaged in Boating on the Ohio River, and followed it for 5 years. His Father gave him $300.00 when heattained his majority which has been all he has received, except from his own labors. Im 1874. he commenced dealing in Leaf Tobacco, Barreled Pork and Flour, having at one time 75.000 pounds of Tobacco,1.000 barrels of flour and 250 Barrels of Pork. Investments in these products proved quite satisfactory in a financial point of view and were continued until 1881, when Mr Burgett turned his business over to his Son in Law, John A Tweed, a former partner, who is still enguaged in buying and shipping Tobacco. Mr Burgett, has been married twice. His first wife was Harriet Parker, daughter of William Parker. They were Married in 1831, and one daughter is living- Harriet, wife of Samuel Brazelton. Mrs Burgett, departed this life November 18,1832. Mr Burgett, was again married in 1839. to Mary G. Brazelton, a native of Gibson County Indiana. Of their 6 children, 3 are living. George, John V.(? a soldier in the late war ?) and Cordelia(wife of Jacob Rainey). Mr Burgett,and wife are members of Olive Chapel,of the Christian demonition, in which body he has been a Deacon from the date of organization. Politically he is Republican and has served two terms as Township Trustee. Samuel Burgett, was born, reared and educated in Pleasant Twp. and has lived there during his long and useful life. He was present at the erection of the first Brick building in Georgetown, and has watched with styange intrest the progress made in all parts of the County during the intervening. Not only has he watched but the better part of his life energies have been to advance the cause of morality,social life, business a

- agriculture. For Seventy years he has toiled early and late to make a home for his children, and a County of which they will be proud. Mr Burgett is probably the oldest inhabitant by birth in Pleasant Township and none is more highly esteemed. Himself and wife are genial and kind hearted and by their acts of Benevolence and Charity have endeared themselves to one and all. His long life has not been a failure financially for he has amassed a sum sufficient for old age and to benifit thoes who survive him."

A good summary with literary pablum. These Historys were a form of Vanity Press. Subsidized by thoes persons it contained. Common in late 19 th Centryy.

Obituary

VICTOR CLINTON BURGETT

Victor Clinton Burgett was born April 15, 1897 to Everett L. and Lulu Day Burgett in Pleasant Township. His childhood was a happy one with grandparents, uncles and aunts close by.

He attended the No. 7 one-room school, and later graduated from Georgetown High School in 1916. In 1976, his class held their 60th class reunion.

In 1918 he entered the A.E.F. and was stationed in Savenay, France in Base Hospital 113 as an x-ray technician. When World War I was over, he returned to the farm.

On October 1, 1921, he was united in marriage to Mary B. Moore. To this union two daughters were born - Virginia Moorman, Dayton, Ohio, and Eileen Turner Hermillion, South Dakota.

Actively interested in the community, he was a member of the Hamersville School Board for 12 years; charter member of Pleasant Township Grange, and a member of the National Grange, Order of the Golden Sheaf.

He was a devoted member of the Bible Chapel United Church of Christ, and attended as long as his health permitted.

Along with his wife and daughters other survivors include his son-in-law Edward Moorman; seven grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren; a sister, Verna Trout, Georgetown; a brother, Lynn Burgett, Cincinnati, along with nieces, nephews, friends and neighbors.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to relatives, friends and neighbors for visits and prayers during the illness of our loved one; for the flowers, cards, food and all expressions of sympathy at the time of his death; to those who sent memorials to the Hamersville Life Squad, Bible Chapel Church, American Heart Association and Gideon Bibles; to Rev. Silvis for his words of comfort; to the nurses and doctors at Brown County Hospital and the Villa.

Former pro baseball p
organize girls slow-pit

By David Wood

A former professional baseball player and a nationally-known authority on girls slow-pitch softball, is organizing an area team which he hopes to compete with semi-pro or professional teams.

For most eleven year olds, playing big-league baseball is an ambition. However in most cases, that is as far as the ambition reaches.

Thomas Turner, originally from Glendale, now residing on Delhi-Arnheim Road in Georgetown, began what he calls his "lifelong ambition" by playing little league baseball, then gradually setting his mark in professional ball only to then use his acquired knowledge in enlightening and actually promoting the sport of women's slow-pitch softball.

n 1936, after pitching for a school team and several al teams after graduation, he played for the Dayton Monarchs in the All Ohio league,

Department of Parks and Recreation for 14 more years and then retired in August of 1984, moving with his wife to Georgetown.

While living in Seattle, he achieved his most recognizable accomplishments for himself as well as the entire sport of Women's slow-pitch softball.

IN 1970, under the direction of Turner, the sport of women's slow-pitch softball became a reality for Seattle,. Previously, according to Turner, only fast-pitch ball was played.

Turner said, "Only six teams played the first year but by 1984, over 500 teams encompassed the city of Seattle. Now you won't find a fast-pitch softball team anywhere in the city."

He added, "The sport caught on like wildfire."

Turner led his own team, 16 to 18 year olds to the national championships. They stood atop the city throne for six years in a row and they failed to lose a game in four years."

History of Brown County (Pleasant Township)
W.H. Beers & Co., Chicago 1883

In the Georgetown Library, Georgetown, Brown County, Ohio

pp. 372 and following: took oath as Capt. 5-11-1777

Capt. Daniel Feagins was noted not only for being among the earliest settlers in the county, but as well for his prowess as a hunter and Indian Scout. He was a native of Virginia, and served through the whole of the Revolutionary Was as Captain. About 1786, he emigrated from Loudoun County, Virginia to Kentucky, descending the Ohio in a boat with several other families, and intending to proceed as far as Salt River. On their way down they landed at Limestone, now Maysville, Kentucky. And Capt. Feagins there met Simon Kenton, with whom he was acquainted in early life. Kenton protested their going farther down the river, declaring it was almost certain the boat would be attack by the Indians at a certain point farther down. At his solicitation, Feagins landed and moved his family and effects out to Kenton Station, near where Washington now is. The boat went on and was attack by Indians who massacred all on board.

Feagins stayed at Kenton's Station for several years and located a large quantity of land in Bracken County-- later he lost nearly all of it. In 1796he moved into sight of what is now Georgetown, Ohio locating just south of the Corporation on land bordering the Fair Grounds.

He had a family of 19 children-- several settled near him-- Fielding, Daniel, Susan. Susan was the sixth of this large and noted family was born May 25, 1780. She was married April 20, 1803 to Edward Thompson and lived near Georgetown. She died in 1855.

Capt. Feagins after opening his farm here, moved with his sonsand their families to Paint Creek in Fayette County, Ohio. His frontiersman life had made him feel at home in more wilderness conditions. He died of "cold plague" in July 1815 while on a visit to his old home near Georgetown.

His wife Violet, survived him several years and lived to be a centenarian. Daniel and Fielding, their oldest children settled near Georgetown. While in Kentucky, they were trained in Indian Warfare by Simon Kenton and both participated in many of the expeditions against the Indians. They served as spies on the river to watch the hostile movements of the red men, in times of apprehended danger.

While Fielding was once hunting deer with his brother-in-law Absalom Craig, near Augusta, Kentucky, they were fired upon by a party of Indians, and Craig was killed just as he was stooping to drink from a spring of water. Fielding abandoning his horse and venison, with difficulty made his escape. His hatred against the Indians was ever afterwards bitter and intense. The body of Craig was recovered and found to be badly mutilated. While Fielding Figgins was living near Georgetown, two roving Indians made their appearance at his cabin and asked for food. Fielding recognized on one of them the shot pouch that Absalom Craig had worn when he was killed. Instantly the slumbering animosity against them was aroused to a high pitch, and following them when they departed from the cabin, he raised his unerring rifle and shot one, instantly killing him. The other Indian escaped. This occured on the west bank of the White Oak, about a mile and a half west of Georgetown, between the upper mill and the county infirmary. Fielding buried his victum on the banks of the stream, and then threw his rifle into the water. He kept the matter a secret until after the flood of 1832, when the skeleton of the savage was washed out. While on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Thompson, he narrated the circumstance. The residence of Daniel Feagins Jr. stood about where the Georgetown Presbyterian Church now is.

Capt. Feagins had obtained a patent for a lorge amount of land in the Lawson Survey, February 23, 1807, and the following deeds are found bearing significant dates from himself and Violet, his wife: March 27, 1807, 100 A to William White; September 24, 1807, to James Roney Jr. and John Roney: October 13, 1807 to Joseph VanMeter's executors 541 A. in the S.E. corner of Lawson's Survey, "for and in consideration of the sum of five pepper corns to them the said Daniel Feagins and Violet, his wife, in hand paid;" May 30, 1808 to Allen Woods, 200 A. in the Lawson Survey, adjoining lands previously sold to John Roney. October 17, 1808 also to Allen Woods, 50 A. in addition to the first purchase. Robert Lawson Survey, No. 2523 was entered in Military Warrent No. 1921.

The following further information about Captain Daniel Feagins and his family I copied from the following source:

Arnold Family Record by I.N. Arnold, Kalona, Iowa 1927
The copy I copied from was in the possession of Hal. G. Figgins of Richland, Iowa 12-28-54.

In Part VII entitled Great-Great Grandfather Arnold: whose name was John and was born in Wales, came to Virginia and married. His oldest son was Levi Arnold. He married Violet Feagans in 1810.

"Violet Feagans born Aug. 15, 1788 Culpepper county Virginia. Daughter of Daniel and Violet (Combs) Feagans, came to Kentucky with her parents in the 1790's Lived on the Kentucky side of the River near Simon Kenton Station, Limestone until 1811. Moved to the Ohio side in 1811 with first child Violet, lived for a short time near Georgetown, Brown County, Ohio. Moved to Jasper Township, Fayette county, Ohio near Washington Court House, until family grew up, before 1849

This is a copy of the record of his family that my Grandfather, John Figgins, had printed in 1908. I do not know whether he worked this out from memory or whether he had records which he used. We have used it as a useful guide in trying to find our way back through the Figgins family.

This comment by Lester W. Figgins

"My name is John Figgins and I was born in Fayette county, Ohio in 1846. There were six of us sons and four daughters. The sons are Eli, living in East Cape Girardeau, Illinois; John, of Burr Oak, Kansas; Calvin of Boone, Iowa; Jesse in Shelby county, Illinois; Henry who died in Illinois in 1887 (leaving two sons, Edward and Lewis, both in South Dakota.); Jacob who lives in Illinois; and William at Stockton, California. (Grandfather names seven brothers ?????)

"My father, Fielden lives in Shelby county, Illinois where he has been since 1852. He is one of four sons ofAbsalom, the others being Henry, John, Levi, all dead.

"Absalom was the son of Fielden Figgins and had three brothers, Richard, Preston, Dan. Richard lived and died in Fayette county, Ohio, and left two sons, one whose name was John, at last accounts living in Franklin county, Kansas. Preston and Dan moved to Iowa.

"Fielden's father was a member of the Figgins family, natives of Scotland, who with five brothers served in the Revolutionary War. All the others were killed or lost in the struggle. He was then living in Kentucky, moving afterwards to Ohio. Fielden had three brothers, Dan, Edward and Willis. Edward died in Ohio and the other two moved to Iowa."

Burr Oak, Kansas, December 1908

Observations: At this point there is very strong indication that Capt. Daniel Feagans is the line through which my family descended.

If Capt. Daniel Feagans was born in Virginia in 1743 , then grandfathers assumption will need to be questioned.

I am inclined to accept the Official Roster as the most authentic in the names and the most accurate in the order of the births of the children of Capt. Daniel Feagans.

In our resource information we have found a variety in the spelling of what could be the family name (Figgins as we spell it now.) In one of my sources it was suggested that the variety of spelling came about because in the earlier days, those who kept the records apparently tried to spell the name as it sounded rather than attempting to be accurate. We have run across records that spell the same person's name two different ways.

Two county Marriage Records have an unusual number of these variations. I have tried to be faithful in spelling the name as it appears in my source. At this point there is no way of knowing for sure that all these are in reality variations of a common name. In some cases the probability is rather high.

The following is a chart of the various forms of the name:

I have prepared this brief summary of a part of the information my son and I have gathered from many sources. Some im portant information has been shared with us by others who are interested in and have done valuable research in the Figgins family. We hope it is informational and interesting to each of you who have opportunity to read it. This has become more than a geneology search. It ties us to history, especially the times of the settlement of Kentucky and Ohio.

Since I lived in Ohio, Greene county at New Burlington, 1949-1952, and my oldest son Paul has lived in Columbus where he attended the University, and Dayton where he now lives; and Philip the next son has lived in Wilmington, and now lives at Aberdeen, Ohio, this has placed us in the very center of where the action was in the early days for 75 years or so.

There is still lots of research that must be done to bring order out of confusion. Time gaps are difficult to bridge and dates are hard to come by. Besides Kentucky and Ohio, we need to research in both Illinois and Iowa besides following up other leads as they surface.

Several families of Figgins' I have visited are able to go back as far as their grandparents. But each lead is valuable. But somewhere along the line, large blocks of information will surely fall in place.

My son Paul and I have both worked on our geneology. Part of the time independly and sometimes together. We share with each other information which we find. Trying not to duplicate each others efforts. Each of us so far, have worked to put the results together in his own way.

Either of us would like to receive information any may have about the Figgins family as well as being happy to share what we may have discovered.

Sincerely yours

Lester W. Figgins

Generation # 4. FamilyBurgett: Maryland-Virginia Branch.

Aaron Burget; son of Valentine & Burget Sr.
---- Lydia, received bounty land on account of his service in the Revolutionary War.

A careful examination of the papers has been made and the following data found under file # 5092 which claims for pension and bounty land were based upon service of Samuel Hodgkina in the Revolutionary War.

Samuel Hodgkins (the name is not signed Hodgkins) was born June 6, 1757. in Carlisle, Pennsylvania, from which place he moved with his father to Rock Run on the Susquehannah River, State not shown from the last named placw, he moved to Harford County Maryland. The names of the soldiers parents are not given.

After the Revolutionary War, he moved to the neighborhood thense to Lexington Kentucky; thens to Brown County Ohio.

While in Brown County Ohio, he applied for pension on April 20, 1841 and alleged that while residing in Harford County Maryland he enlisted on an alarm , date not given and marched to Baltimore, Maryland, in Captain Emmet Busseys Maryland Company, length of service about four weeks; that he again enlisted in the years of 1775 and 1776 and served two tours, one of three months and one of nine months (the latter in flying Corp) in Captain Emmet Bussey's Maryland Company; that in the spring of 1777, he served a tour of two months and in the fall of 1782 a tour of six months, the Officers name not given.

His claim was not allowed as he failed to furnish proof as was requered by the pension laws --

End of letter to Mable Yochum; no signature or designation.

Continuation of Bounty Land Claim of Samuel Hodgkins - A summary of Samuel Hodgkins.

Samuel was born near the Hamlet of Carlisle or Carlysle, in Cumberland County Pennsylvania. Geographically, Carlisle is located a short distance West of Harrisburg Pennsylvania and near the Blue Mountains to the West. His early years were spent in an identical manner to those children born to that primitive period to families that were not wealthy or possessed with political or educational prominance.

Nothing is recorded to indicate when the family moved, from Cumberland County or why they moved. It is evident from the subject's recolections that it must have been after he had reached an age that his mind could retain a memory of the event. In 1833, the subject stated that they moved from Carlisle to Rock Run, a drain of the Suhquahannah River. The reason for the move was not stated, but there could have been only two; economic or protection from the Indians. Since the Indians temperment was never stable and their degree of hostility toward the settlers changed almost daily, it would be a tossup wheather the move was made to excape starvation or a scalping party.

Rock Run, a drain to the Susquahannah has only local prominence and it is not known if it exisy in Pennsylvania or in Northern Maryland. Frpm there, the subject related; the family moved to Winter River in Handford County Maryland. Winter River, may be a local watercourse, a Hamelet or a Stagestop. If it exist today it is of no prominance although it may have been 200 years ago. It was there in June or July that the 18 or 19 year old Samuel was drafted into the Army of the Revolution, to serve intermittently until until the later part of the yearof 1782 or early part of 1783.

Now, at age 26 or thereabouts the matter of the subjects marrage should be explored. Wheather he was married; before he was drafted; while in Service or after he was discharged is not known or mentioned in any of the records and one can only speculate. There is a strong possibility that he was married before he entered the Service. This sunjunctive conclusion is reached from what is recorded in the First U.S. Census of 1790

Cont. Pittsburg County, State of Pennsylvania List as follows: Hodgkins, Samuel. under 16, 1 white male. 16 years and up including Head of Household, 4 White Males. Females, White- including Head of Family , 4. (The listing may be the subjest or the subject's Father. Names were poorly recorded. At the time of the 1790 Census, Samuel would have been age 33. Between date of enlistment there is a span of 15 or 16 years before the Census of 1790 was taken. ample time for the production of 7 Children considering the manner that War was fought.)

Migration into the wilderness would be by the most simple manner. The Ohio River is not far Wezt of Pittsburg County Pennsylvania. A raft, Flat boat or something that would carry 9, and what few effects people possessed tn that primitive period. That they should settle near a Fort would seem sensible. If old records exist for Lexington Kentucky the search could be limited down to the period between 1790 and 1798 when the subject moved to Brown County or Clermont County , whichever existed at the time.

Recorded data relative Samuel Hodgkins is scattered through the preceding pages and establishes his date of Birth. where born, where resided, Military Service , date of Death & where buried. Absolutely nothing is shown that relates to his first wife other than one did exist and there was a Daughter born to that union, her date of birth, to whom married and date of death and blace of burial. Death by the hands of hostiles or, Old age, were common causes for men. Childbed fever. Smallpox, Typhoid fever and Plague caused the death of many woman. In the case of the latter 3, it was the usual practice to remove the survivors as far away from the infection as possible. Be whatever may in the case of Elizabeth Hodgkins-Burget's Mother no record exist at the present and it is assumed that she died between 1790 and 1798 somewhere around Lexington Kentucky. R.I.P.

The Historian for the Ripley Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution furnished the name and address of Mrs Linda H. Wilson and in the same Mail was a letter from the lady herself. She being a descendant of the Valentine Branch was in possession of the family History as handed down and also resided near the Records in Georgetown Ohio. County-seat of Brown County Ohio. Full credit is extended to Mrs Wilson for the material that follows relative Valentine BurgettSr. for without that contribution the section of Valentine would have been sparce of information and the parentage of Aaron uncertain.

Warren H. Miller, 422 Centre Street, Loveland, Ohio, 45140, submitted a request to the National Archives for three types of records: a) Pension; b) Bounty-land Warrant Application; and c) Military. The request was received by the National Archives on April 27, 1981. The National Archives checked off boxes on the request form indicating that they had searched for pension records but not found any and that they were enclosing bounty land records and military records. The set of copies transcribed below appears to be missing at least one page from an affidavit. Later I will search the microfilm records at the National Archives for whatever information may be missing, as well as to verify the accuracy of the below attempted transcription.

Interpretative Note: Records of only one person named Aaron Burgett have been found for present-day Brown County, Ohio in the period before 1830. The above documents in the files of the National Archives relating to Aaron Burgett's military service in the War of 1812 establish that that Aaron Burgett is one and the same as the Aaron Burgett who is recorded as living in Johnson County, Indiana from sometime around 1830.

Following is my transcription of the written resignation as Administratrix of the Estate of Valentine Burgett by his widow, Mahala Burgett. It proves that this same Aaron Burgett was the son of Mahala and Valentine Burgett, Sr. and the brother of Abraham Burgett of Brown County, Ohio. I know of no room for doubt on these family relationships, especially considering the painstaking detail that the probate proceedings went into, even ordering proceeds of the estate to be distributed to illegitimate grandchildren.

I Mahala Burget, widow and wife of Valentine Burget, late of Brown County dec'd. do hereby [?refuse?] and renounce my right of administering on the estate of my late husband the sa[id] Valentine Burget and do respectfully recommend to the Court my two sons Aaron and Abraham Burget as fit & proper persons to be appointed to that trus[t] in my stead and desire that administration of said estate be granted to them.

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas, William Burgett of Butler County Ohio has deposited in the General Land Office of the United States, a certificate of the Register of the Land Office at Indianapolis, whereby it appears that full payment has been made by the said William Burgett, according to the provisions of the Act of Congress of April, 1820, entitled "An act making further provision for the sale of the Public Lands," for the East half of the South West quarter of section three, in Township Eleven north, of Range four East, in the District of Lands offered for sale at Indianapolis, Indiana, containing Eighty acres, according to the official plat of the survey of the said Lands, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General, which said tract has been purchased by the said William Burgett.

Now know ye, That the United States of America, in consideration of the premises, and in conformity with the several acts of Congress, in such case made and provided, have Given and Granted, and, by these presents, do give and grant, unto the said William Burgett and to his heirs, the said tract above described: To Have and to Hold the same together with all the rights, privileges, immunities and appurtenances, of whatsoever nature thereto belonging, unto the said William Burgett, and to his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, I, John Quincy Adams, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the city of Washington, the twenty-second day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and of the Independence of the United States the fifty-second.

6/26/1827 - Aaron Burget of Brown County, Ohio
2/22/1828 - Elizabeth, Catharine, Jemima, Mary and William Burgett of Butler County, Ohio
11/6/1830 - Aaron Burget of Brown County, Ohio

All seven tracts are in Township Eleven North of Range Four East

Some Valentine/Aaron Burgett researchers have said that Aaron Burget (1782-1865), son of Valentine, Sr. and Mahala, had daughters named Elizabeth, Catharine, Jemima and Mary and a son William, as well as a daughter Hannah and sons Samuel, Valentine, Aaron, Jr., Jacob, James and Perry.

My great-great-grandfather William M. Burgett was born 13 April 1812, according to a family bible in the possession of Joe B. Johnson, 1089 Aubin Road, Walla Walla, Washington, 99362. According to the History of Wayne and Lucas Counties, Iowa, he was from Johnson County, Indiana. The 1850 US Census (Indiana, Johnson County, Nineveh Township), Publication M432, Roll 155, page 294, has William Burget, age "37", occupation "Farmer," place of birth "Ohio," enumerated as house #953 and family #953, Aaron Burget, Sr. being house #951 and house #951. The names of William's children correspond to those listed in the History of Wayne and Lucas Counties, Iowa and in the Burgett family bible in possession of Joe Johnson.

It has been presumed that this William H. Burgett was the son of Aaron Burget of the same township and county. It is curious, though, that there were Land Patents in Johnson County, Indiana to William, Elizabeth, Catharine, Jemima and Mary Burgett of Butler County, Ohio all on the same day, February 22, 1827, whereas there was a Land Patent to Aaron Burget of Brown County, Ohio eight months before and another nearly two years after these five. Why was Aaron Burget "of Brown County, Ohio" whereas his presumed daughters and son were "of Butler County, Ohio?" As far as I know, Brown County was never part of Butler County, and if William, Elizabeth, Catharine, Jemima and Mary were his children it seems as though they should have been "of Brown County, Ohio." If they had moved with their father from Brown County to Butler County between June 1827 and February 1828, their father's residence should still have been "of Butler County, Ohio" in November 1830. Perhaps "of" a county means that they were born in that county, not that they were residents of that county.

If this were the case, it suggests that Aaron lived in Butler County at the time his children were born. I'm not at all convinced, however, that this is the case. It is possible that William, Elizabeth, Catharine, Jemima and Mary are another family group entirely, probably closely related to Aaron, who also moved from Ohio to Johnson County, Indiana and lived near Aaron Burgett.

Those Burgett family researchers who have said that Aaron Burget, Sr. had children named Elizabeth, Catharine, Jemima, Mary and William have no further information on the spouses or children of Elizabeth, Catharine, Jemima or Mary Burgett, whereas they do have such information for Samuel, Hannah, Valentine, Aaron, Jr. and Perry Burgett.

THE HICKS FAMILY

WILLIAM A. HICKS, born in 1846, died in 1932, was married first to America Johns. She was born January 22, 1846, and died November 21, 1880. They had four children as follows: Mary B., born July 13, 1867, died January 16, 1886; William, Jr., born December 30, 1869, died April 9, 1893; Fred A., born September 18, 1875, died April 15, 1908; and Joseph S., born in 1872 and died in 1941. Nothing more was learned of William Hicks' first family.

He was married secondly, to Hattie Chapman, born in 1852, and died in 1922. William was a member of Company "B", 34th Ohio Volunteer Infantry during the Civil War and served three years. He was wounded in the battle of Lynchburg, Virginia, when struck by a cannon ball. The missle almost tore off his leg and Mrs. Nellie Hicks states she is still in possession of this particular cannon ball. This second marriage produced two children as follows: Archie Ray, Sr., born March 26, 1891, died April 14, 1961; (See Arch R. Hicks, Sr.), and Flora Hicks who married William Herrmann of Ripley, Ohio. There were twelve children in the latter family as follows: Emma, Hattie, Imelda, Martha, Joan, Ruthie, Frank, Donald, Paul, Tommy, Robert and David.

ARCH R. HICKS, SR., was born in Levanna, Ohio, March 26, 1891, and for many years lived in this neighborhood. Later, he moved to Ripley, Ohio, where he became one of the town's leading citizens. He served as Union Township Trustee for twenty four years and while in that capacity, did much to improve Pisgah Cemetery, reclaiming it from blackberry briars and undergrowth, to a more respectful appearance, exciting the interest of those who cared so much that under the direction of Robert F. Pangburn, over $700.00 was raised by public subscription, which was used by Mr. Hicks to continue his efforts in making Pisgah Cemetery the "show-place" on the hill. Unfortunately, Mr. Hicks passed away before realization of his dream. Subsequently the Pisgah Cemetery Perpetual Care Association was organized to carry on the substantial work he had already accomplished but which was interrupted because of his untimely death. Arch R. Hicks, Sr. was a member of the Ripley Board of Education for sixteen years, a Trustee of Maplewood Cemetery for eight years, and a member of the Republican Executive Committee of Brown County, Ohio. He belonged to the Masonic Lodge, the Shrine of the Scottish Rite, and was a member of the Ripley Church of Christ at the time of his death. Residents of the vicinity feel that they lost a true friend of Pisgah Cemetery with the passing of Mr. Arch R. Hicks, Senior. (See other details under Robert Pangburn.)

THE HICKS FAMILY

WILLIAM A. HICKS, born in 1846, died in 1932, was married first to America Johns. She was born January 22, 1846, and died November 21, 1880. They had four children as follows: Mary E., born July 13, 1867, died January 16, 1889; William, Jr., born December 30, 1869, died April 9, 1893; Fred A., born September 18, 1875, died April 15, 1908; and Joseph S., born in 1877 and died in 1961. Nothing more was learned of William Hicks' first family.

He was married secondly, to Hattie Chapman, born in 1852, and died in 1922. William was a member of Company "G", 34th Ohio Volunteer Infantry during the Civil War and served three years. He was wounded in the battle of Lynchburg, Virginia, when struck by a cannon ball. The missle almost tore off his leg and Mrs. Nellie Hicks states she is still in possession of this particular cannon ball. This second marriage produced two children as follows: Archie Ray, Sr., born March 26, 1891, died April 14, 1961; (See Arch R. 1994 Maplewood Cem. [illegible] 1975 [illegible]

ARCH R. HICKS, JR., third oldest child of Arch R. Hicks, Sr. and Nellie (Pangburn) Hicks, was born in Levanna, Ohio, on October 13, 1915. He graduated with honors from the Ripley High School, Class of 1932.

Further studies at the Ohio State University resulted in an L.L.B. Degree in 1937. He specialized in law and was admitted to the bar at the age of twenty one, the youngest lawyer ever to receive this distinction in Brown County, Ohio. Arch served one year as Mayor of Ripley, Ohio, resigning to serve in the elected office of Prosecuting Attorney which he held for eight years. He has been City Solicitor of Ripley since 1939. He was a delegate to the Republican National Conventions in 1948 and 1952; and in 1960, served as an alternate delegate for the Sixth Congressional District. He is President of the Board of Trustees of the Ripley-Union Township Public Library; President of the Brown County General Hospital; a member of the Brown County Republican Committee; a member and past President of the Kiwanis Club and a member of the Ohio State and American Bar Association. He is also the Counselor for the Pisgah Cemetery Perpetual Care Association. Mr. Hicks, a member of the Ripley Church of Christ, is married to the former Monica Brown and they have two daughters: Carol, the oldest, is married to John L. Cooper and they have one youngster, John David Cooper. Linda, the youngest daughter, is attending Miami University at Oxford, Ohio where she excels in her studies.

Like his father, Arch R. Hicks, Sr., Arch R., Junior is one of the leading and busiest citizens of Ripley, Ohio. But he allows time from his daily work to always meet friends with a generous and friendly smile and visit. (See Line and Robert Pangburn)

WARRANTY DEED

From James F. Burgett and wife to Webster Pangburn for Lot Number 17 in Stephenson's Addition to Pisgah Cemetery

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS: That we, James F. Burgett and Minerva J. Burgett, wife of the said James F. Burgett of the county of Brown and the state of Ohio, in consideration of TEN DOLLARS to us paid by Webster Pangburn of said county and state, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, do hereby GRANT, BARGAIN, SELL and CONVEY to the said Webster Pangburn, his heirs and assigns forever, the following Real Estate situated in the county of Brown and state of Ohio, and in the township of Union, and bounded and described as follows, to wit:

Being Lot Number Seventeen (No. 17), as indicated on the Plat of addition to the Cemetery Lot on Pisgah, made by R. L. Stephenson, said Lot being Ten by forty-nine and one half feet (10 X 49½ feet) and being part of John Harrison's Survey of 400 acres, No. 1544, and all the ESTATE, TITLE and INTEREST of the said James F. Burgett and Minerva J. Burgett, his wife, either in Law or Equity, of, in and to the said premises; TOGETHER with all the privileges and appurtenances to the same belonging, and all the rents, issues and profits thereof; TO HAVE and TO HOLD the same to the only proper use of the said Webster Pangburn, his heirs and assigns forever.

AND the said James F. Burgett and Minerva J. Burgett, wife of said James F. Burgett, for themselves and for their heirs, executors and administrators, do hereby COVENANT with the said Webster Pangburn, his heirs and assigns, that they are the true and lawful owners of the said premises, and have full power to convey the same; that the title, so conveyed, is CLEAR, FREE AND UNINCUMBERED; and further, that they will WARRANT and DEFEND the same against all claim, or claims, of all persons whomsoever.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the said James F. Burgett and Minerva J. Burgett, wife of the said James F. Burgett, who hereby releases her right and expectancy of DOWER in the said premises, have hereunto set their hands and seals this 10th day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

Signed, Sealed and Acknowledged in presence of us:

L. H. Williams	SEAL
D. A. McElroy	SEAL
J. F. Burgett	SEAL
Minerva J. Burgett	SEAL

THE STATE OF OHIO, COUNTY of BROWN, SS.

Be it Remembered, That on the 10th day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred eighty-one, before me, the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace, in and for said county, personally came James F. Burgett and Minerva J. Burgett, his wife, the grantors in the foregoing Deed, and acknowledged the signing and sealing thereof to be their voluntary act and deed, for the uses and purposes therein mentioned. And the said Minerva J. Burgett, wife of the said James F. Burgett being examined by me, separate and apart from her said husband, and the contents of said Deed being by me made known and explained to her, as the Statute directs, declared that she did, voluntarily, sign, seal and acknowledge the same, and that she is still satisfied therewith, as her act and deed, for the uses and purposes therein mentioned.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and affixed my SCRAWL (Seal), on the day and year aforesaid.

NEWSPAPER ITEMS

The following items were taken from the "Ripley Bee", the date underscored, represents the respective issue.

October 19, 1887 We noticed several new monuments in the Pisgah Ridge Cemetery last week.

November 30, 1887 The remains of Billy Burgett were buried in the Pisgah Cemetery last Sunday.

January 4, 1888 The many friends of Rev. J. P. Daugherty of Pisgah Ridge, will sympathize with him in the loss of his daughter, Mrs. Martha Mitchell of Lexington, Kentucky. She was in her 47th year and leaves her husband and three children. She was buried in Pisgah Cemetery.

May 9, 1888 Rev. J. P. Daugherty officiated at the funeral services of Mrs. Mary Ann Kinnett last Saturday.

September 12, 1888 Quite a number of our men and boys, including the pastor, gave the churchyard a thorough cleaning last week. It looks 500 percent better.

September 12, 1888 James Cahall, brother of Parker Cahall, deceased,

Dear Mr. Burgett,

My name is Bill Burgett, and I am searching for family relatives.

My grandfather, William S. Burgett (Burget), may have been born in West Jefferson, Ohio, around 1838. He married Margaret Armstrong in Indiana, Oct. 1857, and moved to Coffee County, Kansas around 1869. He died in 1879 and is buried in Teachout Cemetery near Gridley, Kansas. My grandmother died in 1881, but I do not know where she is buried.

My grandparents had seven children as follows: Eva, Dora and Bura were born in Indiana; Edward, Bertha, Maud and Frank were born in Kansas. My father, Frank, was the youngest, born in 1877; therefore, was just a baby when his parents died. He was unable to tell me very much about his immediate family and nothing about his grandparents, uncles, aunts, etc.

My sister and I have made several trips to Kansas in search of our "roots". On one of these trips earlier this year, we met a long lost cousin who gave us the following information about my grandfather's brother, Frank Marion Burgett (Burget). He was born in West Jefferson, Ohio, March 11, 1840. He married Margaret Annie Timmons of Delphi, Indiana. We believe they were married in Indiana, but we are not sure. We do know that they moved to Coffee County, Kansas along with my grandparents around 1869. Frank Marion died August 30, 1916, and is buried in Rochester Cemetery in Topeka, Kansas. His wife, Margaret Annie, died in Burlington, Kansas, July 10, 1886. We think she is buried in Burlington. This Burgett family had five children as follows: Mahlon and twin, Marion, Bert, Anna and Rosa.

This is about as far back as I can go. Does any of it ring a bell in your family history? If so, I'd appreciate hearing from you.

Thank you sincerely,

Bill Burgett
